Lu Hsuns Vision Of Reality:

Lu Hsun's Vision of Reality William A Jr Lyell, 2023-11-15 This title is part of UC Press's Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press's mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1976 Children's Lit in China, A history of children's literature in China set in the framework of China's revolution and modernization Lu Xun and his brother Zhou Zhuren were the founding fathers of the idea of the political importance of children and how that connected with literature tailored for them in the 20s and 30s An Intellectual History of Modern China Merle Goldman, Leo Ou-fan Lee, 2002-05-16 This book is the only comprehensive book on modern China's intellectual history Modern Chinese Writers Helmut Martin, Jeffrey C. Kinkley, 2016-09-16 This volume gathers personal reflections on life and literature by 44 of China's leading authors It aims to illustrate how Chinese society and its creative writing have supported competed and fought with each other for the past 40 years and more Much of what is revealed here is mundane but the pressure of bringing art to social and political causes indeed the universal pressure to survive forges this collection into a very human document The strengths and weaknesses of these essays offer a window on those of modern Chinese literature itself Realism was the favoured literary doctrine of the day and reflecting this most of these essays speak for themselves about war revolution betrayal and commitment Morality and the Literary Imagination Gabriel R. Ricci, 2017-07-12 In a letter to Boccaccio Petrarch extolled the virtue of poetry and letters for promoting an understanding of both human nature and morals The letter was designed to console him after hearing a prediction that he was soon to die and that he ought to renounce poetry The prophecy came from an elder renowned for his piety but Petrarch admonished that too often dishonesty and fraud are couched in religious sentiments Nothing not even death according to Petrarch ought to divert us from literature For Petrarch Virgil was the source for understanding how literary studies not only promote eloquence but enhance morals If anything literature dispels the fear of death The claims of this volume is that it may be the case that the virtuous life can be achieved by those ignorant of letters but a more direct and certain route is guaranteed by a devotion to literature The collected works in this new volume of the Transaction series Religion and Public Life heeds Petrarch's advice that literature not only orients us to life's developmental stages it can provide us with a more complete understanding of the human character while artfully advancing morals To this end Michelle Darnell's opening chapter entitled A New Age of Reason explains how existentialism is an argument for how literature can take on philosophical form not as formal argument but as persuasive narrative Over the objections of even those who study Sartre Darnell uses Sartre's The Age of Reason as a model and shows how his literary output was a legitimate philosophical inquiry In addition to the Darnell piece the volume boasts a series of outstanding and innovative works by scholars in the field Taken together as a whole these authors not only illustrate the moral consequences of an original choice but oblige the reader to explore the ramifications of such a choice in one's own life

Historical Dictionary of Modern Chinese Literature Li-hua Ying, 2009-12-22

Modern Chinese literature has been flourishing for over a century with varying degrees of intensity and energy at different junctures of history and points of locale. An integral part of world literature from the moment it was born, it has been in constant dialogue with its counterparts from the rest of the world. As it has been challenged and enriched by external influences, it has contributed to the wealth of literary culture of the entire world. In terms of themes and styles, modern Chinese literature is rich and varied: from the revolutionary to the pastoral, from romanticism to feminism, from modernism to post-modernism, critical realism, psychological realism, socialist realism and magical realism. Indeed, it encompasses a full range of ideological and aesthetic concerns.

Historical Dictionary of Modern Chinese Literature presents a broad perspective on the development and history of literature in modern China. It offers a chronology, introduction, bibliography and over 300 cross-referenced dictionary entries on authors, literary and historical developments, trends, genres and concepts that played a central role in the evolution of modern Chinese literature.

Ideology, Power, Text Yi-tsi Mei Feuerwerker, 1998-10-01

between the scholar gentry class and the people was an enduring theme of the traditional Chinese agrarian bureaucratic state Twentieth century elites recast this as a division between intellectuals and peasants and made the confrontation between the writing intellectual self and the peasant other a central concern of literature The author argues that in the process they created the peasantry the downtrodden rural masses represented as proper objects of political action and shifting ideological agendas Throughout this transition language or discourse has been not only a weapon of struggle but the center of controversy and contention Because of this primacy of language the author's main approach is the close reading or rather re-reading of significant narrative fictions from four literary generations to demonstrate how historical ideological and cultural issues are absorbed articulated and debated within the text Three chapters each focus on one representative author The fiction of Lu Xun 1881-1936 which initiated the literary preoccupation with the victimized peasant is also about the identity crisis of the intellectual Zhao Shuli 1906-1970 upheld by the Communist Party as a model peasant writer tragically exemplifies in his career the inherent contradictions of such an assigned role In the post Mao era Gao Xiaosheng 1928 uses the ironic play of language to present a more ambiguous peasant while deflating intellectual pretensions The chapter on the last of the four generations examines several texts by Mo Yan 1956 Han Shaogong 1952 and Wang Anyi 1954 as examples of root searching fiction from the mid 1980s While reaching back into the past this fiction is paradoxically also experimental in technique the encounter with the peasant leads to questions about the self construction of the intellectual and the nature of narrative representation itself Throughout the focus is on texts in which some sort of representation or stand in of the writer intellectual self is present as character as witness as center of consciousness or as first person or obtrusive narrator Each story catches the writer in a self reflective mode the confrontation with the peasant other providing a theater for acting out varying dramas of identity power ideology political engagement and self representation

