Heritage Comics and Comic Art Signature Auction #828 , Art History for Comics Ian Horton, Maggie Gray, 2022-09-20 This book looks at comics through the lens of Art History examining the past influence of art historical methodologies on comics scholarship to scope how they can be applied to Comics Studies in the present and future It unearths how early comics scholars deployed art historical approaches including stylistic analysis iconography Cultural History and the social history of art and proposes how such methodologies updated in light of disciplinary developments within Art History could be usefully adopted in the study of comics today Through a series of indicative case studies of British and American comics like Eagle The Mighty Thor 2000AD Escape and Heartbreak Hotel it argues that art historical methods better address overlooked aspects of visual and material form Bringing Art History back into the interdisciplinary nexus of comics scholarship raises some fundamental questions about the categories frameworks and values underlying contemporary Comics Studies

The Dynamic Essence of Transmedia Storytelling Barbara Wall, 2024-03-11 The Dynamic Essence of Transmedia Storytelling challenges many established truths about popular literary classics by presenting an analysis of sixty Korean variations of The Journey to the

West a set which includes novels and poems as well as films comics paintings and dance performances dating from the 14th century until today In contrast to the typical assumption that literary classics like The Journey to the West are stable texts with a single original Barbara Wall approaches The Journey to the West as a dynamic text comprised of all its variations She argues that all the creators of such variations from Korean scholars in the 14th century to boy bands like Seventeen in the 21st century participate in the ongoing story world known as The Journey to the West Wall employs literary and quantitative analysis ample graphic visualizations and in depth descriptions of classroom games to find new ways to understand the dynamics of transmedia storytelling and popular engagement with story worlds Her approach opens new frontiers of intertextual analysis to literary scholars and teachers of literature who seek contemporary methods of introducing world literature to new generations of students
