Dictionary of German Literature to 1945 William Grange, 2010-12-18 Historical Dictionary of German Literature to 1945 covers a wide swath of literary analysis and achievement from Old High German lays and ecclesiastical encomia to Middle High German epics sagas and love lyrics While extensive in its chronological dimension the Historical Dictionary of German Literature to 1945 is equally comprehensive in the geographical and genre areas it covers The history of this period in German literature is told through a detailed chronology an introductory essay a comprehensive bibliography and over 200 cross referenced dictionary entries on poetry novels historical narrative philosophical musings and drama The exceptional writers who emerged and shaped German literature over the centuries including Walther von der Vogelweide Johann Jakob

Christoffel von Grimmelshausen Gotthold Ephraim Lessing Johann Wolfgang Goethe Friedrich Schiller Heinrich Heine Friedrich Nietzsche Thomas Mann and many others who are well known and admired worldwide are also covered Figures of Identity Clark S. Muenzer,1990-10-01 The question of coherence in Goethe's novels which like Faust compelled his attention throughout his creative life has only recently occupied a few critics Professor Muenzer's study offers the most comprehensive effort of this kind by examining the problematic nature of self definition through the four novels and its emergence as a discursive process of the imagination The self of these texts Muenzer suggests evolves as a symbolic construct that records a pattern of pursuit for each of their protagonists and orients the reader toward three basic goals of human aspiration Thus Werther aspires to purposefulness as a center of teleological fulfillment while the hero of Wilhelm Meister's Apprenticeship refers to an ideological center of participation in his social desire Eduard in The Elective Affinities presumes to occupy a center of archaeological power through his typically self assertive strategies In the last of his novels Wilhelm Meister's Journeymanhood Goethe articulates the need to balance all such self involved behavior with an attitude of self denial Apparently the mind can orient itself through centers of purpose order and power but it must also recognize the illusion of their attainment Identity does not involve a substantive presence and the result of self definition for Goethe is interpretive work Each of Professor Muenzer's interpretations has been guided by this premise The interests of all of Goethe's novelistic protagonists he concludes serve as orienting postures toward goals that cannot be literally achieved Consequently symbolic resolutions are proposed These then introduce new problems as points of departure in subsequent works The hidden agenda of Goethe's work as a novelist is a self that exists as a textual problem a series of interpretive moves that endlessly defer the attainment of self presence by supplementing each other in narrative fictions Medieval Lyric William Doremus Paden,2000 An essential volume for medievalists and scholars of comparative literature Medieval Lyric opens up a reconsideration of genre in medieval European lyric Departing from a perspective that asks how medieval genres correspond with twentieth century ideas of structure or with the evolution of poetry this collection argues that the development of genres should be considered as a historical phenomenon embedded in a given culture and responsive to social and literary change Basic Concepts of Poetics Emil Staiger,2010-11-01 Medieval Germany John M. Jeep,2001 An encyclopedia covering the political social intellectual religious and cultural history of the German and Dutch speaking medieval world between 500 and 1500 Entries cover individuals and their deeds as well as broader historical topics Early Narrative Christology: The Lord in the Gospel of Luke C. Kavin Rowe,2012-02-14 Despite the striking frequency with which the Greek word kyrios Lord occurs in Luke's Gospel this study is the first comprehensive analysis of Luke's use of this word The analysis follows the use of kyrios in the Gospel from beginning to end in order to trace narratively the complex and deliberate development of Jesus identity as Lord Detailed attention to Luke's narrative artistry and his use of Mark demonstrates that Luke has a nuanced and sophisticated christology centered on Jesus identity as Lord

The Leitword in Minnesang Vickie L. Ziegler, 1975 Georg Trakl's Poetry Richard Detsch, 1991-01-18 The chaotic mixture of elements in Trakl's poems is more apparent than real this book argues thus challenging the Orphic view of Walther Killy and his followers A dream of unity one of the most ancient dreams in human history is in fact reflected in all of Trakl's work The recurring themes in Trakl's poetry are brought into focus through Dr Detsch's literary psychological and philosophical analysis the union of male and female in incest from the Jungian standpoint the union of life and death from the Heideggerian standpoint and that of German Romanticism as represented by Novalis the union of good and evil from the Dostoyevskian or Nietzschean standpoint the mixture of images from the Goethean definition of symbolism Trakl 1887-1914 is presented as a poet whose lyric voice sounded a cry of hope in its deepest despair As Dr Detsch's generous quotations from the poet's work in the original German make clear Georg Trakl sought poetic expression for a union of opposites The Portrayal of the Heroine in Chrétien de Troyes's "Erec Et Enide", Gottfried Von Strassburg's "Tristan", and "Flamenca" Nancy C. Zak, 1983 Catalog of Copyright Entries. Third Series Library of Congress. Copyright Office, 1978 Michigan Germanic Studies, 1975 The Medieval German Lyric, 1150-1300 Olive Sayce, 1982 From Symbol to Mimesis Franz H. Bäuml, 1984 Bookseller and the Stationery Trades' Journal, 1975 The German Historical Novel in Exile After 1933 Bruce M. Broerman, Raphael Sealey, 1985 Historical fiction from the epic tales of the ancients to Gone With the Wind and Roots demonstrates an inherent need in man to come to terms with his heritage in literary form When the writers and readers are exiles their need becomes especially poignant The dual historical artistic nature of the historical novel legitimates its claim to be a distinct genre Two of the post 1933 exiled German novelists Lion Feuchtwanger and Alfred Döblin saw the historical novel's function as to collect preserve and transmit the reality not the mere facts of great historical events and personages The analysis of a cross section of the work of these two and eight other leading German novelists in exile Thomas and Heinrich Mann Hermann Broch Wolfgang Cerdan Bruno Frank Robert Neumann Edgar Maass and Joseph Roth confirms the view of Döblin and Feuchtwanger and reveals that an indebtedness to Neo Romanticism and a basic humanist attitude are common to all the authors Although 1933 marks the largest migration of writers into exile known to modern history their experience and their subsequent novels share attributes with the fictional expressions of exiled writers from places as varied as Argentina Poland South Africa and the Soviet Union
