the madness of war the craft of poetry the profession of teaching and the art of living Balls and Stripes Richard Shellhorn, 2018-03-01 Balls and Stripes is a collection of stories about Alaska's most popular sport basketball and more. The title comes from my many experiences playing coaching and broadcasting Naismith's game as well as refereeing the sport and also wearing the stripes of a sergeant in the U.S. Army. Basketball has taken me all over Alaska with radio gear or whistle in hand. From Barrow to Petersburg from Dutch Harbor to Tok it has been a marvelous journey with countless amusing experiences as well as dramatic moments. Much of the action occurs in my hometown Cordova. A small fishing town of 2500 located on Prince William Sound its denizens are passionate about their hoops and also their rivalry with Valdez located just 70 miles away. In many ways sports transcend location. Small town basketball is the same anywhere yet Alaska with its vast spaces and dramatic climates offers unique experiences. In northernmost Barrow I watched Inupiat cooks shut down a high school cafeteria so they could glimpse the sun for the first time in 67 days on the way to Dutch Harbor. I heard a pilot announce the reassuring words that he would land the small prop plane whenever we can to load on fuel necessary to complete the flight. In Petersburg I learned about julebukking and Men's Night Out. Refereeing always a source of potential controversy has provided its share of highlights. How many officials can claim fame for calling a technical foul on a curtain or playing the first minutes of a championship game with the wrong size ball. Football and baseball are also included. Guess who brought Oregon State's mascot Benny the Beaver to Cordova's Iceworm Festival and dodged barbed wire while tracking down a fly ball in Korea. And like so many others who can not recall in vivid detail a last second shot that didn't go in. People places moments. Sports drama tears and cheers. It's all here.

Deadlock in Korea Ted Barris, 2010-05-22 Between 1950 and 1953 nearly 30,000 Canadian volunteers joined the effort to contain communist incursions into South Korea and support the fledgling United Nations. All the services were there and all served with distinction. The Royal Canadian Navy led a daring rescue of troops from the port of Chinnampo in 1950. Members of the Princess Patricia's Canadian Light Infantry won the highest US battle honour at Kap Yong in April 1951. The Vandoos turned the tide at Hill 355 and twice at Hill 355 in October 1952 and Hill 187 in May 1953. Members of the Royal Canadian Regiment held firm against forces that greatly outnumbered them. The navy and the infantry were bolstered by the Royal Canadian Horse Artillery and Lord Strathcona's Horse tanks as well as members of the service medical engineers provost chaplain and intelligence corps. Still more from the RCAF Thunderbird Squadron took part in the Korean Airlift three years of non-stop supply flights across the Pacific.

A Teacher's Tale Joe Gilliland, 2015-03-05 It was never in author Joe Gilliland's plan to become a teacher certainly not a college teacher and most certainly not an English teacher. But that's what happened and he's never looked back. In A Teacher's Tale he explains how by neither planning for nor seeking a life of learning and teaching lacking a syllabus or lesson plan he discovered that a life in academe lay in his path. The path he's followed for more than fifty years. A Teacher's Tale begins in 1932 with Gilliland's first experiences in schooling and concludes in the summer of 1955 just as he completes his apprenticeship and stands on the
