Goodison Memories Steve Zocek, 2022-04-11 Goodison Park is one of British sport s most fabled venues the home of Everton FC since 1892 and one of the last traditional football amphitheatres It has witnessed highs and lows and been graced by the likes of Dixie Dean Tommy Lawton Alan Ball Bob Latchford Gary Lineker Pele and Eusebio As the Toffees prepare to move to the waterfront Goodison Memories celebrates that legendary stadium with vivid recollections not from Evertonians but from opposition players managers officials and sports journalists The result is a collection of candid interviews that capture the essence of Goodison Park Listen to their tales of the Everton players they remember with fondness priceless anecdotes and memories of the atmosphere and features of the stadium Have you ever wondered what it was like for the broadcasters to sit on the TV gantry the press to work from the press box What was it like for match officials to take charge of the game and handle the characters on the Goodison turf Goodison Memories holds all the answers Concentrationary

Memories Griselda Pollock, Max Silverman, 2015-08-25 Concentrationary Memories has as its premise the idea at the heart of Alain Resnais s film Night and Fog 1955 that the concentrationary plague unleashed on the world by the Nazis in the 1930s and 1940s is not simply confined to one place and one time but is now a permanent presence shadowing modern life It further suggests that memory and indeed art in general must be invoked to show this haunting of the present by this menacing past so that we can read for the signs of terror and counter its deformation of the human Through working with political and cultural theory on readings of film art photographic and literary practices Concentrationary Memories analyses different cultural responses to concentrationary terror in different sites in the post war period ranging from Auschwitz to Argentina These readings show how those involved in the cultural production of memories of the horror of totalitarianism sought to find forms languages and image systems which could make sense of and resist the post war condition in which as Hannah Arendt famously stated everything is possible and human beings as human beings become superfluous Authors

Science of Memory Henry L. Roediger III, Yadin Dudai, Susan M. Fitzpatrick, 2007-04-26 Scientists currently study memory from many different perspectives neurobiological ethological animal conditioning cognitive behavioral neuroscience social and cultural The aim of this book is to help initiate a new science of memory by bringing these perspectives together to create a unified understanding of the topic The book began with a conference where leading practitioners from all these major approaches met to analyze and discuss 16 concepts that are crucial to our understanding of memory Each of these 16 concepts is addressed in a section of the book and in the 66 succinct chapters that fill these sections a leading researcher addresses the section's concept by clearly stating his or her position on it elucidating how it is used and discussing how it should be used in future research For some concepts there is general agreement among practitioners from different fields and levels of analysis but for others there is general disagreement and much controversy A final chapter in each section also written by a leading researcher integrates the various viewpoints offered on the section's concept then draws conclusions about the concept This groundbreaking volume will be an indispensable reference for all the students and researchers who will build upon the foundation it provides for the new science of memory

Queer beyond London Matt Cook, Alison Oram, 2022-06-28 When it comes to queer British history London has stolen the limelight But what about the millions of queer lives lived elsewhere In Queer beyond London two leading LGBTQ historians take you on a journey through four English cities from the sixties to the noughties exploring the northern post industrial heartlands and taking in the salty air of the seaside cities of the South Covering the bohemian artsy world of Brighton the semi hidden queer life of military Plymouth the lesbian activism of Leeds and the cutting edge dance and drag scenes of Manchester they show how local people places and politics shaped LGBTQ life in each city forging vibrant and distinctive queer cultures of their own Using pioneering community histories from each place and including the voices of queer people who have made their lives there the book tells local stories at the heart of our national history

Tourism and Memories of Home Sabine Marschall, 2017-02-03 This book investigates home and homeland as destinations of touristic journeys and adds to recent scholarly interest in the intersection between tourism and migration It covers the temporary visits and journeys in search of home and homelands by migrants displaced people exiles and diasporic communities in a wide range of different geographical and historical contexts Personal and collective forms of memory are shown to play a key role in the motivation for and experience of such journeys The volume contributes to the investigation of the tourism memory nexus as it conceptualizes memory as underpinning touristic mobility experience and performativity Based on ethnographic case studies and other types of qualitative empirical research the chapters of this book foreground individual touristic experiences emotions memories perceptions the search for identity and a sense of belonging The book will be of interest to students and researchers in the fields of tourism heritage anthropology identity studies memory studies and migration diaspora studies

Memories of My Life Frederick R. Spark,1913 A Measured Life Richard Hoggart,2020-03-06 Richard Hoggart s book The Uses of Literacy established his reputation as a uniquely sensitive and observant chronicler of English working class life This pioneering work first published in 1957 examines changes in the life and values of the English working class in response to mass media It maps out a new methodology in cultural studies based around interdisciplinary and a concern with how texts in this case mass publications are stitched into the patterns of lived experience Mixing personal memoir with social history and cultural critique The Uses of Literacy anticipates recent interest in modes of cultural analysts that refuse to hide the author behind the mask of objective social scientific technique In its method and in its rich accumulation of the detail of working class life this volume remains useful and absorbing

A Local Habitation Richard Hoggart,2015-01-31 Richard Hoggart s book The Uses of Literacy established his reputation as a uniquely sensitive and observant chronicler of English working class life In this vivid first volume of autobiography he describes his origins in that milieu Orphaned at an early age Hoggart grew up in a working class district of Leeds in an intimate world of terraced back to backs visits from the local Board of Guardians clothing checks and potted meat sandwiches With affectionate insight he recreates the family circle a loving grandmother one domineering and on gentle aunt and a bibulous melancholy uncle and recalls his early schooling the friends he made and the mentors he admired Hard working and articulate Hoggart did well enough at grammar school to go on to Leeds University This volume ends as having earned a higher degree and travelled in Nazi Germany he prepares to leave Yorkshire via the Army for the world beyond Wry compassionate exact A Local Habitation is a classic recreation of working class England between the wars

Communities, Archives and New Collaborative Practices Popple, Simon,Prescott, Andrew,2020-02-26 This innovative book examines the changing relationship between communities citizens and the notion of the archive Archives have traditionally been understood as repositories of knowledge and experience remote from the ordinary people who fund and populate them however digital resources have led to a growing plurality of archives and the practices associated with collecting and curating This book uses a broad range of case studies which place communities at the heart of this exciting development to illustrate how their experiences are central to our understanding of this new terrain which challenges traditional histories and the control of knowledge and power
