Kunstgeschichte Als Geistesgeschichte:

Kunstgeschichte als Geistesgeschichte Max Dvořák, Johannes Wilde, Karl Maria Swoboda, 1924 Kunstgeschichte als Geistesgeschichte Max Dvořák, 1928 Kunstgeschichte als Geistesgeschichte Max Dvořák, 1979 Kunstgeschichte als Geistesgeschichte Max Dvorak, 1995 Kunstgeschichte als Geistesgeschichte Max Dvorak, 1979

Kunstgeschichte als Geistesgeschichte Max Dvorak, 1900* The Expressionist Turn in Art History Kimberly A. Smith, 2017-07-05 During the period in which Expressionist artists were active in central Europe art historians were producing texts which also began to be characterized evocatively as expressionist yet the notion of an expressionist art history has yet to be fully explored in historiographic studies of the discipline This anthology offers a cross section of noteworthy art history texts that have been described as expressionist along with critical commentaries by an international group of scholars Written between 1912 and 1933 the primary sources have been selected from the published scholarship of both recognized and less familiar figures in the field s Germanic tradition Wilhelm Worringer Fritz Burger Ernst Heidrich Max Dvor Heinrich W Ifflin and Carl Einstein Translated here for the first time these examples of an expressionist turn in art history along with their secondary analyses and the book s introduction offer a productive lens through which to re examine the practice and theory of art history in the early twentieth century German Essays on Art History: Winckelmann, Burckhardt, Panofsky, and Others Gert Schiff, 1988-06-01 Published in cooperation with Deutsches Haus New York University T p verso Methodenlehre der Kunstgeschichte Robert Hedicke, 1924 The Social History of Art Arnold Hauser, 1999 Presents an account of the development and meaning of art from its origins in the Stone Age through to the Film Age Kunstgeschichte als Geistesgeschichte Max Dvořák, 1924 The Austrian Mind William M. Johnston, 1983-03-23 Part One of this book shows how bureaucracy sustained the Habsburg Empire while inciting economists legal theorists and socialists to urge reform Part Two examines how Vienna s coffeehouses theaters and concert halls stimulated creativity together with complacency Part Three explores the fin de siecle world view known as Viennese Impressionism Interacting with positivistic science this reverence for the ephemeral inspired such pioneers ad Mach Wittgenstein Buber and Freud Part Four describes the vision of an ordered cosmos which flourished among Germans in Bohemia Their philosophers cultivated a Leibnizian faith whose eventual collapse haunted Kafka and Mahler Part Five explains how in Hungary wishful thinking reinforced a political activism rare elsewhere in Habsburg domains Engage intellectuals like Lukacs and Mannheim systematized the sociology of knowledge while two other Hungarians Herzel and Nordau initiated political Zionism Part Six investigates certain attributes that have permeated Austrian thought such as hostility to technology and delight in polar opposites (Max Dvořák:) *Kunstgeschichte als Geistesgeschichte. Kunstgeschichte Art History After Modernism Hans Belting, 2003-08 Art history after modernism does not only mean that art looks different today it also means that our discourse on art has taken a different direction if it is safe to say it has taken a direction at all So begins Hans Belting's brilliant iconoclastic reconsideration of art and art history at the end of the millennium which builds upon his earlier and highly successful volume The End of the History of Art Known for his striking and original theories about the nature of art according to the Economist Belting here examines how art is made viewed and interpreted today Arguing that contemporary art has burst out of the frame that art history had built for it Belting calls for an entirely new approach to thinking and writing about art He moves effortlessly between contemporary issues the rise of global and minority art and its consequences for Western art history installation and video art and the troubled institution of the art museum and questions central to art history's definition of itself such as the distinction between high and low culture art criticism versus art history and the invention of modernism in art history Forty eight black and white images illustrate the text perfectly reflecting the state of contemporary art With Art History after Modernism Belting retains his place as one of the most original thinkers working in the visual arts today The Vienna School of Art History Matthew Rampley, 2013-11-11 Matthew Rampley's The Vienna School of Art History is the first book in over seventy five years to study in depth and in context the practices of art history from 1847 the year the first teaching position in the discipline was created to 1918 the collapse of Austria Hungary It traces the emergence of art history as a discipline the establishment of norms of scholarly inquiry and the involvement of art historians in wider debates about the cultural and political identity of the monarchy The so called Vienna School plays the central role in the study but Rampley also examines the formation of art history elsewhere in Austria Hungary Located in the Habsburg imperial capital Vienna art historians frequently became entangled in debates that were of importance to art historians elsewhere in the Empire and Rampley pays particular attention to these areas of overlapping interest He also analyzes the methodological innovations for which the Vienna School was well known Rampley focuses most fully however on the larger political and ideological context of the practice of art history particularly the way in which art historical debates served as proxies for wider arguments over the political social and cultural life of the Habsburg Empire Panofsky and the Foundations of Art History Michael Ann Holly, 1984 No one has been more influential in the contemporary practice of art history than Erwin Panofsky yet many of his early seminal papers remain virtually unknown to art historians As a result Michael Ann Holly maintains art historians today do not have access to the full range of methodological considerations and possibilities that Panofsky's thought offers and they often remain unaware of the significant role art history played in the development of modern humanistic thought Placing Panofsky's theoretical work first in the context of the major historical paradigms generated by Hegel Burckhardt and Dilthey Holly shows how these paradigms themselves became the grounds for creative controversy among Panofsky's predecessors Riegl Wölfflin Warburg and Dvorkin among others She also discusses how Panofsky's struggle with the terms and concepts of neo

