L.A. Deco Carla Breeze, 1991 The architecture and interior design of 1920s and 1930s Los Angeles is celebrated in this delightful photographic tour of fabulously detailed residential commercial and public buildings The distinctive Southern California version of the Art Deco style is revealed from the hilltop Griffith Observatory to the houses designed by Lloyd Wright among many others An insightful introduction by respected architectural historian David Gebhard discusses the history of the style as it was adopted in the sunny rather sleepy region during the early decades of the twentieth century As a guidebook to extant architecture of the period in Los Angeles L A Deco offers the latest look at these historic buildings through the lens of Carla Breeze a New York City based photographer and the author of Pueblo Deco Book jacket

The Frontiers of the Other Gaetano Chiurazzi, 2013 In recent years the problem of translation has received renewed attention but it has been mostly approached from a linguistic or ontological perspective This book focuses on another aspect i e the political and ethical implications of translation Engaged in a debate which encompasses various philosophers such as Schleiermacher Benjamin Ortega y Gasset Quine Gadamer Derrida and Ricur the book's contributions show that translation can be considered in an ambivalent way which has a great ethical and political significance as an attempt to bring the other back to one's own world or vice versa as an attempt to open up one's own world and to experience different cultures Translation is in fact inevitably an experience of alterity Series Philosophy Language Literature Philosophie Sprache Literatur Vol 4 Casa Mañana Susan Danly, 2002-01-10 Provides a detailed look at the political and artistic climate in Mexican American relations through an examination of the folk art collection amassed by Dwight and Elizabeth Morrow when he was U S ambassador to Mexico in the late 1920s

Luisa Martín Rojo, 2010-07-30 In her groundbreaking and innovative study the author takes us on a fascinating journey through some of Madrid's multilingual and multicultural schools and reveals the role played by linguistic practices in the construction of inequality through such processes as what she calls de capitalization and ethnicization Through a critical sociolinguistic and discourse analysis of the data collected in an ethnographic study the book shows the exclusion caused by monolingualizing tendencies and ideologies of deficit in education and society The book opens a timely discussion of the management of diversity in multilingual and multicultural classrooms both for countries with a long tradition of migration flows and for those where the phenomenon is relatively new as is the case in Spain This study of linguistic practices in the classroom makes clear the need to rethink some key linguistic concepts such as practice competence discourse and language and to integrate different approaches in qualitative research The volume is essential reading for students and researchers working in sociolinguistics education and related areas as well as for all teachers and social workers who deal with the increasing heterogeneity of our late modern societies in their work
