How Great Thou Art Bettye Jo Van Esler,2013-07-12 Completing How Great Thou Art has been a goal that has actually spanned several decades My family had often suggested how valuable it would be to write these testimonies down so they would not be lost or the facts distorted over time The actual writing however proved to be both a labor of love and an exercise in frustration How much or little detail to include was a constant challenge but in the end I hope I painted an accurate picture rather than just a rough sketch While these testimonies are intended mainly for my family who are already familiar with the people involved I also wanted to make the story interesting and compelling even if the reader is meeting the Van Esler family for the first time I have peace knowing that my legacy to our grandchildren and great
