Korean Immigrants And The Challenge Of Adjustment:

Korean Immigrants and the Challenge of Adjustment Moon H. Jo, 1999-07-30 With the steady increase in the number of Asian immigrants our interest in Asian American communities has intensified in recent years While much has been written on the experiences of established immigrant communities such as the Chinese and the Japanese little is yet known about the Korean Americans one of today's fastest growing Asian American minorities This volume provides an overview of the history of Korean immigration to this country from the first immigrants who arrived in Hawaii at the beginning of the century to the most recent waves of the 1980s and 1990s and a detailed analysis of the main problems Korean Americans face in adjusting to life in their adopted country The author collected most of his data through a questionnaire survey and case study interviews which provide lively first person accounts of the immigrant experience focusing in particular on problems such as the language barrier social isolation family tension and the challenge of earning a livelihood Pachappa

Camp Edward T. Chang, 2021-04-14 Through new research and materials Edward T Chang proves in Pachappa Camp The First Koreatown in the United States that Dosan Ahn Chang Ho established the first Koreatown in Riverside California in early 1905 Chang reveals the story of Pachappa Camp and its roots in the diasporic Korean community's independence movement efforts for their homeland during the early 1900s and in the lives of the residents Long overlooked by historians Pachappa Camp studies the creation of Pachappa Camp and its place in Korean and Korean American history placing Korean Americans in Riverside at the forefront of the Korean American community's history Preaching to Second Generation

Korean Americans Matthew D. Kim, 2007 This in depth study on preaching to second generation Korean Americans the first of its kind is based on empirical and ethnographic fieldwork Matthew D Kim conducted surveys and semi structured qualitative interviews with Korean American pastors and second generation young adult respondents in three geographic regions of the United States the Midwest the West Coast and the East Coast His primary conceptual framework employs social psychologists Hazel Markus and Paula Nurius theory of possible selves to facilitate the process of congregational exegesis in the second generation Korean American church context This book offers a new contextual homiletic model that enables Korean American preachers to engage in deeper levels of ethnic and cultural analysis in their sermon preparation Simultaneously the author reconstructs conventional preaching roles of Korean American preachers and second generation listeners so that they may co creatively imagine new possible selves that radically advance Christian mission and practice in the world This book will serve as a primary or secondary source for upper level undergraduate graduate and postgraduate courses on preaching communication studies ethnic and racial studies cross cultural ministry or social psychology The Oxford Encyclopedia of American Social History: Men's-YMCA, 2012 Second-Generation Korean Experiences in the United States and Canada Pyong Gap Min, Samuel Noh, 2014-10-29 Pyong Gap Min and Samuel Noh compile a comprehensive examination of 1.5 and second generation Korean experiences in the United States and Canada with contributor chapters focusing on important topics related to younger generation Koreans The volume provides insight for studies of minorities migration ethnicity and race and identity formation Memory and Honor Simon C. Kim,2013 Memory and Honor is a theological reflection on the American experience of the people of Korean descent It is a reflection on the heritage of rupture displacement and resettlement as the key to identity and hope for those continuing to live in between the cultures languages and belief systems of Korea and the United States This book gives voice to the first generation of immigrants and their children Since the majority of Korean immigrants are Protestants the first and second generation Catholic community is a minority of minorities an ethnic minority as well as a religious minority Thus as a minority group and as a minority of minorities Korean American Catholics may have more to contribute to church and society since this country was founded developed and maintained by immigrants such as these Readers will come away with a deeper appreciation of the Korean immigrant contribution and more readily see the Korean American Catholic community as an authentic expression of church Simon Kim is assistant professor of theology at Our Lady of Holy Cross College in New Orleans LA He earned a Ph D in theology from The Catholic University of America in 2011 specializing in theology in cross cultural contexts He works extensively with Korean American communities and offers conferences workshops and retreats across the country on Korean American pastoral ministry Increasing Multicultural Understanding Don C. Chang,Woo Sung Han,2015-04-29 Korean American Pioneer Aviators The Willows Airmen is the untold story of the brave Korean men who took to the skies more than twenty years before the Tuskegee Airmen fought in World War II The tale of the Willows Aviation School connects Korean
