Klein, 2008-08-17 Los Angeles is a city which has long thrived on the continual re creation of own myth In this extraordinary and original work Norman Klein examines the process of memory erasure in LA Using a provocative mixture of fact and fiction the book takes us on an anti tour of downtown LA examines life for Vietnamese immigrants in the City of Dreams imagines Walter Benjamin as a Los Angeleno and finally looks at the way information technology has recreated the city turning cyberspace into the last suburb In this new edition Norman Klein examines new models for erasure in LA He explores the evolution of the Latino majority how the Pacific economy is changing the structure of urban life the impact of collapsing infrastructure in the city and the restructuring of those very districts that had been forgotten

Outside, America Hikaru Fujii, 2013-04-25 The idea of the outside as a space of freedom has always been central in the literature of the United States This concept still remains active in contemporary American fiction however its function is being significantly changed Outside America argues that among contemporary American novelists a shift of focus to the temporal dimension is taking place No longer a spatial movement the quest for the outside now seeks to reach the idea of time as a force of difference a la Deleuze by which the current subjectivity is transformed In other words the concept is taking a temporal turn Discussing eight novelists including Don DeLillo Richard Powers Paul Theroux and Annie Proulx each of whose works describe forces of given identities masculine identity historical temporality and power etc which block quests for the outside Fujii shows how the outside in these texts ceases to be a spatial idea With due attention to critical and social contexts the book aims to reveal a profound shift in contemporary American fiction

Land of Smoke and Mirrors Vincent Brook, 2013-01-22 Unlike the more forthrightly mythic origins of other urban centers think Rome via Romulus and Remus or Mexico City via the god Huitzilopochtli Los Angeles emerged from a smoke and mirrors process that is simultaneously literal and figurative real and imagined material and metaphorical physical and textual Through penetrating analysis and personal engagement Vincent Brook uncovers the many portraits of this ever enticing ever ambivalent and increasingly multicultural megalopolis Divided into sections that probe Los Angeles's checkered history and reflect on Hollywood's own self reflections the book shows how the city despite considerable remaining challenges is finally blowing away some of the smoke of its not always proud past and rhetorically adjusting its rear view mirrors Part I is a review of the city's history through the early 1900s focusing on the seminal 1884 novel Ramona and its immediate effect but also exploring its ongoing impact through interviews with present day Tongva Indians attendance at the 88th annual Ramona pageant and analysis of its feature film adaptations Brook deals with Hollywood as geographical site film production center and frame of mind in Part II He charts the events leading up to Hollywood's emergence as the world's movie capital and explores subsequent developments of the film industry from its golden age through the so called New Hollywood citing such self reflexive films as Sunset Blvd Singin in the Rain and The Truman Show Part III considers LA noir a subset of film noir that emerged alongside the classical noir cycle in the 1940s and 1950s and continues today The city's status as a privileged noir site is analyzed in relation to its history and through discussions of such key LA noir novels and films as Double Indemnity Chinatown and Crash In Part IV Brook examines multicultural Los Angeles Using media texts as signposts he maps the history and contemporary situation of the city's major ethno racial and other minority groups looking at such films as Mi Familia Latinos Boyz n the Hood African Americans Charlotte Sometimes Asians Falling Down Whites and The Kids Are All Right LGBT

Film Noir and Los Angeles Sean W. Maher, 2020-08-31 This book combines film studies with urban theory in a spatial exploration of twentieth century Los Angeles Configured through the dark lens of noir the author examines an alternate urban history of Los Angeles forged by the fictional modes of detective fiction film noir and neo noir Dark portrayals of the city are analyzed in Raymond Chandler s crime fiction through to key films like Double Indemnity 1944 and The End of Violence 1997 By employing these fictional elements as the basis for historicising the city s unrivalled urban form the analysis demonstrates an innovative approach to urban historiography Revealing some of the earliest tendencies of postmodern expression in Hollywood cinema this book will be of great relevance to students and researchers working in the fields of film literature cultural and urban studies It will also be of interest to scholars researching histories of Los Angeles and the American noir imagination The Play of Light Ann Smock,2021-02-01 Drawing from five contemporary French poets Jacques Roubaud Emmanuel Hocquard Danielle Collobert Anne Portugal and Jacques Jouet Ann Smock juxtaposes them and provides a milieu suitable for philosophical reflection on identity on not being and being on communication and on secrets Smock also includes thinkers such as Ludwig Wittgenstein and Giorgio Agamben who contribute to the conversation as do Jean Luc Nancy and Maurice Blanchot Though the poems considered here are often thought difficult Smock maintains a light touch throughout She writes in an accessible even pleasurable style while contributing to the scholarly study of literature at the border shared by poetry and philosophy Chess World ,1867 Household Chess Magazine ,1866

The Chess world ,1867 Rockstar Games and American History Esther Wright,2022-08-22 For two decades Rockstar Games have been making games that interrogate and represent the idea of America past and present Commercially successful fan beloved and a frequent source of media attention Rockstar s franchises are positioned as not only game changing ground breaking interventions in the games industry but also as critical cultural histories on America and its excesses But what does Rockstar s version of American history look like and how is it communicated through critically acclaimed titles like Red Dead Redemption 2010 and L A Noire 2011 By combining analysis of Rockstar s games and a range of official communications and promotional materials this book offers critical discussion of Rockstar as a company their video games and ultimately their attempts at creating new narratives about U S history and culture It explores the ways in which Rockstar s brand identity and their titles coalesce to create a new kind of video game history how promotional materials work to claim the authenticity of these products and assert the authority of game developers to perform the role of historian By working at the intersection of historical game studies U S history and film and media studies this book explores what happens when contemporary demands for historical authenticity are brought to bear on the way we envisage the past and whose past it is deemed to be Ultimately this book implores those who research historical video games to consider the oft forgotten sources at the margins of these games as importance spaces where historical meaning is made and negotiated Watch our book talk with the author Esther Wright here https://youtu.be/AaC_9XsXCQ Storytelling Across Worlds: Transmedia for Creatives and Producers Tom Dowd,Michael Niederman,Michael Fry,Josef Steiff,2015-01-30 Don t considers definitions and theories of Shakespeare adaptation and emphasises how Shakespeare is both adaptor and adapted. A central section develops these theoretical concerns through a series of case studies that move across a range of genres, media forms and cultures to ask not only how Shakespeare is variously transfigured, hybridised and valorised through adaptational play but also how adaptations produce interpretive communities and within these potentially new literacies, modes of engagement and sensory pleasures. The volume's third section provides the reader with uniquely detailed insights into creative adaptation with writers and practice-based researchers reflecting on their close collaborations with Shakespeare's works as an aesthetic, ethical and political encounter. The Handbook further establishes the conceptual parameters of the field through detailed practical resources that will aid the specialist and non-specialist reader alike, including a guide to research resources and an annotated bibliography.
