The Oxford History of the Novel in English Simon Gikandi,2016-09-05 Why did the novel take such a long time to emerge in the colonial world And what cultural work did it come to perform in societies where subjects were not free and modes of social organization diverged from the European cultural centers where the novel gained its form and audience Answering these questions and more Volume 11 The Novel in Africa and the Caribbean since 1950 explores the institutions of cultural production that exerted influence in late colonialism from missionary schools and metropolitan publishers to universities and small presses How these structures provoke and respond to the literary trends and social peculiarities of Africa and the Caribbean impacts not only the writing and reading of novels in those regions but also has a transformative effect on the novel as a global phenomenon Together the volume s 32 contributing experts tell a story about the close relationship between the novel and the project of decolonization and explore the multiple ways in which novels enable readers to imagine communities beyond their own and thus made this form of literature a compelling catalyst for cultural transformation The authors show that even as the novel grows in Africa and the Caribbean as a mark of the elites mastery of European form it becomes the essential instrument for critiquing colonialism and for articulating the new horizons of cultural nationalism Within this historical context the volume examines works by authors such as Chinua Achebe Nadine Gordimer George Lamming Jamaica Kincaid V S Naipaul Zoe Wicomb J M Coetzee and many others Encyclopedia of African Literature Simon Gikandi,2003-09-02 The most comprehensive reference work on African literature to date this book covers all the key historical and cultural issues in the field The Encyclopedia contains over 600 entries covering criticism and theory African literature s development as a field of scholarship and studies of established and lesser known writers and their texts While the greatest proportion of literary work in Africa has been a product of the twentieth century the Encyclopedia also covers the literature back to the earliest eras of story telling and oral transmission making this a unique and valuable resource for those studying social sciences as well as humanities This work includes cross references suggestions for further reading and a comprehensive index The Cambridge Companion to Utopian Literature Gregory Claeys,2010-08-05 Since the publication of Thomas More s genre defining work Utopia in 1516 the field of utopian literature has evolved into an ever expanding domain This Companion presents an extensive historical survey of the development of utopianism from the publication of Utopia to today s dark and despairing tendency towards dystopian pessimism epitomised by works such as George Orwell s Nineteen Eighty Four and Margaret Atwood s The Handmaid s Tale Chapters address the difficult definition of the concept of utopia and consider its relation to science fiction and other literary genres The volume takes an innovative approach to the major themes predominating within the utopian and dystopian literary tradition including feminism romance and ecology and explores in detail the vexed question of the purportedly western nature of the concept of utopia The reader is provided with a balanced overview of the evolution and current state of a long standing rich tradition of historical political and literary scholarship The Invention of Angela Carter Edmund Gordon,2017 The much anticipated biography of one of the most beguiling and influential writers of the twentieth century With unprecedented access to its subject s personal records and informed by fresh unvarnished anecdotes from family friends and colleagues Edmund Gordon s biography provides the first full account of Angela Carter s amazing life and enduring work Penelope Fitzgerald Hermione Lee,2014-11-18 ONE OF THE NEW YORK TIMES BOOK REVIEW S 10 BEST BOOKS OF THE YEAR A Best Book of the Year San Francisco Chronicle Seattle Times Winner of the Plutarch Award for Best Biography The acclaimed biographer of Edith

Wharton and Virginia Woolf gives us an intimate portrait of one of the most quietly brilliant novelists of the twentieth century Penelope Fitzgerald was a great English writer whose career didn't begin until she was nearly sixty She would go on to win some of the most coveted awards in literature the Booker Prize and the National Book Critics Circle Award Now in an impeccable match of talent between biographer and subject Hermione Lee a master biographer and one of Fitzgerald's greatest champions gives us this remarkable writer's story Lee's critical expertise is on dazzling display on every page as it illuminates this extraordinary English life Fitzgerald born into an accomplished intellectual family the granddaughter of two bishops led a life marked by dramatic twists of fate moving from a bishop's palace to a sinking houseboat to a last late blaze of renown We see Fitzgerald's very English childhood in the village of Hampstead her Oxford years when she was known as the blonde bombshell her impoverished adulthood as a struggling wife mother and schoolteacher raising a family in difficult circumstances and the long delayed start to her literary career Fitzgerald's early novels draw on her own experiences working at the BBC in wartime at a bookshop in Suffolk at an eccentric stage school in the 1960s while her later books open out into historical worlds that she magically seems to entirely possess Russia before the Revolution postwar Italy Germany in the time of the Romantic writer Novalis Fitzgerald's novels are short spare masterpieces and Hermione Lee unfurls them here as works of genius Expertly researched written out of love and admiration for this wonderful author's work Penelope Fitzgerald is literary biography at its finest an unforgettable story of lateness persistence and survival

At Penpoint Monica Popescu, 2020-08-14 In At Penpoint Monica Popescu traces the development of African literature during the second half of the twentieth century to address the intertwined effects of the Cold War and decolonization on literary history Popescu draws on archival materials from the Soviet sponsored Afro Asian Writers Association and the CIA funded Congress for Cultural Freedom alongside considerations of canonical literary works by Ayi Kwei Armah Ngũgĩ wa Thiong'o Ousmane

Semb ne Pepetela Nadine Gordimer and others She outlines how the tensions between the United States and the Soviet Union played out in the aesthetic and political debates among African writers and intellectuals These writers decolonized aesthetic canons even as superpowers attempted to shape African cultural production in ways that would advance their ideological and geopolitical goals Placing African literature at the crossroads of postcolonial theory and studies of the Cold War Popescu provides a new reassessment of African literature aesthetics and knowledge production The Stepmother Tongue John Skinner,1998-09-18 There are numerous twentieth century writers in English who are not technically native speakers of the language and whose relation to it is ambivalent problematic or even hostile by a simple kinship analogy one may often speak of the stepmother tongue Whilst fully aware of the current debates in postcolonial theory John Skinner is also conscious of its sometimes unhelpful complexities and contradictions The focus of this study is thus firmly on the fictional practice of the writers discussed He offers the reader an insight into the diversity and rewards of contemporary anglophone fiction whilst analysing some eighty individual texts A uniquely comprehensive guide the book will be welcomed by students and teachers of postcolonial literature The Heinemann Book of South African Short Stories Denis Hirson,Martin Trump,1994 All by writers who spent their formative years in South Africa this diverse range of short stories spans from the end of World War II when the National Party was on the upsurge to the early 1990s when the legal framework of apartheid was abolished the ANC was legalized and Mandela was released Contemporary Literary Criticism Pearson plc,1989-02 African Writers Brian Cox,1997 Contains essays on African writers from seventeen countries writing in English French Portuguese Arabic and indigenous languages Subjects span the late nineteenth century to the present
