The Hills of Tuscany G. J. Brown,2015-07-23 Abigail Simon was not good with men In fact she was totally hopeless around them So she never imagined she would be seeing Dante Antoine again the most intimidating and glorious male she had ever laid eyes upon Sure they d had a connection when he saved her life in Hawaii But if someone told her she would be showing up on his doorstep over a year later she would have called them insane Of course this was before she finds herself stranded in Italy and on the verge of losing everything she still cares about It seems like she has no other choice but to barge into his villa and ask for a favor Dante Hanan Antoine was a man with a dark past He had vowed revenge after his mother was brutally murdered sacrificing everything on the altar of his rage When his vengeance was finally spent the only thing that remained was the vineyard his father left him Hard and jaded from the path he had chosen Dante decided it was all he would ever need Slamming the door on love and family he devoted himself to tending his father s legacy What he did not expect was for Abigail Simon to come back into his life When she arrives with her little sister in tow he cannot turn her away in good conscience But this woman was dangerous to him for she seemed the only person who could make him feel again