Legacies of Childhood Jon L. Saari, 2020-03-17 Jon L. Saari defines the generation of educated Chinese born around the turn of the twentieth century as the last to have the world of Confucian learning etched into their memories as schoolboys yet the first as a group to confront the intrusive Western world The legacies of growing up in a changing environment deeply affected this generation's responses to the further changes in the world they confronted as adults In the collapse of the Qing dynasty and the chaos of the early twentieth century traditional ideas of the self the nature of relationships in society and ethical behavior had to be reexamined and redefined To reconstruct what those who lived through and shaped this extraordinary period felt needed thought and became as children and adults Saari draws on autobiographical writings and his own interviews among the elderly on Taiwan and Hong Kong He interprets this material within its Chinese context but brings Western sociological anthropological and psychological insights to bear on it

From Eileen Chang to Ang Lee Peng Hsiao-yen, Whitney Crothers Dilley, 2014-01-10 In 2007 Ang Lee made an espionage thriller based on the short story Lust Caution by Eileen Chang China's most famous female author of the twentieth century The release of the film became a trigger for heated debates on issues of national identity and political loyalty and brought unexpectedly harsh criticism from China where Ang Lee was labelled a traitor in scathing internet critiques whilst the film's leading actress Tang Wei was banned from appearing on screen for two years. This book analyses Ang Lee's art of film adaptation through the lens of modern literary and film theory as well as featuring detailed readings and analyses of different dialogues and scenes, directorial and authorial decisions and intentions while at the same time confronting the intense political debates resulting from the film's subject matter. The theories of Freud, Lacan, Deleuze, Bataille and others are used to identify and clarify issues raised by the film related to gender, sexuality, eroticism, power, manipulation and betrayal. The themes of lust and caution are dealt with in conjunction with the controversial issues of contemporary political consciousness concerning patriotism and the Sino-Japanese War complicated by divided historical experiences and cross-Taiwan Strait relationships. The contributors to this volume cover translation and adaptation, loyalty and betrayal, collaboration and manipulation, playing roles and performativity whilst at the same time intertwining these with issues of national identity, political loyalty, collective memory and gender. As such, the book will appeal to students and scholars of Chinese and Asian cinema and literature as well as those interested in modern Chinese history and cultural studies.

Encyclopedia of Life Writing Margaretta Jolly, 2013-12-04. First published in 2001. Routledge is an imprint of Taylor & Francis, an informal company.

Illuminations from the Past Ban Wang, 2004. This book offers a cultural history of modern China by looking at the tension between memory and history. Mainstream books on China tend to focus on the hard aspects of economics, government, politics or international relations. This book takes a humanistic look at modern changes and examines how Chinese intellectuals and artists experienced trauma, social upheavals and transformations. Drawing on a wide array of sources in political and aesthetic writings, literature, film and public discourse, the author has portrayed the unique ways the Chinese imagine and portray their own historical destiny in the midst of trauma, catastrophe and runaway globalization.

A History of Chinese Civilization Jacques Gernet, 1996-05-31. When published in 1982, this translation of Professor Jacques Gernet's masterly survey of the history and culture of China was immediately welcomed by critics and readers. This revised and updated edition makes it more useful for students and for the general reader concerned with the broad sweep of China's past.

Gender Politics in Modern China Tani E. Barlow, 1993. Through the lens of modern Chinese literature, Gender Politics in Modern China explores the relationship between gender and modernity, notions of the feminine and masculine and shifting arguments for gender equality in China. Ranging from interviews with contemporary writers to historical accounts of gendered writing in Taiwan and semi-colonial China, to close feminist readings of individual authors, these essays confront the degree to which textual strategies construct notions of gender. Among the specific themes discussed are how femininity is produced in texts by allocating women to domestic space, the extent to which textual production lies at the base of a changing, historically specific code of the feminine, the extent to which women in modern Chinese societies are products of literary canons, the ways in which the historical processes of gendering have operated in Chinese modernity vis vis modernity in the West the representation of feminists as avengers and as westernized women and the meager recognition of feminism as a serious intellectual current and a large body of theory Originally published as a special issue of Modern Chinese Literature Spring Fall 1988 this expanded book represents some of the most compelling new work in post Mao feminist scholarship and will appeal to all those concerned with understanding a revitalized feminism in the Chinese context Contributors Carolyn Brown Ching kiu Stephen Chan Sung sheng Yvonne Chang Yu shih Chen Rey Chow Randy Kaplan Richard King Wolfgang Kubin Wendy Larson Lydia Liu Seung Yeun Daisy Ng Jon Solomon Meng Yue Wang Zheng

Developmental Fairy Tales Andrew F. Jones, 2011-05-02 Jones revises our understanding of modern China by tracing the ways that evolutionary works developed into a form of vernacular knowledge in modern Chinese literature From children s primers to print culture from fairy tales to filmmaking his analysis offers an innovative and interdisciplinary angle of vision on China s cultural evolution
