L Adultera:

L'Adultera Theodor Fontane,1988 La Sacra Bibbia, ossia l'Antico e il Nuovo Testamento, tradotti da G.

Diodati, con sommari e riferenze del medesimo ,1862 , Theodor Fontane Kenneth Cochrane Hayens,1920

Philo-Semitism in Nineteenth-Century German Literature Irving Massey,2014-05-14 The work begins with an attempt to understand the philosophy of Nazism and its attendant anti-Semitism as a necessary prelude to the study of philo-Semitism which also displays a continuous tradition to the present day Most of the non Jewish authors in Germany in the nineteenth century expressed both anti-Semitic and philo-Semitic views as did most of the German Jewish authors of that same time the following work deals with philo-Semitic texts by the non Jewish authors of the period The writer who provides the largest body of relevant material is Leopold von Sacher-Masoch but works by Gutzkow Bettine von Arnim Annette von Droste-Hilshoff Hebbel Freytag Raabe Fontane Grillparzer Ebner Eschenbach Anzengruber and Ferdinand von Saar are also examined as are several tales by the Alsatian authors Erckmann and Chatrian There is a short chapter on women and philo-Semitism The conclusion draws attention to the feelings of guilt that are revealed in a number of the texts Theodor Fontane's Erzählwerk im Spiegel der Kritik Helen Chambers,2003 L'adultera Theodor Fontane,1899 Theodor Fontane Brian Tucker,2021-06-03 What happens when fashionable forms of unserious speech prove to be contagious when they adulterate and weaken communicative spheres that rely on honesty trust and sincerity Demonstrating how the tension between irony and avowal constitutes a central conflict in Fontane's works this book argues that his best known society novels play out a struggle between the incompatible demands of these two modes of speaking Read in this light the novels identify an irreconcilable discrepancy between word and deed as both the root of emotional discord and the proximate cause of historical and political upheaval Given the alarm since 2016 over unreliability falsehood and indifference to truth it is now easier to perceive in Fontane's novels a profound concern about language that is not sincere and not meant to be taken literally For Fontane irony exemplifies a discrepancy between language and meaning a loosening of the ethical bond between words and the things to which they refer His novels investigate the extent to which human relationships can continue to function in the face of pervasive irony and the erosion of language's credibility Although Fontane is widely regarded as an ironic writer Tucker's analyses reveal a critical distance between his works and the prospect of irony as a dominant idiom Revisiting Fontane's novels in a post-truth age brings the conflict between irony and avowal into sharper relief and makes legible the stakes and contours of our own post-truth condition The Novel of Female Adultery Bill Overton,2016-07-27 The novel of adultery is a nineteenth-century form about the experience of women produced almost exclusively by men Bill Overton's study is the first to address the gender implications of this form and the first to write its history The opening chapter defines the terms adultery and novel of adultery and discusses how the form arose in Continental Europe but failed to appear in Britain Successive chapters deal with its development in France and with examples from Russia Denmark

Germany Spain and Portugal Adulterous Nations Tatiana Kuzmic,2016-11-15 In Adulterous Nations Tatiana Kuzmic enlarges our perspective on the nineteenth century novel of adultery showing how it often served as a metaphor for relationships between the imperialistic and the colonized In the context of the long standing practice of gendering nations as female the novels under discussion here George Eliot's Middlemarch Theodor Fontane's Effi Briest and Leo Tolstoy's Anna Karenina along with August enoa's The Goldsmith's Gold and Henryk Sienkiewicz's Quo Vadis can be understood as depicting international crises on the scale of the nuclear family In each example an outsider figure is responsible for the disruption experienced by the family Kuzmic deftly argues that the hopes anxieties and interests of European nations during this period can be discerned in the destabilizing force of adultery Reading the work of enoa and Sienkiewicz from Croatia and Poland respectively Kuzmic illuminates the relationship between the literature of dominant nations and that of the semicolonized territories that posed a threat to them Ultimately Kuzmic's study enhances our understanding of not only these five novels but nineteenth century European literature more generally

