Morgan,Steven Weitzman,2014-11-28 Over the centuries the messianic tradition has provided the language through which modern Jewish philosophers socialists and Zionists envisioned a utopian future Michael L Morgan Steven Weitzman and an international group of leading scholars ask new questions and provide new ways of thinking about this enduring Jewish idea Using the writings of Gershom Scholem which ranged over the history of messianic belief and its conflicted role in the Jewish imagination these essays put aside the boundaries that divide history from philosophy and religion to offer new perspectives on the role and relevance of messianism today Covenant and Polity in Biblical Israel Daniel Elazar,2018-10-08 In this first volume of a trilogy Daniel J Elazar addresses political uses of the idea of covenant the tradition that has adhered to that idea and the political arrangements that flow from it Among the topics covered are covenant as a political concept the Bible as a political commentary the post biblical tradition medieval covenant theory and Jewish political culture The Accidental Empire Gershom Gorenberg,2006-03-07 Discusses the creation of Jewish settlements in territories seized following the 1967 Six Day War the actions and inactions that led to the move into occupied regions and the long term implications of the move Armenian and Jewish Experience between Expulsion and Destruction Sarah M. Ross,Regina Randhofer,2021-11-22 Jews and Armenians are often perceived as peoples with similar tragic historical experiences Not only were both groups forced into statelessness and a life outside their homelands for centuries in the 20th century in the shadow of war they were threatened with collective annihilation Thus far academic approaches to these two classical diasporas have been quite different Moreover Armenian and Jewish questions posed during the 19th and 20th centuries have usually been treated separately The conference We Will Live After Babylon that took place in Hanover in February 2019 addressed this gap in research and was one of the first initiatives to deal directly with Jewish and Armenian historical experiences between expulsion exile and annihilation in a comparative framework The contributions in this volume take on multidisciplinary approaches relating to the conference s central themes diaspora minority issues and genocide
