The Reinvention of Primitive Society Adam Kuper, 2017-02-17 The Reinvention of Primitive Society critiques ideas about the origins of society and religion that have been hotly debated since Darwin Tracing interpretations of the barbarian savage and primitive back through the centuries to ancient Greece Kuper challenges the myth of primitive society a concept revived in its current form by the modern indigenous peoples movement tapping into widespread popular beliefs regarding the noble savage and reflecting a romantic reaction against civilisation and science Through a fascinating analysis of seminal works in anthropology classical studies and law this book reveals how wholly mistaken theories can become the basis for academic research and political programmes Lucidly written and highly influential since first publication it is a must have text for those interested in anthropological theory and post colonial debates

Meeting, 1889      Glyphs and Gallows Peter Wilton Johnson, 1999 In 1995 Peter Johnson went looking for a rare set of petroglyphs located on the outer coast of Vancouver Island near an abandoned whaling village Encouraged by archival research that yielded court records 90 year old correspondence and a tantalizing 1926 newspaper article Peter sought to tie these glyphs to the 1869 wreck of the trading barque John Bright and the bizarre colonial trial that followed He found more questions than answers Why for example were two Nuuchahmuls men so readily hung from a gallows erected in front of their village at Hesquiat And how did this event relate to the rock carvings that Peter knew existed in a cove many miles south along the life saving West Coast Trail by the Graveyard of the Pacific This story explores the significance of particular petroglyphs colonial injustice and the European trading mentality on the west coast at the time of contact Peter interweaves a personal journal with historical narrative in order to produce a lively account of the relationship between our coastal history and a little known Aboriginal art form      Across Cultures / Across Borders Paul Depasquale, Renate Eigenbrod, Emma Larocque, 2009-12-23 Across Cultures Across Borders is a collection of new critical essays interviews and other writings by twenty five established and emerging Canadian Aboriginal and Native American scholars and creative writers across Turtle Island Together these original works illustrate diverse but interconnecting knowledges and offer powerfully relevant observations on Native literature and culture      Paddling to Where I Stand Martine J.
