Reading Chinese Painting Sophia Suk Law, Tony Blishen, 2024-02-15 Applying a comparative approach to Chinese and Western art this book examines the characteristics of traditional Chinese art and analyses the distinction between figure painting and portraiture It examines the scenery in Chinese landscape painting and the sense of poetry within the paintings of flowers and birds so that the reader comes to understand the unique essence of Chinese art and is gradually led towards the ethereal world of spiritual abstraction displayed in Chinese painting The author relates the development of Chinese painting to the pursuit of the conceptual sense yijing found in Chinese philosophy and classical literature She describes how Confucianism determined the content of the development of painting while Daoism guided the concept of aestheticism within it Professor Law also examines the way in which differences of method and media profoundly influenced the artistic outcome producing the western skills in the handling of color and light and shade and in China the imaginative use of ink on paper All this is reflected in numerous illustrations ranging from Van Gogh to the great Chinese painters of all the different dynasties from the early Jin dynasty to the Ming and Qing dynasties After reading this book readers will follow the author's rich experience in Chinese painting to understand the characteristics of the different genres of Chinese painting and be able to deeply appreciate the inner meaning of Chinese painting Chinese Painting as Reflected in the Thought and Art of Li Lung-mien, 1070-1106 Agnes E. Meyer, 1923 Chinese Painting Style Jerome Silbergeld, 1982 Westerners seeking to appreciate and understand Chinese art have long felt the need of a fundamental book that explains both the technical means used by Chinese artists and the traditional stylistic modes of artistic expression In Chinese Painting Style Jerome Silbergeld addresses this need beginning with a discussion of basic materials and methods and continuing with in depth studies of the complex paintings created by these methods No other work so thoroughly or systematically describes the Chinese artistic processes ranging from the distinctively Chinese manner of handling the brush to the blending of brushlines wash color and texture into a painted composition The final chapters examine Chinese composition in terms of naturalistic representation and of abstract expression Throughout the book artistic problems are set against a background of Chinese history ideas and geography The illustrations include drawings that reveal the principles of Chinese brushwork together with a broad range of Chinese paintings and calligraphy A unique feature is the precise coding of text and illustrations by which the reader is invited to inspect the specific turn of the brush or adjustment of composition by which the artist achieves his effects Chinese Painting Style provides a penetrating look into the formal basis of this age old art and one that will be useful and engaging both to the general reader and to the serious student Chinese Brush Painting Jane Evans,2004-11-18 Describes the materials and equipment used in Chinese style painting and shows how to depict flowers rocks trees insects birds mammals and people The Chinese on the Art of Painting Osvald Sirén,2005-08-23 Originally published Peiping Henry Vetch 1936