Kantianism produced in his work remarkable parallels with the philosophy of Ernst Cassirer Finally she evaluates Panofsky's better known and later iconological studies by reading them against the earlier essays and by comparing his earlier ideas with the vision that has inspired recent work in the philosophy of history semiotics and the philosophy of science Alois Riegl Margaret Iversen,2003-03-17 Alois Riegl 1858 1905 was one of the founders of art history as a discipline This is the first general introduction to the work of the celebrated Austrian who brought complex philosophical considerations to bear on art and its history Ranging easily over diverse fields and among a large group of thinkers Margaret Iversen establishes Riegl's relevance to recent critical thinking while clearly delineating his extraordinary critical powers Iversen contextualizes Riegl's thought among the wider cultural crosscurrents of his time pointing for example to his denunciation of the sub Semperians and his profound influence on Walter Benjamin She is equally concerned to relate Riegl's work to contemporary theoretical interests arguing that he pioneered an approach to art history that took into consideration the role of the spectator She devotes a chapter to Riegl's theory of spectator depiction relationships comparing it with more recent writing on the subject by commentators like Fried Foucault and others In a sympathetic reading of Riegl Iversen interprets his theory of Kunstwollen or artistic volition as a concept that ran counter to narrowly empiricist and determinist histories of art that were dominant in his time She provides extended critical commentary on his most important works Questions of Style Late Roman Art Industry and The Dutch Group Portrait enriched by explorations of the theoretical background of his systematic art history including the work of Kant Hegel Herbart and Hildebrand Iversen also details Erwin Panofsky's early response to Riegl arguing that Panofsky's search for an authoritative viewpoint collapsed Riegl's multiple typology of style into an art history constructed around a single aesthetic norm Pieter Bruegel the Elder and Religion ,2018-07-17 Pieter Bruegel the Elder and Religion offers new insight into the religious dimension of Bruegel's art With a number of highly original and thorough case studies the volume illuminates Bruegel's inventive and multifaceted engagement with the contemporary religious concepts and practices of his day and age Religion remains a vital question in the life and career of Bruegel because it was so long believed to be more or less absent from his work As a pioneer of the new genres of landscape and peasant scenes Bruegel was heralded as a ground breaking secular painter This volume highlights the most recent scholarship on the artist offering a much more nuanced portrait of Bruegel's engagement with the dynamic religious landscape of the mid sixteenth century Contributors are Jessica Buskirk Ralph Dekoninck Bertram Kaschek Walter S Melion J rgen M ller Anna Pawlak Gerd Schwerhoff Larry Silver and Michel Weemans Kant-Studien Hans Vaihinger,Max Scheler,Bruno Bauch,Max Frischeisen-Köhler,Arthur Liebert,Paul Menzer,1929 1904 26 includes lists of members
