Post-Western Sociology - From China to Europe Laurence Roulleau-Berger, Li Peilin, 2018-05-15 This book is rooted in an epistemological approach to sociology in which the boundaries between Western and non Western sociologies are acknowledged and built on It argues that knowledge is organised in conceptual spaces linked to paradigms and programmes which in turn are linked to ethnocentred knowledge processes that until recently Western approaches including Post Colonial French Social Science and American approaches have dominated non Western theories and that Western theories have sometimes seemed incapable of explaining phenomena produced in other societies It goes on to argue that the blurring of boundaries between Western and non Western sociologies is very important and that such a Post Western approach will mean co production and co construction of common knowledge the recognition of ignored or forgotten scientific cultures and a global change in sociology which imposes theoretical and methodological detours displacements reversals and conversions The book brings together a wide range of Western and Chinese sociologists who explore the consequences of this new approach in relation to many different issues and aspects of sociology Women and Film Animation Marie-Josée Saint-Pierre, 2024-03-15 The creations of female animation filmmakers are recognized all over the world while being paradoxically unknown to the general public Women and Film Animation A Feminist Corpus at the National Film Board of Canada 1939-1989 brings out of the shadows the work of true pioneers by presenting and analyzing from a resolutely feminist perspective the works they have conceived within the National Film Board of Canada NFB This institution has played an essential role in the emergence of animated cinema in Canada but it is forgotten or ignored that a good part of this vast corpus is the work of women who have worked there not only as assistants but also as directors These artists have contributed to changing the traditional representations of women in a unique way in both commercial and avant garde animated cinema The author accounts for their concerns their creativity and their many bright achievements To do this she relies on a wide range of critical works in social and cultural history of Canada in feminist art history and on multiple studies on animated cinema Key Features Provides an interdisciplinary approach that combines concepts from feminist studies film theory and visual arts for a nuanced analysis of the role of women in animated cinema Discusses historical and sociological background that sheds light on the condition of women Includes a profound analysis of the changes and continuities in the role of women in this industry over time focusing on the National Film Board of Canada Features previously unreleased archival material and selected excerpts from reviews by the NFB's programming committee highlighting the impact of production circumstances of the works of specific women animators

Women Taking Risks in Contemporary

Autobiographical Narratives Kenneth Reeds, Anna Rocca, 2013-10-03 Women Taking Risks in Contemporary

Autobiographical Narratives explores the nature and effects of risk in self narrative representations of life events and is an early step towards confronting the dearth of analysis on this subject The collection focuses on risk taking as one of women's articulations of authorial agency displayed in literary testimonial photographic travel and film documentary forms of autobiographical expression in French Among many themes the book fosters discussion on matters of courage strength resilience freedom self fulfillment political engagement compassion faith and the envisioning of unconventional alliances that follow a woman's stepping out of her comfort zone The fourteen essays included in this collection discuss works of women authors from North Africa Sub Saharan Africa France and the Caribbean They exemplify a variety of self narratives that blur unified conceptualizations of both identity and national belonging They address questions about women writers attitudes towards risk and their willingness to change the status quo They also explore the many personal and public forms in which agency manifests through risk taking engagements the ways in which women challenge the conventional wisdom about feminine reserve and aversion to danger the multiplicity of seen and unforeseen consequences of risk taking the all too frequent lack of recognition of female courage the overcoming of obstacles by taking risks and frequently the amelioration of women's lives Addressing both the broader context of the study of risk and the more specific areas of female expression and autobiography in Francophone cultures this collection is attractive to a diverse audience with the potential to cross disciplines and inform a wide body of research A number of the essays deal with issues born in postcolonial circumstances This examination of the elucidation of marginalized voices should prove enlightening to an array of scholars researching specific ethnic sexual gender and general subjects related to identity In making inroads towards expanding the well developed area of risk studies into the humanities this collection makes an important contribution that has the potential to promote a variety of cross disciplinary research including examinations of the psychology and sociology behind chauvinism personal expression and formative experiences

