La Amortajada:

La amortajada María Luisa Bombal, 1968 Antigone's Daughters Marta L. Wilkinson, 2008 Antigone's Daughters presents various readings of the classical myth of Antigone as interpreted through modern feminist and psychoanalytic literary theories. Topics such as femininity, education, and establishing selfhood amidst the restrictions of the patriarchal society presented by Sophocles provide the foundation for the modern novel. This study serves as a model for the comparative interpretation of literary works of the nineteenth and twentieth centuries, including the writings of George Sand, Indiana Karolina Pavlova, A Double Life, Nikolai Chernyshevsky, What Is to Be Done, Emile Zola, L'Assommoir, and Nana. María Luisa Bombal's La amortajada and Isabel Allende's The House of the Spirits each chapter isolates an aspect of Antigone's struggle within both the public and domestic spheres as she negotiates her independence and asserts her voice. A valuable tool for the study of modern literature, the universality of Antigone presented in this study prompts the investigation of many classical motifs while providing a thorough study of various national literatures within their own contemporary contexts. A Companion to Modern Spanish American Fiction Donald Leslie Shaw, 2002. With such figures as Jorge Luis Borges, Miguel Asturias, and Gabriel García Márquez, both the latter Nobel Prize winners, Spanish American fiction is now unquestionably an integral part of the mainstream of Western literature. This book draws on the most recent research in describing the origins and development of narrative in Spanish America during the nineteenth and twentieth centuries, tracing the pattern from Romanticism and Realism through Modernism, Naturalism, and Regionalism to the Boom and beyond. It shows how, while seldom moving completely away from satire, social criticism, and protest, Spanish American fiction has evolved through successive phases in which both the conceptions of the writer's task and presumptions about narrative and reality have undergone radical alterations. DONALD SHAW holds the Brown Forman Chair of Spanish American literature in the University of Virginia. La amortajada María Luisa Bombal, 1962 A Study of La Amortajada by María Luisa Bombal Eleanor Dunn Sweatt, 1972 La escritora en la sociedad latinoamericana Luisa Ballesteros Rosas, 1997 Fairy Tales and Feminism Donald Haase, 2004. In the 1970s, feminists focused critical attention on fairy tales, broke the spell that had enchanted readers for centuries by exposing the role of the fairy tale in the cultural struggle over gender. This book revisits feminist criticism, offers a new evaluation of its merits. A Companion to Latin American Literature Stephen M. Hart, 2007. The evolution of Latin American literature. A Companion to Latin American Literature offers a lively and informative introduction to the most significant literary works produced in Latin America from the fifteenth century until the present day. It shows how the press and its product, the printed word, functioned as the common denominator binding together in different ways over time the complex and variable relationship between the writer, the reader, and the state. The meandering story of the evolution of Latin American literature from the letters of discovery written by Christopher Columbus and Vaz de Caminha via the Republican era at the end of the nineteenth century, when writers in Rio de Janeiro as much as in Buenos Aires were beginning to live off their pens as journalists and serial novelists until the 1960s when writers of the quality of Clarice Lispector in Brazil and García Márquez in Colombia suddenly burst onto the world stage is traced chronologically in six chapters which introduce the main writers in the main genres of poetry prose the novel drama and the essay A final chapter evaluates the post boom novel testimonio Latino and Brazilian literature gay Afro Hispanic and Afro Brazilian literature along with the Novel of the New Millennium This study also offers suggestions for further reading

The Lyrical Vision of María Luisa Bombal Celeste Kostopulos-Cooperman, 1988 This volume contains an examination of what are described as the most poetic examples of Chilean prose written in the 20th century By adopting Ralph Freedman's conceptual definition of lyrical narrative and using it as her point of departure Professor Kostopulos Cooperman argues that the protean and magical nature of Bombal's lyrical prose transcends the causal temporal and spatial movement that characterizes conventional fiction In her view Bombal's work is rather a narrative that arises in the poetic imagination of a narrator who creates a tapestry of expanding musical and pictorial patterns frequently reflecting the inner lives of her protagonists alienated heroines who withdraw into an illusory world of dreams fantasies and idealized realities where the conflict between self and other is rendered through a suggestive and contemplative network of subjective associations

In Search of the Sacred Book Aníbal González, 2018-05-03 In Search of the Sacred Book studies the artistic incorporation of religious concepts such as prophecy eternity and the afterlife in the contemporary Latin American novel It departs from sociopolitical readings by noting the continued relevance of religion in Latin American life and culture despite modernity's powerful secularizing influence Analyzing Jorge Luis Borges's secularized narrative theology in his essays and short stories the book follows the development of the Latin American novel from the early twentieth century until today by examining the attempts of major novelists from Mar a Luisa Bombal Alejo Carpentier and Juan Rulfo to Julio Cort zar Gabriel Garc a M rquez and Jos Lezama Lima to sacralize the novel by incorporating traits present in the sacred texts of many religions It concludes with a view of the desacralization of the novel by more recent authors from Elena Poniatowska and Fernando Vallejo to Roberto Bola o

Theoretical Fables Alicia Borinsky,2015-09-11 Alicia Borinsky argues that the contemporary Latin American novel does not just ingeniously dismantle the referential claims of the more traditional novel it offers a postmodern version of the lessons taught by fiction Latin American fiction perhaps the most inventive literature of recent decades seems marked by its self reflexivity by its playful relationship to history and the everyday and by its concerns with the ways in which language works But is it Borinsky asks really a literature whose primary goal is to raise metafictional questions about writing and reading While the effects of this literature include dismantling the illusions of realism naturalism and historicism the haunting and disturbing energy of its major works lies in their capacity of invoke a region beyond literature through literature Theoretical Fables progresses by way of close readings of the works of eight canonical and not quite canonical Latin American Authors Borinsky argues that the Latin American theoretical fable has its origins in the work of the early twentieth century Argentinean writer Macedonio Fern ndez In this light she studies the works of Jorge Luis Borges Gabriel Garcia M rquez Julio Cort zar Jos Donoso Adolfo Bioy Cesares Manuel Puig and Maria Luisa Bombal

Passionate Subjects/split Subjects in Twentieth-century Literature in Chile Bernardita Llanos M.,2009 Throughout the literary imaginaries of the twentieth century there is a reiteration of an authoritarian patriarchal pattern that permeates the social arena as well as the female subject revealing the contradictions of the Chilean modernity modernization process The nation appears invariably determined by semi feudal and semi modern structures as well as split female modern subjects Noticing this has led the author to write this book and investigate specifically the ways the discourse of modernity conflicts with the marriage contract in the construction of feminine subjectivity Marriage is one of the modern protocols that resolve sexual difference through a pact that proclaims male protection in exchange for female obedience Subordination of difference becomes the overarching feature guiding an incomplete modernity and its attainment in a hierarchical society
