Legal Issues of International Law from a Gender Perspective Ivana Krstić,Marco Evola,Maria Isabel Ribes Moreno,2023-02-16 This book offers a new perspective on international law which was for centuries male dominant and gender blind However this gender blindness has led to many injustices the failure to recognize certain rights and to impunity for serious crimes The book examines the development of gender perspectives in various branches of international law while also discussing and explaining certain universal standards However particular attention is paid to the European human rights system Accordingly the book provides detailed explanations of the EU s external policies in relation to sex sexual orientation and gender identity Also there is a special focus on the relevant jurisprudence of the European Court of Human Rights in relation to gender and sexual orientation female reproduction and sexuality The authors explain not only the importance of an adequate legal framework for combating gender inequality but also the detrimental effects of deeply rooted gender stereotypes and prejudices Subsequently the development of particular branches is presented such as a gender sensitive approach to the prevention of war crimes gender perspectives in refugee law and the evolution of gender sensitive environmental law In addition the problematic situation of discrimination in the workplace is addressed from various perspectives Many discussions especially among EU member states are reserved for the issue of women s participation in managerial boards while the growing awareness of gender equality in international trade agreements represents another interesting topic Lastly the book offers a historical perspective on the development of international law in the interwar period with a particular focus on the situation in Yugoslavia The book critically reconsiders the dominant molds of legal knowledge and presents innovative gender sensitive and gender competent insights on a variety of issues in international law in order to introduce readers to new research topics relevant to gender equality and to stimulate the development of an international legal and institutional framework for achieving greater gender equality in practice The collection of essays presented here will be of interest to all those working in the field of international law as well as students and academics looking to broaden and deepen their research on a range of issues in international law from gender perspectives      The Ethical and Legal Implications of Commercial Surrogacy for Healthcare Jutharat Attawet, Mark Brady, Kabir Sattarshetty, Sarah Jefford, 2025-07-14 In this groundbreaking work the authors explore the intricate interplay between commercial surrogacy and the global healthcare system challenging conventional views with fresh insights into ethical legal and medical dimensions Delving into a rapidly evolving landscape the book reveals how commercial surrogacy transcends economic transactions to question the very core of healthcare ethics It scrutinises international legal frameworks and exposes the delicate balance between a surrogate's autonomy and the financial pressures that can undermine it At the heart of the discussion is the pivotal role of healthcare providers who navigate complex ethical dilemmas while upholding the rights and well being of surrogates intended parents and children Through incisive analysis and compelling case studies this book argues for the urgent need for robust safeguards comprehensive guidelines and specialised training to equip professionals for the challenges of modern surrogacy practices This engaging narrative not only maps the evolving dynamics of commercial surrogacy but also calls for a sustainable ethical future where healthcare remains a cornerstone of the surrogacy journey Essential reading for researchers advanced students healthcare professionals and policymakers alike this book offers a holistic and provocative examination of an issue at the crossroads of ethics law and medicine      The Fertility Handbook Mary Wingfield, 2017-05-29 Maximise your chance of getting pregnant with this up to date and authoritative book that provides a clear and holistic approach to fertility Areas including Understanding your body and maximising your chances of conceiving naturally as well as through complex treatments such as IVF IUI and egg freezing A pre conception plan with sections on lifestyle nutrition and the role of stress The common and uncommon causes of fertility problems in both men and women Options for single people and same sex couples Up to date information on ethics funding and the law both nationally and internationally Insightful testimonials from patients dealing with fertility problems and the emotional impact of treatment Written by Professor Mary Wingfield one of Ireland's foremost fertility experts who has helped hundreds of people to conceive over the last thirty years All royalties from the sale of this book will be donated to the Merrion Fertility Foundation which funds fertility treatment      Infertility in the Male Larry I. Lipshultz, Stuart S. Howards, Craig S. Niederberger, 2009-09-24 This extensively revised edition of the highly respected reference book provides in depth discussions on the latest developments in male reproductive medicine      Technology and Infertility Machele M. Seibel, Ann A. Kiessling, Judith Bernstein, Susan R. Levin, 2012-12-06 Medicine is changing at a speed never witnessed before in history With each passing year medical technology achieves the capacity to provide cures and improve treatments that even a short time before were difficult to conceptualize and impossible to provide Reproductive technology personifies this concept perhaps better than any other field of medicine The 1990s have seen an explosion in endoscopic and ambulatory procedures the application of molecular biology to clinical conditions and the refinement of assisted reproduction to allow third parties donors and surrogates into the process of family building More than ever before comprehensive medical care requires a team approach However the team comprises not only medical and scientific personnel but also mental health professionals lawyers and ethicists This integrated and multidisciplinary approach to medical care will become even more necessary as medical capabilities continue to develop faster than society can respond This book reflects such an approach It is based on a Harvard Postgraduate Course in June 1990 entitled Infertility in the 1990s Technological Advances and Their Psychosocial Implications that was sponsored by the Faulkner Centre for Reproductive Medicine The first half of the course was directed by Drs M Seibel A Kiessling and C Richards The second half of the course was directed by Dr M Seibel J Bernstein R N and S Levin LICSW
