Legalizing Marijuana By Paul Ruschmann:

Legalizing Marijuana Paul Ruschmann,2009 Marijuana and prohibition Marijuana is too dangerous to be legal The dangers of marijuana are exaggerated Enforcement of marijuana laws is uneven ineffective and wasteful Marijuana laws must be strictly enforced Relaxing marihuana laws would be good for society Relaxing marijuana laws would lead to too many problems The future of marijuana policy in the United States Medical Marijuana Elaine Minamide,2006-10-06 Editor Elaine Minamide has compiled some hard driving essays that will guide readers across the controversies relating to medical marijuana Essays arranged in a pro versus con format debate the medical benefits of marijuana and argue how marijuana should be regulated by the federal government Should underage patients be allowed to use medical marijuana Should marijuana be legalized for medical and recreational purposes Readers will learn the answers to these and other thought provoking queries Drug Legalization Noël Merino,2015-03-10 This anthology is composed of primary sources written by many of the foremost authorities on drug legalization Leading conservative liberal and centrist views are represented introducing your readers to the broadest possible spectrum of opinions on the topic Each chapter asks a pertinent question about the topic and the viewpoints that follow are grouped into yes and no categories This unique approach provides readers with a concise view of divergent opinions on each topic Contains extensive book and periodical bibliographies and a list of organizations to contact are also included Provide your readers with this invaluable resource so they can understand the debate over drug legalization from all angles The Five Rights of the Individual Philip Schuyler,2012 The US government makes 350 pages of new laws each day including directives of policy that limit what an individual may do at home alone or with consenting adults Such laws are intended to make people safer healthier or more productive but they often violate the Five Rights because they sacrifice personal choices to some presumed greater good Directives of policy may include laws that violate the rights to privacy or free speech laws restricting abortion or physician assisted suicide restrictions on gun rights prohibitions on unhealthy foods cigarettes alcohol or drugs laws that discriminate against gays and laws that violate property rights Drug prohibition laws have been the most damaging Over the past 40 years the US population grew 50 percent while its prison population grew 1 000 percent due mostly to antidrug laws There are now two million Americans in jail half of whom didn t harm coerce or defraud anyone The land of the free has one twentieth of the world s population and one fifth of its prison population Our incarceration rate is seven times that of European countries No democracy has ever had such a large percentage of its people behind bars Legalization of marijuana and decriminalization of other drugs would free hundreds of thousands of individuals end prison overcrowding and save billions of dollars now spent trying to enforce unenforceable laws There would be less need for spying wiretapping and breaking down doors Americans could stop thinking of the police as the enemy and vice versa permitting a renewal of respect for the Five Rights Legalizing Marijuana Margaret J.