Feminist Interrogations of Women's Head Hair Sigal Barak-Brandes, Amit

Kama, 2018-06-13 Feminist scholarship has looked extensively at the perception of the body as a flexible construction of cultural and social dictates but head hair has been often overlooked Feminist Interrogations of Women's Head Hair brings new focus to this underrepresented topic through its intersections with contemporary socio cultural contexts Scholars from a wide range of disciplines investigate private and public meanings associated with female head hair problematising our assumptions about its role and implications in the 21st Century Readers are invited to reflect on the use of hair in popular culture such as children's television and pop album artwork as well as in work by women artists. Studies examine the lived experiences of women from a range of backgrounds and histories including curly haired women in Israel, African American women and lesbians in France. Other essays interrogate the connotations of women's head hair in relation to body image, religion and aging. Feminist Interrogations of Women's Head Hair brings together cultural discourses and the lived experiences of women across time and place to reveal the complex and ever evolving significance of hair. It is an important contribution to the critical feminist thought in cultural studies, fashion studies, media studies, African American studies, queer theory, gerontology, psychology and sociology. What is Work? Raffaella Sarti, Anna Bellavitis, Manuela Martini, 2018-09-21. Every society throughout history has defined what counts as work and what doesn't. And more often than not those lines of demarcation are inextricable from considerations of gender. What Is Work offers a multi-disciplinary approach to understanding labor within the highly gendered realm of household economies. Drawing from scholarship on gender history, economic sociology, family history, civil law and feminist economics, these essays explore the changing and often contested boundaries between what was and is considered work in different Euro American contexts over several centuries with an eye to the ambiguities and biases that have shaped mainstream conceptions of work across all social sectors. Bodies, Religion, and Power in Tunisia Raoudha Elguedri Dumbrowska, 2024-12-21. This book explores the body as a vector for reading the rapid changes in contemporary Tunisia through questions of sexuality, forms of clothing and the dynamics of gender relations. Grounded in 15 years of sociological empirical research on the post-revolutionary period of Tunisia 2011-2020, this study addresses youth uprisings through their bodies against the dualities of traditional and modern masculinity and femininity and the legitimate and the marginal. Bringing together empirical research and a theoretical overview of the evolution of the place of the body in sociology and feminist theory, this book deconstructs biological deterministic views of the body and offers instead a perspective of the body as interactive, subjective, societal and cosmic, permeated by different systems, policies, philosophies and ways of living. Chapters analyse Arab and Islamic cultural and cognitive frameworks for the body and apply Foucauldian and feminist concepts of the body and power to provide a comparative sociological study of global politics around the body while centering Tunisian youth movements that demand free use of the body. It will be of interest to students and researchers in Women, Gender and Sexuality Studies, Sociology of the Body, Middle Eastern Studies and Feminist Theory. The SAGE Handbook of Marxism Beverley Skeggs, Sara R. Farris, Alberto Toscano, Svenja Bromberg, 2021-11-17. The past decade has witnessed a resurgence of interest in Marxism both within and without the academy. Marxian frameworks, concepts and categories continue to be narratively relevant to the features and events of contemporary capitalism. Most crucially, an attention to shifting cultural conditions has led contemporary researchers to re-confront some classical and essential Marxist concepts as well as elaborating new critical frameworks for the analysis of capitalism today. The SAGE Handbook of Marxism showcases this cutting edge of today's Marxism. It advances the debate with essays that rigorously map and renew the concepts that have provided the groundwork and main currents for Marxist theory and showcases interventions that set the agenda for Marxist research in the 21st century A rigorous and challenging collection of scholarship this book contains a stunning range of contributions from contemporary academics writers and theorists from around the world and across disciplines invaluable to scholars and graduate students alike Part 1 Reworking the critique of political economy Part 2 Forms of domination subjects of struggle Part 3 Political perspectives Part 4 Philosophical dimensions Part 5 Land and existence Part 6 Domains Part 7 Inquiries and debates
