

The book cover features a detailed illustration of two large, fluffy, downy birds, possibly emus or ostriches, standing on a rocky, uneven ground. The bird on the left has vibrant orange and yellow down, while the one on the right has dark green and black down. In the background, there are dark, jagged rock formations under a deep blue, twilight sky. The title 'LEGENDS OF THE DREAMTIME' is printed in a large, white, serif font across the upper portion of the cover.

Murray-Wallace,Colin D. Woodroffe,2014-01-30 An important overview of Quaternary climates including detailed Pleistocene and Holocene sea level changes for researchers and graduate and advanced undergraduate students Places In The Primary School Patrick Wiegand,2012-10-12 Using a cross curricular approach Wiegand discusses the knowledge necessary for preparing children for life in a pluralist society Looking at theories of education for citizenship environment education and economic and industrial understanding it examines the evidence for what children know and feel about their own country other countries and people in distant places He offers practical suggestions for curriculum planning and classroom activities in the primary school and examines ways in which project work on different localities can be initiated and developed Before and After Corroboree: The Music of John Antill David Symons, 2017-07-28 John Antill 1904-1986 was one of the foremost composers of Australia's post colonial period. Although a relatively prolific and much esteemed composer in Australia, Antill's wider reputation is sustained chiefly by his famous ballet Corroboree, a work which was perceived to bring an authentic Australian musical style before both a national and international audience for the first time. Through Sir Eugene Goossens' championship, the work was heard by enthusiastic audiences in Australia, Britain, Europe, and the USA, and was for many years the best known work of any Australian born and resident composer. Indeed, it has remained for both Australian and overseas audiences an Australian musical icon. David Symons traces Antill's development as a composer from his early pre-Corroboree works, which display a late Romantic to post-impressionist style, through an analysis of the virile, dissonant, primitivist idiom of his magnum opus to an examination of his later output of theatrical, orchestral, and vocal choral works. The book provides comprehensive and valuable insight into Antill's musical output at the same time focussing on more detailed analyses of his major works which have reached public performances and/or recordings. In this way, the book not only presents a developmental picture of Antill's works but also demonstrates why they have made him one of Australia's most prominent musical creators of the post colonial period.

Aboriginal Legend Plays Elizabeth Swasbrook, 1997. Plays written to develop an understanding of Aboriginal Australian heritage and culture. Headdresses and animal craft activities supplement the plays and provide a fun alternative to extravagant casting and props. Can be used in daily classroom situations to consolidate teaching points or as an assembly or concert item.

An Introduction to Comparative Sociology Jon Oplinger, 2020-01-14. Not your typical sociology primer, this straightforward yet challenging text begins with a discussion of foundational theories, central concepts, and areas of study. Drawing on anthropology, archaeology, and history to illustrate key points, the book offers a thorough examination of the field, covering such often neglected topics as the mass production of deviance, Stalin's lethal purges, for example, and the sociology of war. This multifaceted approach provides a broad overview of the discipline through a clear-eyed investigation of human society at its best and worst.

The Red Centre's Archaic Abode Pasquale De Marco, 2025-07-25. Welcome to the Red Centre, a vast and awe-inspiring region that is home to some of Australia's most iconic landmarks, including Uluru, Ayers Rock, and Kata Tjuta. The Olgas. This comprehensive guidebook will take you on a journey through this extraordinary landscape, exploring its geology, ecology, history, and culture. Written by a team of experts, this book covers everything from the formation of Uluru to the unique plants and animals that call the Red Centre home. It also explores the rich Aboriginal heritage of the region and the challenges facing its conservation. With stunning photography and informative text, this book will help you discover the secrets of the Red Centre and create memories that will last a lifetime. Whether you're planning a trip to this amazing part of the world or simply want to learn more about it, this book is the perfect resource. The Red Centre is a place of extremes. It is a land of scorching heat and freezing cold, of relentless drought and sudden floods. It is a land of ancient rock formations and delicate desert flowers. It is a land of Aboriginal culture and European history The Red Centre is a place of contrasts It is a harsh and unforgiving environment but it is also a place of great beauty and wonder It is a land of extremes but it is also a land of balance The Red Centre is a place where opposites meet and where life finds a way to thrive The Red Centre is a place of mystery and magic It is a place where the past and present collide and where the natural and the supernatural intermingle It is a place where dreams come true and where anything is possible If you like this book write a review
