Beyond Art: A Third Culture Peter Weibel, 2005-05-17 A new theory of culture presented with a new method achieved by comparing closely the art and science in 20th century Austria and Hungary Major achievements that have influenced the world like psychoanalysis abstract art quantum physics Gestalt psychology formal languages vision theories and the game theory etc originated from these countries and influence the world still today as a result of exile nurtured in the US A source book with numerous photographs images and diagrams it opens up a nearly infinite horizon of knowledge that helps one to understand what is going on in today's worlds of art and science The Mediatization of the Artist Rachel Esner, Sandra Kisters, 2018-01-31 This book offers trans historical and trans national perspectives on the image of the artist as a public figure in the popular discourse and imagination Since the rise of notions of artistic autonomy and the simultaneous demise of old systems of patronage from the late eighteenth century onwards artists have increasingly found themselves confronted with the necessity of developing a public persona In the same period new audiences for art discovered their fascination for the life and work of the artist The rise of new media such as the illustrated press photography and film meant that the needs of both parties could easily be satisfied in both words and images Thanks to these new media the artist was transformed from a simple producer of works of art into a public figure The aim of this volume is to reflect on this transformative process and to study the specific role of the media themselves Which visual media were deployed to what effect and with what kind of audiences in mind How did the artist critic photographer and filmmaker interact in the creation of these representations of the artist's image The Globalization of Renaissance Art Daniel Savoy, 2017-12-11 In The Globalization of Renaissance Art A Critical Review Daniel Savoy assembles an interdisciplinary group of scholars to evaluate the global discourse on early modern European art Over the course of eleven chapters and a roundtable the contributors assess the discourse's goal of transcending Eurocentric boundaries reflecting on the strengths and weaknesses of current terms methods theories and concepts Although it is clear that the global perspective has exposed the artistic and cultural pluralism of early modern Europe it is found that more work needs to be done at the epistemological level of art history as a whole Contributors Claire Farago Elizabeth Horodowich Lauren Jacobi Thomas DaCosta Kaufmann Jessica Keating Stephanie Leitch Emanuele Lugli Lia Markey Sean Roberts Ananda Cohen Aponte and Marie Neil Wolff Sublime Dreams of Living Machines Minsoo Kang,2011-02-28 From the dawn of European civilization to the twentieth century the automaton better known today as the robot has captured the Western imagination and provided a vital lens into the nature of humanity Historian Minsoo Kang argues that to properly understand the human as machine and the human as fundamentally different from machine we must trace the origins of these ideas and examine how they were transformed by intellectual cultural and artistic appearances of the automaton throughout the history of the West Kang tracks the first appearance of the automaton in ancient myths through the medieval and Renaissance periods marks the proliferation of the automaton as a central intellectual concept in the Scientific Revolution and the subsequent backlash during the Enlightenment and details appearances in Romantic literature and the introduction of the living machine in the Industrial Age He concludes with a reflection on the destructive confrontation between humanity and machinery in the modern era and the reverberations of the humanity machinery theme today Sublime Dreams of Living Machines is an ambitious historical exploration and at heart an attempt to fully elucidate the rich and varied ways we have utilized our most uncanny creations to explore essential questions about ourselves Art and Its Histories Steve Edwards,Professor and Head of Art History Steve Edwards,1999-01-01 Published with six accompanying books in the series Art and its Histories Fu Shan's World Qianshen Bai,2020-03-23 For 1 300 years Chinese calligraphy was based on the elegant art of Wang Xizhi A D 303 361 But the seventeenth century emergence of a style modeled on the rough broken epigraphs of ancient bronzes and stone artifacts brought a revolution in calligraphic taste By the eighteenth century this led to the formation of the stele school of calligraphy which continues to shape Chinese calligraphy today A dominant force in this school was the eminent calligrapher and art theorist Fu Shan 1607 1685 Because his work spans the late Ming early Qing divide it is an ideal prism through which to view the transformation in calligraphy Rather than seek a single explanation for the change in calligraphic taste the author demonstrates and analyzes the heterogeneity of the cultural social and political processes behind it Among other subjects the book covers the late Ming interaction between high and low culture the role of publishing the Ming loyalist response to the Qing and early Qing changes in intellectual discourse In addition to the usual approach of art historians it adopts the theoretical perspectives of such fields as material culture print culture and social and intellectual history Bernini's Biographies Maarten Delbeke,Evonne Anita Levy,Steven F. Ostrow,2006 Unique among early modern artists the Baroque painter sculptor and architect Gianlorenzo Bernini was the subject of two monographic biographies published shortly after his death in 1680 one by the Florentine connoisseur and writer Filippo Baldinucci 1682 and the second by Bernini's son Domenico 1713 This interdisciplinary collection of essays by historians of art and literature marks the first sustained examination of the two biographies first and foremost as texts A substantial introductory essay considers each biography's author genesis and foundational role in the study of Bernini Nine essays combining art historical research with insights from philology literary history and art and literary theory offer major new insights into the multifarious connections between biography art history and aesthetics inviting readers to rethink Bernini's life art and milieu Contributors are Eraldo Bellini Heiko Damm John D Lyons Sarah McPhee Tomaso Montanari Rudolf Preimesberger Robert Williams and the editors Maarten Delbeke is Assistant Professor of architectural history and theory at the universities of Ghent and Leiden Formerly the Scott Opler Fellow in Architectural History at Worcester College Oxford he is the author of several articles and a forthcoming book on Seicento art and theory Evonne Levy is Associate Professor of the History of Art at the University of Toronto She is also the author of Propaganda and the Jesuit Baroque 2004

Framing Pictures Steven Jacobs, 2012-08-27 Steven Jacobs book provides a unique critical intervention into a relatively new area of scholarship the multidisciplinary topic of film and the visual arts Masks and Masking Gary Edson, 2015-07-11 For at least 20 000 years masking has been a mark of cultural evolution and an indication of magical religious sophistication in society This book provides a comprehensive understanding of the mask as a powerful cultural phenomenon a means by which human groupings attempted to communicate their dignity and sense of purpose as well as establish a continuum between the natural and supernatural worlds It addresses the distinctive environments within which masks flourished and analyzes the mask as a manifestation of art ethnology and anthropology Cultural Policy Review of Books Oliver Bennett, 2014-06-11 Cultures are shaped by many institutions and agencies including governments corporations education and the media In recent years research into these culture shaping activities has been increasingly associated with the developing field of cultural policy studies The Cultural Policy Review of Books offers a fascinating insight into the intellectual formation of many of the leading figures that have contributed to this field Invited to write a short review essay on the book that had most influenced their thinking 41 academics and researchers from around the world reveal what they consider to be essential reading Including essays on Bourdieu de Certeau Foucault Gramsci Habermas and Williams as well as many lesser known writers the collection throws new light on the intellectual underpinning of cultural policy studies It will be of interest not only to researchers students and teachers in this field but to all those looking to understand the forces that shape the culture of modern societies Paper, Ink, and Achievement Kevin L.
