Lenfer Des Anges:

Revolution in Paradise Yehuda Moraly, 2019-11-01 The era of the German Occupation of France constituted surprisingly a golden age for the arts literature theater popular music and cinema These works of art seem to be devoid of political impact The widespread trend of unrealistic and fantastic art during this period is explained by some scholars as the artists escape from the omnipotent eye of German censorship The purpose of the book is to show that contrary to the accepted view some of these films were intimately linked to the political situation They convey the demonization of characters that while not specifically presented as Jews nevertheless manifested anti Semitic stereotypes of the Jew as ugly rootless low hypocritical immoral cruel and power hungry All five movies analysed Les Inconnus dans la maison dir Henri Decoin 1942 Les Visiteurs du Soir dir Marcel Carne 1942 L Eternel retour dir Jean Delannoy 1943 Les Enfants du Paradis dir Marcel Carne 1943 present characters not identified as Jews but who exhibit negative Jewish traits in contrast to the aristocratic characters whom they aspire to emulate They demonstrate implicitly central themes of explicit anti Semitic propaganda Yehuda Moraly addresses two current major misconceptions regarding the Cinema of Occupied France 1 that the accepted view that there were almost no explicitly Jewish characters in the cinema of that time and place is patently incorrect and 2 that the feature films of Occupied France were not as it is commonly thought free of the propaganda messages that permeated the press the radio and documentary films Analysis of these films brings out the contradictory nature of European anti Semitism On one hand the Jew is the anti Christ throttling the world with disgusting materialism while on the other hand he is representative of an ancestral stifling morality which it is time to abolish Les merveilles du ciel et de l'enfer... [De Coelo] Emanuel Swedenborg, 1782 The Works of Father Prout (the Rev. Francis Mahony). Francis Sylvester Mahony, 1881 Encyclopedia of French Film Directors Philippe Rège, 2009-12-11 Cinema has been long associated with France dating back to 1895 when Louis and Auguste Lumi_re screened their works the first public viewing of films anywhere Early silent pioneers Georges Méliès Alice Guy Blaché and others followed in the footsteps of the Lumi_re brothers and the tradition of important filmmaking continued throughout the 20th century and beyond In Encyclopedia of French Film Directors Philippe Rège identifies every French director who has made at least one feature film since 1895 From undisputed masters to obscure one timers nearly 3 000 directors are cited here including at least 200 filmmakers not mentioned in similar books published in France Each director's entry contains a brief biographical summary including dates and places of birth and death information on the individual's education and professional training and other pertinent details such as real names when the filmmaker uses a pseudonym The entries also provide complete filmographies including credits for feature films shorts documentaries and television work Some of the most important names in the history of film can be found in this encyclopedia from masters of the Golden Age Jean Renoir and René Clair to French New Wave artists such as François Truffaut and Jean Luc Godard The Paris Zone James Cannon, 2016-02-24 Since the mid 1970s the colloquial term zone has often been associated with the troubled post war housing estates on the outskirts of large French cities However it once referred to a more circumscribed space the zone non aedificandi non building zone which encircled Paris from the 1840s to the 1940s This unusual territory although marginal in a social and geographical sense came to occupy a central place in Parisian culture Previous studies have focused on its urban and social history or on particular ways in which it was represented during particular periods By bringing together and analysing a wider range of sources from the duration of the zone s existence this study offers a rich and nuanced account of how the area was perceived and used by successive generations of Parisian novelists including Zola and Flaubert poets songwriters artists photographers film makers politicians and town planners More generally it aims to raise awareness of a neglected aspect of Parisian cultural history while pointing to links between current and past perceptions of the city s periphery

Propaganda Documentaries in France Jean-Pierre Bertin-Maghit, 2016-11-09 In occupied France the Nazis pursued aggressive tightly orchestrated measures designed to monopolize the French market and foster agitation against Americans Jews Communists and others The documentary film was one instrument of propaganda employed by the Nazi occupiers as well as the Vichy government and collaborationists Nearly two hundred of those documentaries have been restored by the French Film Archives Jean Pierre Bertin Maghit s Propaganda Documentaries in France 1940 1944 is the first volume specifically devoted to nonfiction propaganda films distributed in France during the dark years of the German Occupation This book provides a concise overview of Vichy and German film policies including the purchase of an extensive network of movie houses many of which were expropriated from Jewish owners In addition popular prewar American and French feature films were banned while theaters were flooded with propagandist titles Bertin Maghit also illustrates how ideological priorities and political negotiations played out in both topical documentaries and weekly newsreels juxtaposing Vichy s integrationist propaganda with German sponsored documentaries of agitation and exclusion While documentaries are the primary focus of this work the author also addresses other forms of propaganda such as newsreels and posters Appearing in English for the first time and featuring a filmography of 178 restored works Propaganda Documentaries in France 1940 1944 is a provocative and wide ranging work of history and cinema that will be of interest to film scholars and historians as well as sociologists and political scientists

Game Over? Christophe Chalamet, Andreas Dettwiler, Mariel Mazzocco, Ghislain Waterlot, 2017-09-11 Modern science informs us about the end of the universe game over is the message which lies ahead of our world Christian theology on the other hand sees in the end not the cessation of all life but rather an invitation to play again in God s presence Is there a way to articulate together such vastly different claims Eschatology is a theological topic which merits being considered from several different angles This book seeks to do this by gathering contributions from esteemed and fresh voices from the fields of biblical exegesis history systematic theology philosophy and ethics How can we make sense today of Jesus and the New Testament's eschatological message How did he his early disciples and the Christian tradition envision the end of the world Is there a way for us to articulate together what modern science tells us about the end of the universe with the biblical and Christian claims about God who judges and who will wipe every tear Eschatology has been at the heart of Christian theology for 100 years in the West What should we do with this legacy Are there ways to move our reflection forward in our century Scholars and other interested readers will find here a wealth of insights

Screening the Paris suburbs Philippe Met,Derek Schilling,2018-02-06 Decades before the emergence of a French self styled hood film around 1995 French filmmakers looked beyond the gates of the capital for inspiration and content In the Paris suburbs they found an inexhaustible reservoir of forms landscapes and social types in which to anchor their fictions from bourgeois villas and bucolic riverside cafés to post war housing estates and postmodern new towns For the first time in English contributors to this volume address key aspects of this long film history marked by such towering figures as Jean Renoir Jacques Tati and Jean Luc Godard Idyllic or menacing expansive or claustrophobic the suburb served divergent aesthetic and ideological programmes across the better part of a century Themes central to French cultural modernity class conflict leisure boredom and anti authoritarianism cut across the fifteen chapters
