Aparecida Vilaça,2016-04-29 Native Christians reflects on the modes and effects of Christianity among indigenous peoples of the Americas drawing on comparative analysis of ethnographic and historical cases Christianity in this region has been part of the process of conquest and domination through the association usually made between civilizing and converting While Catholic missions have emphasized the civilizing process teaching the Indians the skills which they were expected to exercise within the context of a new societal model the Protestants have centered their work on promoting a deep internal change or conversion based on the recognition of God's existence. Various ethnologists and scholars of indigenous societies have focused their interest on understanding the nature of the transformations produced by the adoption of Christianity. The contributors in this volume take native thought as the starting point, looking at the need to relativize these transformations. Each author examines different ethnographic cases throughout the Americas, both historical and contemporary, enabling the reader to understand the indigenous points of view in the processes of adoption and transformation of new practices, objects, ideas, and values.

Monuments, Empires, and Resistance Tom D. Dillehay, 2007-04-30 From AD 1550 to 1850 the Araucanian polity in southern Chile was a center of political resistance to the intruding Spanish empire. In this book Tom D. Dillehay examines the resistance strategies of the Araucanians and how they used mound building and other sacred monuments to reorganize their political and culture life in order to unite against the Spanish. Drawing on anthropological research conducted over three decades, Dillehay focuses on the development of leadership, shamanism, ritual, and power relations. His study combines developments in social theory with the archaeological, ethnographic, and historical records. Both theoretically and empirically informed, this book is a fascinating account of the only indigenous ethnic group to successfully resist outsiders for more than three centuries and to flourish under these conditions.

Spirit and Healing in Africa Deborah van den Bosch-Heij, 2012-01-01 There is a great need for healing in Africa. This need is in itself no different elsewhere in the world, but it is greatly determined by the involvement of religious communities and traditions. Faith communities and religious institutions play a major role in assisting African believers to find health, healing, and completeness in everyday life.

Five Minutes with Jesus Randal A. Wiedemann, 2015-10-29 Today's culture is overscheduled, typically characterized by short attention spans. We want to compress our lives into small bite-sized pieces. Taking this approach with Jesus can draw us into a relationship that becomes the focus of our delight. Eventually, our desire for true life is whetted by brief meetings with Jesus. The longer we spend with Him, the more His divinely radioactive life infuses ours with the power of an endless life. The irony of the book title is that five minutes with Jesus is never enough. Five Minutes with Jesus presents a daily devotional that focuses on meeting with Jesus in ways that may be new to some Christians. Each day, author Randal Wiedemann takes a look at a different aspect of Jesus, the most discussed person in history Wiedemann focuses on how to live the Christian faith with delight depth meaning compassion and joy You will discover and be reminded that this is only possible when Jesus Christ lives in and through us Five Minutes with Jesus is about spending quality time with God For those who know Jesus it is a joy to go to that secret inner place of the heart and meet with Him For those who do not there may be a vague sense of looking for something You may not know what it is you are looking for but when you find it don't be surprised if it's Jesus
