The man with the answers is Albert Jack Daily Express From Walt Disney s frozen head to the kidnap of JFK s brain Albert Jack gathers together all the strangest sickest funniest and most unforgettable urban legends and recounts them with his usual deadpan humour But this is more than just a collection of urban legends it is also a detective story Exploring the real events behind conspiracy theories the exaggerations of history and the assumptions of old wives tales Albert Jack shows us that the truth can definitely be stranger than fiction

Ebenezer Cobham Brewer, 2004-03 Originally published in 1892 the object of this Handbook is to supply readers and speakers with a lucid but very brief account of such names as are used in allusions and references whether by poets or prose writers to furnish those who consult it with the plot of popular dramas the story of epic poems and the outline of well known tales The number of dramatic plots sketched out is many hundreds Another striking and interesting feature of the book is the revelation of the source from which dramatists and romancers have derived their stories and the strange repetitions of historic incidents It has been borne in mind throughout that it is not enough to state a fact It must be stated attractively and the character described must be drawn characteristically if the reader is to appreciate it and feel an interest in what he reads This work an American reprint of The Reader's Handbook by E Cobham Brewer while retaining all of the original material that can interest and aid the English speaking student gives also characters and sketches found in American novels poetry end of the Universe populated by every human being or pseudo human being who's ever lived Except that in the City all murders are literally impossible But Laura's got a very dead body to prove otherwise As part of her investigation Laura will come across the machinations of the various powers within the City including the Rump Parliament and the City Council and more and also perhaps the Secret Architects who built the City in the first place And then there's Faction Paradox a group of time travelling ritualists saboteurs and subterfugers essentially the criminal cult to end all criminal cults As always the Faction's trying to subvert history to its own ends preferably by letting its rivals kill each other off then swooping in to seize