The Reprisal Laudomia Bonanni,2013-03-29 In the bitterly cold winter of 1943 the Italian countryside is torn apart by violence as partisans wage a guerilla war against the occupying German army and their local fascist allies In the midst of this conflict a ragtag group of fascist supporters captures a woman in the late stages of pregnancy Suspecting her of being in league with the partisans they hastily put her on trial by improvising a war tribunal one night in the choir stalls of the abandoned monastery that serves as their hide out This sham court convicts the woman and sentences her to die but not until her child has been born When a young seminarian visits the monastery and tries to dissuade the fascist band from executing their sentence the absurd tragedy of the woman's fate is cast in stark relief The child's birth approaches an unnerving anticipation unfolds and tension mounts ominously among the characters and within their individual psyches Based on a number of incidents that took place in Abruzzo during the war Laudomia Bonanni's compact and tragic novel explores the overwhelming conflicts between ideology and community justice and vengeance The story is embedded in the cruel reality of Italian fascism but its themes of revenge sacrifice and violence emerge as universal delivered in prose that is at once lyrical and brutal In her native Italy Bonanni a writer of journalism and critical prose as well as fiction is hailed as one of the strongest proponents of post war realism and this is the first of her novels to be made available to Anglophone readers Translators Susan Stewart and Sara Teardo render Bonanni's singular style both sparse and emotive frank and poetic into readable evocative English

Kierkegaard's Influence on Literature, Criticism, and Art: The Germanophone world Jon Bartley Stewart,2013 Vol 2 is dedicated to the use of Kierkegaard by later Danish writers Almost from the beginning Kierkegaard's works were standard reading for these authors Danish novelists and critics from the Modern Breakthrough movement in the 1870s were among the first to make extensive use of his writings These included the theoretical leader of the movement the critic Georg Brandes who wrote an entire book on Kierkegaard and the novelists Jens Peter Jacobsen and Henrik Pontoppidan

Fontane and Cultural Mediation Robertson

Ritchie, White Michael, 2017-07-05 In the mid 1880s the Realist author and Anglophile Theodor Fontane observed nowhere is so much translation done as in Germany Characterizing Germany as a special locus of literary translation and reception Fontane contests a prejudice which has since become a significant problem for nineteenth century German studies namely the frequent assessment of the epoch as narrowly national The present collection of essays by thirteen eminent literary scholars and historians is intended to correct this prejudice it demonstrates that literary life and production in the nineteenth century were governed by complex networks of intercultural exchange influence and translation and it does justice to this complexity through its range of complementary critical approaches focussing on Fontane Anglo German relations translation and European reception In so doing this book not only offers a nuanced appreciation of literary production and reception in the nineteenth century but also demonstrates the continued relevance of that period for Germanists today Colors

1800/1900/2000, 2016-08-09 By recasting instances of German cultural production around the turns of centuries 1800 1900 2000 the essays in this volume examine the role that color has played in perceiving and representing ethnic difference In innovative essays literary scholars historians anthropologists and art historians support an overarching thesis that the origins of a modern ethnic imagination inscribe patterns of seeing whereas more recent developments involve processes of de colorization and metaphorization By preserving the difference in disciplinary approaches methods and writing styles the volume presents a genuinely interdisciplinary approach to German Studies and is therefore of interest to Germanists as well as to all others engaged in the study and scholarship of German Culture Contributors Christine Achinger Nana Badenberg Helen Cafferty Fatima El Tayeb Gudrun Hentges Uli Linke Andreas Michel Thomas Miller Daniel Purdy Assenka Oksiloff Wendy Sutherland Birgit Tautz Der Band untersucht die Rolle der Farbe in Prozessen der Wahrnehmung und Darstellung ethnischer Unterschiede in der deutschsprachigen Kultur an drei Jahrhundertwenden 1800 1900 2000 Die interdisziplinären Essays von Literaturwissenschaftlern Historikern Anthropologen und Kunsthistorikern bieten Lesarten die sich auf vielfältige Phänomene beziehen und die These unterstützen da das Ethnische zunächst überwiegend visuell vorgestellt und versprachlicht wurde bevor es einer zunehmenden Metaphorisierung und Entfremdung unterlag Die angebotenen Deutungsmuster repräsentieren keine kohärente Wahrheit vielmehr sind sie als Symptome unterschiedlicher Wissensformationen der unterschiedlichen Disziplinen Methoden und Schreibverfahren zu sehen Mit Beiträgen von Achinger Badenberg Cafferty El Tayeb Hentges Linke Michel Miller Purdy Oksiloff Sutherland Tautz Schiller's Tragedy of Mary Stuart Andrea

