Himalayan Herders:

Himalayan Herders Naomi Hawes Bishop, 1998 This first general case study about the Sherpa people in the Yolmo region of Nepal helps to place the more familiar Sherpa of the Solu Khumbu region of Mt Everest in comparative context This study provides an ethnographic description of a village within the broad context of human adaptation to mountain environments Tibetan regional cultures and culture change Himalayan Herders Naomi Bishop, 2014 Himalayan Herders is an intimate portrait of a temple village in the Yolmo valley of Central Nepal where Tibetan Buddhists consult shamans married life begins by kidnapping the bride and the nearest road is a two day walk away The community drama of marriage death and rituals is juxtaposed with the rich texture of daily life both in the village and the surrounding mountains and forest where these pastoralists herd zomo a cross between a cow and a yak which thrives in middle altitude pastures between 8 000 and 14 000 feet Origins and Migrations in the Extended Eastern Himalayas Toni Huber, Stuart Blackburn, 2012-02-03 Origins and migration are core elements in the histories identities and stories of Tibeto Burman speaking populations in the extended eastern Himalayas These essays explore theories of explaining origins and migration methods for studying them and expressions of them in local cultures Ethnomusicology Jennifer Post, 2004-03-01 Ethnomusicology A Research and Information Guide is an annotated bibliography of books recordings videos and websites in the field of ethnomusicology The book is divided into two parts Part One is organised by resource type in categories of greatest concern to students and scholars This includes handbooks and guides encyclopedias and dictionaries indexes and bibliographies journals media sources and archives It also offers annotated entries on the basic literature of ethnomusicological history and research Part Two provides a list of current publications in the field that are widely used by ethnomusicologists Multiply indexed this book serves as an excellent tool for librarians researchers and scholars in sorting through the massive amount of new material that has appeared in the field over the past decades Visual Research Jerome W. Crowder, Jonathan S. Marion, 2020-06-11 Visual Research A Concise Introduction to Thinking Visually is the first text to present a concise overview of the significant ethical theoretical and practical considerations for conducting research with images The capacity to take photos and video on handheld devices and the ability to store post and share such imagery online all offer tremendous opportunities for social research The rapid development and popularity of such technology means that little technological proficiency is required and even less theoretical and ethical consideration This book provides an accessible introduction to doing visual research in the social sciences Beginning with ethical considerations this book highlights the importance of thinking visually before engaging in visual research Further themes involve creating organizing and using images and are presented so as to help readers think about and work with their own visual data Boxed case studies and further reading suggestions enhance the utility of this primer Concise and highly focused Visual Research will be an invaluable resource for visual media and communications students and researchers and others interested in visual research in the social sciences Visual Anthropology Fadwa El

Guindi,2004-11-15 El Guindi provides a comprehensive guide to the methods of visual anthropology and the use of film in cross cultural research and ethnography She shows how visual media photographic filmic interactive is now an accepted part of the anthropological process a vital tool that reflects and produces knowledge about the range of cultures and about culture itself It preserves the integrity of people objects and events in their cultural context and expands our horizons beyond the reach of memory culture El Guindi places visual anthropology within an empirically based analytic framework built on systematic observation identifying the research cycle that begins with data gathering and leads to visual ethnographic construction that is anthropological in method process and product She explains how indigenous professional and amateur forms of pictorial auditory materials are grounded in personal social cultural and ideological contexts and describes the non Western critique of the Western traditions of visual anthropology Her book is an excellent guide for ethnographic research and for film and other media instruction concerned with cross cultural representation Mountain Environments Romola Parish,2014-06-03 This book breaks the ground in Geographical texts by transcending a strictly regional or topical focus It presents the opportunities and constraints that mountains and their resources offer to local and global populations the impacts of environmental and economic change development and globalisation on mountain environments Part of the Ecogeography series edited by Richard Hugget Animals in Person John Knight,2020-08-29 Our relationship with animals is complex and contradictory we hunt kill and eat them yet we also love respect and protect them This ambivalent relationship is further complicated by the fact that we attribute human emotions and intelligence to animals We even go as far as likening them to children and treating them as family members Drawing on a diverse range of case studies Animals in Person attempts to unravel our close and fascinating link with the animal kingdom This book highlights the theme of cross species intimacy in contexts such as livestock care pet keeping and the use of animals in tourism The studies draw on data from different parts of the world including New Guinea Nepal India Japan Greece Britain The Netherlands and Australia Animals in Person documents the existence of relations between humans and animals that in many respects recall relations among humans themselves 21st Century Anthropology: A Reference Handbook H. James Birx,2010-06-10 Highlighting the most important topics issues questions and debates these two volumes offer full coverage of major subthemes and subfields within the discipline of anthropology New York Magazine ,1997-11-10 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine s consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea Legends in Gandhian Social Activism: Mira Behn and Sarala Behn Bidisha Mallik,2022-06-15 This book is about Madeleine Slade 1892 1982 and Catherine Mary Heilemann 1901 1982 two English associates of Mohandas K Mahatma Gandhi 1869 1948 known in India as Mira Behn and Sarala Behn

The odysseys of these women present a counternarrative to the forces of imperialism colonialism capitalism and globalized development The book examines their extraordinary journey to India to work with Gandhi and their roles in India s independence movement their spiritual strivings their independent work in the Himalayas and most importantly their contribution to the evolution of Gandhian philosophy of socio economic reconstruction and environmental conservation in the present Indian state of Uttarakhand The author shows that these women developed ideas and practices that drew from an extensive intellectual terrain that cannot be limited to Gandhi s work She delineates directions in which Gandhian thought and experiments in rural development work and visions of a new society evolved through the lives activism and written contributions of these two women Their thought and practice generated a new cultural consciousness on sustainability that had a key influence in environmental debates in India and beyond and were responsible for two of the most important environmental movements of India and the world the Chipko Movement or the movement against commercial green felling of trees by hugging them and the protest against the Tehri high dam on the Bhagirathi River To this day their teachings and philosophies constitute a useful and significant contribution to the search for and implementation of global ideas of ecological conservation and human development
