How Fear Came And Other Stories:

How Fear Came And Other Stories Rudyard Kipling, The stories in this collection are selected from The Second Jungle Book A bunch of stories from Indian jungles with adorable characters like Mowgli the wolf boy Bagheera the black panther Baloo the brown bear that are eternal favourites The Country of the Blind, and Other Stories H. G. Wells, 2009-01-01 The Country of the Blind and Other Stories brings together thirty three of H G Wells science fiction and fantasy short stories which were previously published separately in a variety of periodicals The title refers to one of Wells most popular short stories included in this book The Call of the Wild, White Fang, and Other Stories Jack London, 2009-02-26 The Call of the Wild brought him international acclaim when it was published in 1903 His story of the dog Buck who learns to survive in the bleak Yukon wilderness is viewed by many as his symbolic autobiography No other popular writer of his time did any better writing than you will find in The Call of the Wild said H L Mencken Here indeed are all the elements of sound fiction White Fang 1906 which London conceived as a complete antithesis and companion piece to The Call of the Wild is the tale of an abused wolf dog tamed by exposure to civilization Also included in this volume is To Build a Fire a marvelously desolate short story set in the Klondike but containing all the elements of a classic Greek tragedy Gallegher, and Other Stories Richard Harding Davis, 2014-10-29 This early work by Richard Harding Davis was originally published in 1891 and we are now republishing it with a brand new introductory biography The Exiles and Other Stories is a collection of short stories that include On The Fever Ship The Lion And The Unicorn The Last Ride Together and several others Davis attended Lehigh University and Johns Hopkins University but was asked to leave both due to neglecting his studies in favour of socialising During the Second Boer War in South Africa Davis was a leading correspondent of the conflict He saw the war first hand from both parties perspectives and documented it in his publication With Both Armies 1900 He wrote widely from locations such as the Caribbean Central America and even from the perspective of the Japanese forces during the Russo Japanese War Davis died following a heart attack on 11th April 1916 at the age of 51 The Virgin and the Gipsy and Other Stories David Herbert Lawrence, 2004 These stories of myth and resurrection of uncanny events and violent impulse were with one exception written and published in the latter half of the 1920s The Hermit and the Wild Woman and Other Stories Edith Wharton, 2018-04-05 Reproduction of the original The Hermit and the Wild Woman and Other Stories by Edith Wharton The Country Of The Blind, And Other Stories By H. G. Wells H. G. Wells, 2021-01-01 In the country of the blind the one eyed man is king Or is he In H G Wells acclaimed tale a stranded mountaineer encounters an isolated society in which his apparent advantage sight since all the people are blind proves less than valuable Chimpanzee Man and Other Stories Dominick Ricca, 2012-07 The Schoolmaster of Abbach: and Other Stories W. O. von Horn, 1870 The Ancient Memory & Other Stories John Gneisenau Neihardt, 1991-01-01 Death defying and vulnerable fur traders and Indians demi devils and almost angels and other complex personalities come fully to life in The Ancient Memory which completes the collecting of

John G. Neihardt's early short fiction begun with The End of the Dream and Other Stories Originally published in popular magazines between 1905 and 1908 these stories about the American frontier illustrated Neihardt's artistry in the short form and foreshadow the themes, situations and characterizations of his later better known work. Although two of the Indian stories, the ironic Feather for Feather and the satirical A Political Coup at Little Omaha were collected in The Lonesome Trail in 1907, none has been reprinted since early in the twentieth century. Other stories included here are Like a Woman featuring the plucky Pelagie and The Face in the Balcony which is dedicated to those who have gone through life misunderstood. The Epic-Minded Scot about a stranger who is stubbornly idealistic and scrupulous is considered one of Neihardt's best tales. The Brutal Fact revolves around a William Tell type of contest between trapping partners that anticipates Neihardt's Song of Three Friends. The Lure of Woman, a study of greed and revenge, was expanded into his novel Life's Lure. The Ineffable, Ancient Memory carries profound philosophical implications while presenting a strange doppelgänger of sorts. Finally, the memorable Waters, an alcoholic, one-legged, one-eyed frontier printer is introduced in The Discarded Fetish which, with minor changes, became the first half of the novel The Dawn Builder. In her foreword, Neihardt's daughter, Hilda Neihardt, recalls intimate details incidental to the writing of these stories.

Caterpillar Who Went On A Diet And Other Stories Ranjit Lal, 2004-04-06. A hilarious glimpse of the complex lives of insects. These fourteen scintillating stories are marked by Ranjit Lal's usual combination of meticulous research, rollicking storytelling and fascinating characters. Nimbu, the caterpillar, resolves to go on a diet inspired by the stick insect Cheeni. Chor, the ant, discovers a refrigerator stuffed with goodies and is driven to rebellion. Ladoo, Gulabjamun, one of the resident cockroaches of the famous Golden Thali Restaurant, decides to take on the management to impress his ladylove. You will also meet the body-building cricket, the dung beetles who like to party, and a host of other insects who reveal their inner lives as never before and are true to both the insect and human world. Lal's mastery of the world of birds and beasts as captured in Crow Chronicles and The Life and Times of Altu Faltu also extends to the world of insects, and this is perhaps his most enchanting and comical book to date. Rahul Dutta's unusual and striking illustrations capture the magic of worlds Lal reveals.
