the Skull and Other Victorian Urban Legends Simon Young,2022-06-27 Winner of the 2023 Brian McConnell Book Award from the International Society for Contemporary Legend Research In the last fifty years folklorists have amassed an extraordinary corpus of contemporary legends including the Choking Doberman the Eaten Ticket and the Vanishing Hitchhiker But what about the urban legends of the past These legends and tales have rarely been collected and when they occasionally appear they do so as ancestors or precursors of the urban legends of today rather than as stories in their own right In The Nail in the Skull and Other Victorian Urban Legends Simon Young fills this gap for British folklore and for the wider English speaking world of the 1800s Young introduces seventy Victorian urban legends ranging from Beetle Eyes to the Shoplifter s Dilemma and from Hands in the Muff to the Suicide Club While a handful of these stories are already known the vast majority have never been identified and they have certainly never received scholarly treatment Young begins the volume with a lengthy introduction assessing nineteenth century media emphasizing the importance of the written word to the perpetuation and preservation of these myths He draws on numerous nineteenth century books periodicals and ephemera including digitized newspaper archives particularly the British Newspaper Archive an exciting new hunting ground for folklorists The Nail in the Skull and Other Victorian Urban Legends will appeal to an academic audience as well as to anyone who is interested in urban legends     Legends of the Apple Alexander Greer Drury,1904     Haunted England Jennifer Westwood,2013-10-31 Watch out for a ghostly ship and its spectral crew off the coast of Cornwall Listen for the unearthly tread and rustling silk dress of Darlington s Lady Jarratt Shiver at the malevolent apparition of 50 Berkeley Square that no one survives seeing Beware the black dog of Shap Fell a sighting warns of fatal accidents England s past echoes with stories of unquiet spirits and hauntings of headless highwaymen and grey ladies indelible bloodstains and ghostly premonitions Here county by county are the nation s most fascinating supernatural tales and bone chilling legends from a ghostly army marching across Cumbria to the vanishing hitchhiker of Bluebell Hill from the gruesome Man Monkey of Shropshire to the phantom congregation who gather for a Sermon of the Dead     Lays and Legends of Cheshire John Leigh,1880