Maffei, 1863 The Changing Image of Theodor Fontane Helen Chambers, 1997 Wide ranging survey of the criticism devoted to Theodor Fontane with particular emphasis on more recent theoretical trends This study of the literary scholarship on Fontane's narrative works is the first to present a systematic review of the ever growing body of criticism on Germany's major realist novelist Significant developments in Fontane criticism are traced in historical context from their beginnings in contemporary commentary to the present day The author places special emphasis on scholarship since 1980 analysing the influence of new literary critical trends in this period she also considers the effect upon traditional literary criticism of feminism psychoanalysis and comparatist approaches and the fresh developments in reception history translation and media studies Effi Briest Theodor Fontane,2010-07-01 Effi Briest the classic German realist novel follows a young woman through her life and marriage She is an innocent when she is married to the social climbing Instetten and longs for worldly things When she is left alone by her husband who is pursuing his political career she succumbs to the flattery of another man Her adultery has wide and tragic consequences on the rest of her life Negotiation and Power in Dialogic Interaction

Edda Weigand,Marcelo Dascal,2001-09-06 The topic of negotiation has turned out to be of crucial interdisciplinary interest for our understanding of what we are doing in language use Are we exchanging meanings defined in advance and presupposing equal understanding on the basis of a rule governed system or are we negotiating meaning and understanding in the framework of an open dialogic universe Negotiation on the one hand can be taken as the name of a specific dialogue type or action game of bargaining On the other hand it represents a methodological concept for describing and explaining dialogic interaction which replaces the orthodox view of pattern transference The papers collected in this volume deal with both versions of the concept of negotiation This volume contains a selection of papers presented at the International Conference on Pragmatics and Negotiation at Tel Aviv University and the Hebrew University of Jerusalem in June 1999 The dialogic aspect was taken as the key concept to guide the present selection Theodor Fontane Gordon A. Craig,1999-11-04 First published in Germany to popular and critical acclaim this is a unique portrait of the life and work of Theodor Fontane the greatest German novelist of his age as well as a major poet and theater critic and much loved travel writer Gordon A. Craig one of the foremost scholars of German history interpolates a cohesive historical biography of Fontane with his own reflections on the art culture and politics of Fontane s world The ideas and impressions of Fontane and Craig echo one another throughout the book in compelling and fascinating ways Fontane s travel accounts of Scotland and Prussia are enriched by Craig s discussion of Germany s increasingly national vision of itself and the world at the time of unification Similarly Craig s mastery of German military history dovetails remarkably well with Fontane s reportage on Germany s wars with Denmark Austria and France Interesting are Fontane s ruminations over his great contemporary Otto von Bismarck whom he revered as founder of the Reich but whose policies he feared would in the end be self defeating Although Fontane s Wanderings through the Mark Brandenburg and his novels are more widely read in Germany today than they were in his own time and although his masterpiece Effi Briest was the basis for a famous Fassbinder film Fontane remains little known in the English speaking world Theodor Fontane is the ideal introduction to this major European writer a master of social analysis and one of the great letter writers of his age Fontane in the Twenty-first Century John B. Lyon,Brian Tucker,2019 Assesses the relevance of the works of Fontane perhaps the foremost German novelist between Goethe and Mann for the twenty first century Theodor Fontane remains a canonical figure in German literature the most important representative of poetic realism and likely the best German language novelist between Goethe and Mann yet scholarly attention to his works often lags behind his stature at least in the English speaking academy This volume coinciding with Fontane's 200th birthday in 2019 assesses the relevance of his works for us today and also draws attention to the most current English language research Much has changed in the last two decades in critical theory and the volume highlights how new methodological approaches and new archival research can update our understanding of Fontane's works Although his novels are famously rooted in the details of quotidian life in nineteenth century Germany they also reflect larger historical transformations that resonate with our world today e g financial crisis class conflict changing gender roles and migration and so speak to contemporary critical interests The volume's contributors draw on literary and cultural studies approaches including gender and sexuality studies emotion studies transnationalism and globalization media and visual studies rhetorical criticism paratextual criticism and digital humanities Their contributions survey a wide range of Fontane's literary production in order to speak to both German and non German audiences in the twenty first century Contributors James N Bade Russell A Berman Katharina Adeline Engler Coldren Todd Kontje John B Lyon Ervin Malakaj Nicolas von Passavant Lynne Tatlock Christian Thomas Brian Tucker Michael J White Holly A Yanacek John B Lyon is Professor of German at the University of Pittsburgh Brian Tucker is Associate Professor of German at Wabash College
