relationship with both actors trading on an equal basis Within this framework one of the dominant theoretical debates in the field of International Relations that between Neorealism and Neoliberal Institutionalism the so called Neo Neo debate seeks to shed light on the governing rationale beyond Putin s Russia foreign energy policy vis vis the FSU region the EU and China

The Great Rebirth Anders Aslund, Simeon Djankov, 2014-10-29 The fall of communism 25 years ago transformed the political and economic landscape in more than two dozen countries across Europe and Asia In this volume political leaders scholars and policymakers assess the lessons learned from the great rebirth of capitalism highlighting the policies that were the most successful in helping countries make the transition to stable and prosperous market economies as well as those cases of countries reverting to political and economic authoritarianism The authors of these essays conclude that visionary leadership and a willingness to take bold and comprehensive steps achieved the best outcomes and that privatization of state owned enterprises and deregulation were essential to success Recent backsliding such as the reversal of economic and democratic reforms in Russia and Hungary has cast a shadow over the legacy of the transition a quarter century ago however

Bösch, 2023-10-02 How do conflicts escalate This is one of the major questions in conflict research To offer further answers Richard Bösch follows a tripartite agenda First he develops a constructivist methodology for the study of conflict escalation embedded in a Luhmannian systems theoretical world society perspective Bösch argues that conflicts can be observed as social systems and he looks at the process of conflict escalation by analysing communication Second this analysis offers two case studies the Maidan protests in Ukraine 2013 2014 and Mali s crisis 2010 2012 Third it gives insights on how systems theoretical research can be beneficial for Peace and Conflict Studies At the Fence of Metternich's Garden Mykola

Riabchuk, 2021-03-16 This collection of essays reflects the personal experience of a Ukrainian intellectual engaged since his Soviet time youth in a painstaking but fascinating process of the both cultural and political Europeanization of his country The title refers ironically to the notorious Chancellor Metternich s quip that Asia presumably begins at the eastern fence of his garden or as another apocryphal version maintains at the eastern end of the Viennese Landstrasse This is a story of both exclusion and inclusion of walls and fences but also of a longing for freedom and a quest for solidarity It is a book on different ways of being a European at both the collective and individual level despite various challenges or perhaps thanks to them
