Korean Diaspora Jiyoun Kim, 2024-04-15 This new e book captures images of Koreans in many parts of the world through the camera lens of Kim Jiyoun as her own journey on the subject matured from that of a photographer to a master documentarian over 20 years Painful struggles memories and maltreatment endured by her subjects will touch the viewers anytime anywhere through this new digital medium

The Korean Wave Youna Kim, 2013-11-12 Since the late 1990s South Korea has emerged as a new center for the production of transnational popular culture the first instance of a major global circulation of Korean popular culture in history Why popular or not Why now What does it mean socially culturally and politically in a global context This edited collection considers the Korean Wave in a global digital age and addresses the social cultural and political implications in their complexity and paradox within the contexts of global inequalities and uneven power structures The emerging consequences at multiple levels both macro structures and micro processes that influence media production distribution representation and consumption deserve to be analyzed and explored fully in an increasingly global media environment This book argues for the Korean Wave s double capacity in the creation of new and complex spaces of identity that are both enabling and disabling cultural diversity in a digital cosmopolitan world The Korean Wave combines theoretical perspectives with grounded case studies in an up to date and accessible volume ideal for both undergraduate and postgraduate students of Media and Communications Cultural Studies Korean Studies and Asian Studies

Begin Here Rocio G. Davis, 2007-01-31 An analytically innovative work Begin Here widens the current critical focus of Asian North American literary studies by proposing an integrated thematic and narratological approach to the practice of autobiography It demonstrates how Asian North American memoirs of childhood challenge the construction and performative potential of national experiences This understanding influences theoretical approaches to ethnic life writing expanding the boundaries of traditional autobiography by negotiating narrative techniques and genre and raising complex questions about self representation and the construction of cultural memory By examining the artistic project of some fifty Asian North American writers who deploy their childhood narratives in the representation of the individual processes of self identification and negotiation of cultural and national affiliation this work provides a comprehensive overview of Asian North American autobiographies of childhood published over the last century Importantly it also attends to new ways of writing autobiographies employing comics blending verse prose diaries and life writing for children and using relational approaches to self identification among others

Vo, Rick Bonus, 2002-04-10 Once thought of in terms of geographically bounded spaces Asian America has undergone profound changes as a result of post 1965 immigration as well as the growth and reshaping of established communities This collection of original essays demonstrates that conventional notions of community of ethnic enclaves determined by exclusion and ghettoization now have limited use in explaining the dynamic processes of contemporary community formation Writing from a variety of perspectives these contributors expand the concept of community to include sites not necessarily bounded by space formations around gender class sexuality and generation reveal new processes as well as the demographic diversity of today's Asian American population The case studies gathered here speak to the fluidity of these communities and to the need for new analytic approaches to account for the similarities and differences between them Taken together these essays forcefully argue that it is time to replace the outworn concept of a monolithic Asian America

Multicultural Education in South Korea Mi Ok Kang, 2014-11-13 This book examines the political ideological and socio cultural politics underlying the 2009 National Multicultural Curriculum Reform and recent multicultural education policies in South Korea Unlike the conservative groups in Western countries who argue that supporting cultural diversity and the cultural rights of minority groups balkanizes ethnic differences and divides the community the New Rights and the conservative groups in South Korea have been very supportive of multicultural discourses and practices and have created many multicultural policy agendas geared toward ushering in what have they called the multicultural era Through the Critical Discourse Analysis CDA of government multicultural policy documents a range of media sources the 2009 national curriculum reform policy documents and the 200 Korean language arts textbooks from 23 textbook publishers Multicultural Education in South Korea Language ideology and culture in Korean language arts education examines how the conservative Korean government's interpretation and practices of multiculturalism have been infiltrated and challenged by progressive and migrant led agents agencies The analysis of academic official and popular discourses on migrant Others is focused on but not limited to The multicultural era and struggles for hegemonic power Politics of multicultural knowledge control in education and society Formation of discourses on multicultural society and multicultural education Examining the national curriculum The politics of representing migrant Others and The hidden curriculum of multicultural education Limitations and possibilities The author's insightful discussion on the politics of knowledge education and teaching in multicultural societies will prove particularly useful to policy makers think tank officials and academic scholars in education

Between Foreign and Family Helene K. Lee, 2018-01-31 Winner of the 2019 ASA Book Award Asia Asian American Section Between Foreign and Family explores the impact of inconsistent rules of ethnic inclusion and exclusion on the economic and social lives of Korean Americans and Korean Chinese living in Seoul. These actors are part of a growing number of return migrants, members of an ethnic diaspora who migrate back to the ancestral homeland from which their families emigrated. Drawing on ethnographic observations and interview data, Helene K. Lee highlights the logics of transnationalism that shape the relationships between these return migrants and their employers, co-workers, friends, family, and the South Korean state. While Koreanness marks these return migrants as outsiders who never truly feel at home in the United States and China, it simultaneously traps them into a liminal space in which they are neither fully family nor fully foreign in South Korea. Return migration reveals how ethnic identity construction is not an indisputable and universal fact defined by blood and ancestry but a contested and uneven process informed by the interplay of ethnicity, nationality, citizenship, gender, and history.

Migration and Religion in East Asia Jin-Heon Jung, 2016-04-29 This book sheds light on North Korean migrants, Christian encounters and conversions throughout the process of migration and settlement. Focusing on churches as primary contact zones, it highlights the ways in which the migrants and their evangelical counterparts both draw on and contest each other's envisioning of a reunified Christianized Korea.

