Kurrachee (Karachi) Past, Present, and Future Alexander Francis Baillie,1890 Kurrachee Alexander F.. Baillie,1975 Catalogue Calcutta (India). Imperial library,1904 Subject-index to the author-catalogue. 1908-10. 2 v Imperial Library, Calcutta,1908 Journal of the Royal Asiatic Society of Great Britain & Ireland Royal Asiatic Society of Great Britain and Ireland,1890 Has appendices Journal of the Royal Society of Arts Royal Society of Arts (Great Britain),1903 Karachi Laurent Gayer,2014 Argues that within the seemingly chaotic malaise of Karachi s politics a form of manageable violence exists on which the functioning of the city is based With Alexander in India and Central Asia Claudia Antonetti,P Biagi,2017-06-30 Alexander conquered most parts of the Western World but there is a great deal of controversy over his invasion of India the least known of his campaigns In BC 327 Alexander came to India and tried to cross the Jhelum river for the invasion but was then confronted by King Porus who ruled an area in what is now the Punjab According to Indian history he was stopped by Porus at his entry into the country but most of the world still believes that Alexander won the battle Fearing the prospect of facing other large armies and exhausted by years of campaigning Alexander s army mutinied at the Hyphasis River refusing to march farther east This river thus marks the easternmost extent of Alexander s conquests Twelve papers in this volume examine aspects of Alexander s Indian campaign the relationship between him and his generals the potential to use Indian sources and evidence for the influence of policies of Alexander in neighboring areas such as Iran and Russia Cityscapes of Violence in Karachi Nichola Khan,2017-07-15 Karachi is a city framed in the popular imagination by violence be it criminality and gangsterism or political factionalism That perception also dominates literary cinematic and scholarly representations and discussions of this great metropolis By commenting in different ways on the trials and tribulations of Karachi and Pakistan the contributors to this innovative book on the city build on past writings to say something new or different to make their reader re think how they understand the processes at work in this vast urban space They scrutinise Karachi s diverse neighborhoods to show how violence is manifested locally and citywide into protest drinking social and religious movements class and cosmopolitanism gang wars and how it affects the fractured lives of militants and journalists among others Oral history and memoir feature strongly in the volume as do insights gleaned from anthropology and political science Sotheran's Price Current of Literature ,1902 Journal of the Royal Colonial Institute Royal Colonial Institute (Great Britain),1904 Karachi in the Twenty-First Century Mansoor Bin Tahnoon Al Nehayan,2016-02-22 The forces of globalisation are indiscriminate they enable those who pursue good and those who pursue evil The changes brought about by globalisation affect all segments of society all walks of life all political parties all religions all ethnic groups and all countries Sometimes they occur in the most unexpected ways and yield complex results that appear to be mystifying and intractable at least on the surface This book describes how the forces of globalisation have descended upon Karachi and exacerbated local and regional problems to the point where the city is teetering on the brink of chaos Karachi is geographically politically and culturally situated in the context of modern Pakistan but is a global city affected by global forces many of which challenge the state's power and authority The lessons of Karachi are important for both its present and its future and they can serve as a cautionary tale for other global cities Karachi is vitally important to Pakistan While Islamabad is the country's capital Karachi is the most important financial centre in the country It is the centre of banking industry economic activity and trade Many of Pakistan's largest corporations are based in Karachi including entertainment arts fashion medical research the automotive industry shipping textiles advertising publishing and software development Karachi is also home to Pakistan's main seaport and two of the largest ports in the region the Port of Karachi and Port Bin Qasim
