Terry as a last straw for help in the small town of Welland. The sleuthing abilities of the undergraduate Terry seem unrivalled and he soon falls for the young Yvonne. He tries to extricate her from the machinations of her husband Tim Fong and his family and social milieu. He enters on the scene and must deal with the skeletons in his past and the shifting mad world of these fellow small town travelers. The story rather than being told from the point of view of time is brought to vivid life from several vantage points of time many years later from Toronto where Terry is married and his life fractures and falls apart and loses his family to Vancouver Hong Kong as he tries to piece together the abuse and PICTURE of the young YVONNE. The tale and investigation is not only a help but to understand her and paint her as she appears in this harrowing tale. The novel is told in the first person by Terry who tries to paint her picture and we must judge for ourselves through his poems and coming to terms with his own life and that of his characters and his search for Yvette in body and also to grasp her essence whether he has succeeded. His poems throughout are expressive of his state of mind.