Archaeology of Psychotherapy in Korea Haeyoung Jeong, 2014-11-20 This is the first English book dedicated solely to the historical development of psychotherapy in Korea. It is an archaeological research of literature relating to the care and treatment of mind in Korean history in dialogue with spiritual, philosophical, cultural, social, and medical perspectives. It reviews the evolution of different approaches on mental illnesses, covering autochthonous practices, psychiatry, clinical psychology, counseling, Western psychotherapy, and Korean psychotherapy. Archaeology of Psychotherapy in Korea inspects Folk Treatment, First Psychiatry, Influence from Clinical Psychology, Counselling Development, Implementation of Western Psychotherapy, Shaping of Korean Psychotherapy. Its discussion engages firmly with the Korean culture and perspective while acknowledging various extrinsic influences and the fact that Korean psychotherapy continues to evolve in its own unique manner. It aims to refine the understanding of psychotherapy development in Korea in connection with its historical and social backgrounds and to interpret a way to highlight the culturally relevant psychotherapy that is more suitable as a Korean psychotherapy better attuned to the distinct cultural and societal expectation of Korea.

Confessions of a Unificationist Jo Ann Crooks, 2020-11-15 Most of the past publicity about the Unification Church, Unification Movement, and Reverend Moon has been negative. Jo Ann attempts to give an understanding of what this movement is all about based on her experiences and as seen through her eyes and explain what made her and thousands of American young people join this movement. She also tries to give a basic understanding of the Divine Principle, the teachings of Reverend Moon. She says, "I believe if the world knew even the basics of the Principle, we could see the way to peace on earth as we could overcome the things that divide us now." The chapter on "What We Believe" deals with questions humans have been asking from the beginning of time, including who or what God is, the purpose of life, our spiritual and physical bodies, spiritual growth, life after death, the origin of evil, the truth about the life of Jesus the purpose behind human history and the mission Reverend Moon said he was given by Jesus on a North Korean mountainside in 1936 when he was sixteen years old The purpose of giving this basic understanding is to help make happy individuals and families at a time when so many people feel there is no purpose in life or ability to save this world from destroying itself Jo Ann also explains the meaning of the Blessing which refers to the well known group wedding ceremonies a hallmark of the Unification Movement She was matched by Reverend Moon to a Japanese groom and they participated in the Blessing ceremony of 2 075 couples in Madison Square Garden New York in 1982

Born in Phoenix Arizona Jo Ann Crooks grew up in the fifties sixties and seventies Like so many children of that time she grew up in an alcoholic home as her father a World War II veteran tried to deal with the horrors of war by drinking She also grew up as a Catholic and her early experiences of faith influenced her decision as a young adult to join the Unification Church Unification Movement and have helped her to continue in the church for over forty years She considers herself a regular member of the church not a leader of any kind and a typical American She has two adult children and two cats and currently lives in Tempe Arizona a city near Phoenix

The World's Religions after September 11 Arvind Sharma, 2008-11-30 This set is an unprecedented examination of religion's influence on modern life an honest assessment of how religion can either destroy us or preserve us and a thorough exploration of what steps might be necessary for all religions to join together as a force for good Convening on the fifth anniversary of the terrorist attack on the World Trade Center the global congress The World's Religions after September 11 explored the negative and positive possibilities of the religious dimensions of life The presentations from the congress have been pulled together in this set which addresses religion's intersection with human rights spirituality science healing the media international diplomacy globalization war and peace and more This comprehensive set includes contributions from such well known scholars of religion as Arvind Sharma and a host of others from all the world's religious traditions This set is an unprecedented examination of religion's influence on modern life an honest assessment of how religion can either destroy us or preserve us and a thorough exploration of what steps might be necessary for all religions to join together as a force for good Because of the attack on the World Trade Center on September 11 2001 the very concept of religion underwent a paradigm shift Instead of standing for virtue and piety peace and harmony the word religion also came to be inextricably associated with evil aggression and terror People around the world began to question whether the religious and secular dimensions of modern life can be reconciled whether the different religions of the world can ever coexist in harmony Indeed the very future of religion itself has sometimes seemed to be uncertain or at least suspect

Religious and Philosophical

Traditions of Korea Kevin Cawley,2019-02-22 Religious and Philosophical Traditions of Korea addresses a wide range of traditions serving as a guide to those interested in Buddhism Confucianism Shamanism Christianity and many others It brings readers along a journey from the past to the present moving beyond the confines of the Korean peninsula In this book Kevin N Cawley examines the different ideas which have shaped a vibrant and exciting intellectual history and engages with some of the key texts and figures from Korea s intellectual traditions This comprehensive and riveting text emphasises how some of these ideas have real relevance in the world today and how they have practical value for our lives in the twenty first century Students researchers and academics in the growing area of Korean Studies will find this book indispensable It will also be of interest to undergraduates and graduate students interested in the comparative study of Asian religions philosophies and cultures

Democracy and Authority in Korea Geir Helgesen,2014-06-03 This controversial new study breaks with the tradition of basing political studies on analyses of institutions and political personalities by likening the Republic of Korea to a laboratory for the clash of political cultures In the late 1940s the Americans embarked upon a democratization programme designed to create a Western bulwark against the spread of communism in East Asia The intervening years have seen the advent and demise of military rule with South Korea now having a democratically elected government Although the US strategy thus seems successful the political crises of 1995 in fact indicate that many obstacles remain here to the adoption of Western style democracy This study argues that socialization in general and political socialization in particular are key factors in any analysis of democracy be it in Korea or elsewhere Accordingly the work draws on moral education textbooks together with surveys and interviews among members of the urban intellectual elite In this manner the psychological roots of power and authority key concepts to an understanding of good government are explored

Corporate Social Responsibility James Weber,David Wasieleski,2018-05-14 Volume Two of Business and Society 360 focuses on research drawn from work grounded in corporate social responsibility and corporate citizenship
