Hippo In The Garden A Nonreligious Approach To Having A Conversation With God:

Hippo in the Garden James Ryle, 1993 Through the author's humorous personal anecdotes and references to the Old and New Testament Scriptures you will discover that every circumstance of life becomes an opportunity to converse with God A Guide to Christian Spiritual Formation Evan B. Howard, 2018-01-16 Evan Howard a noted authority on Christian spirituality provides a holistic accessible and informed introduction to Christian spiritual formation written from a broadly evangelical perspective Howard joins Scripture with themes of community spirit formation and mission in a single integrative guide The book includes helpful features such as figures charts chapter overviews and formation focused questions Its evangelical ecumenical and global perspectives will appeal to a wide audience Resources for professors and students are available through Baker Academic's Textbook eSources Affirming the Touch of God Evan B. Howard, 2000 Both Ignatius of Loyola and Jonathan Edwards wrote about the theme of Christian discernment Evan B Howard clarifies patterns of Christian discernment common to both Roman Catholics and Protestants Yet his study extends analysis further through a synthesis of cognitive psychology and religious philosophy Howard provides greater specification of the roles of affectivity in discernment This will allow spiritual advisors to better guide men and women into an effective discernment process Psychologists philosophers and students of religion will find this book highly valuable The Promise Keepers Bryan W. Brickner, 1999-01-01 This informative book explores the ideological practices that construct the Promise Keepers movement while investigating the fundamentals of the Promise Keepers belief system Based upon non participant observations of events as well as in depth interviews The Promise Keepers Politics and Promises studies the movement from the inside providing a better understanding of this evangelical phenomenon Examining the group from its modest beginning in 1990 of seventy men joining together in prayer Bryan Brickner discusses the meaning of the movement in a social context This book will be invaluable to scholars of religion gender studies and political theory Main Street Mystics Margaret M. Poloma, 2003 On January 20 1994 the worshippers at the Toronto Airport Vineyard Church began to feel the Holy Spirit move them They began to laugh uncontrollably collapse to the floor stagger as if drunk But what was truly startling in this occurrence now commonly known as the Toronto Blessing is that these manifestations keep appearing at the Toronto church and have sparked a worldwide charismatic revival Visitors from around the world have come and started revivals in their home churches upon return In Main Street Mystics Margaret Poloma explains what is happening with this contemporary charismatic revival without explaining it away From her unique position as both a scholar and a pilgrim Poloma offers an intimate account of the movement while always attempting to understand it through the lenses of social science She looks at Pentecostalism as a form of mysticism but a mysticism that engages Pentecostals and charismatics in the everyday world With its broad overview and up close portraits Main Street Mystics is essential for anyone wanting to understand the ever renewing movement of Pentecostalism Spirit and Sport Sean Samuel O'Neil, 2023-08-18 In Spirit and Sport Religion and the Fragile Athletic Body in Popular Culture Sean O Neil studies the intersectionality of religion and disability as it exists within contemporary sports To do so he calls to the forefront various contemporary stories about trauma and disability some fictional others biographical and examines how we tell and interpret these stories within the frameworks of athletic activity competition failure and success O Neil studies a wide range of perspectives from John Irving s A Prayer for Owen Meany and the big screen s Signs to the experiences of real life athletes like Tim Tebow Muhammad Ali and Bethany Hamilton Woven throughout his examination of each is a consideration of religious belief and practice especially within Christianity as it relates to athletic ability the lighthearted stories of victory and overcoming the inspiring triumph over fragility and limitation so often couched in religious terms O Neil s study draws upon his experiences as a hospital chaplain and his own battle with skin cancer By blending personal experience with sociological observation O Neil argues that the intersection of religion sports and disability in popular culture is a revealing site of cultural struggle over competing myths identities and values related to the body both the physical bodies we inhabit as well as the broader social bodies to which we subscribe Spirit and Sport is a study with broad appeal from O Neil s autoethnographic storytelling to the wide range of narrative media he examines religious scholars sports historians and general audiences alike are sure to find it a thought provoking and engaging read

Charisma and Christian Life ,1994 A Dream Come True James Ryle,1995 Pastor James Ryle addresses the phenomenon of dreams and visions as a means of divine communication citing biblical and historical precedents and asking whether God still speaks in this way to and through contemporary Christians

Christian Millenarianism Stephen Hunt,2001-08-22 To grasp this subject one needs a multifaceted multidisciplinary approach by a variety of expert hands such as have been brought together in this book Here one has the whole argument from the inter Testamental and earliest Christian periods through medieval and early modern times up to the complex overlaps with the New Age or Pentecostalism and Neo Pentecostalism or Judaising movements like the Seventh Day Adventists and the Peruvian Israelites from the Foreword by David Martin Students with a serious interest in the manifestations of millennialism and those concerned with the origins and motivations embraced by revolutionary ideologies will find this book an indispensable resource for laymen it offers a truly fascinating read Bryan R Wilson This timely book examines the impact of Christian millenarian ideas in a comparative and historical perspective with a special emphasis on contemporary religious movements inspired by such ideas The contributors are Andrew Bradstock Eugene Gallagher Malcolm B Hamilton Massimo Introvigne Orestis Lindermeier Kenneth Newport Susan J Palmer Mark Patterson Martyn Percy Margaret Poloma Stanley E Porter Ian Reader Damian Thompson Andrew Walker Diane Watt and Michael York

Subject Guide to Books in Print ,1997 All Is Forgiven Marsha G. Witten,2023-11-14 How the image of God is being refashioned from the Protestant pulpit for an increasingly secular world In recent years direct mail Christianity has extended a new kind of invitation to the Protestant faithful slick brochures enumerating the social and psychological advantages of church attendance with no mention whatsoever of spiritual striving suffering or faith in God Does this kind of secularity prevail in mainline Protestant churches Marsha Witten looks for an answer to this question through an in depth analysis of preaching on an important New Testament text the Parable of the Prodigal Son Witten finds that the transcendent and awesome God of Luther and Calvin whose image informed early Protestant visions of the relationship between human beings and the divine has been greatly softened in demeanor in American Protestant churches with only minor resistance from conservative traditions As preached from the pulpits of the Presbyterian Church USA and the Southern Baptist Convention God is a deity whose primary function lies in providing psychological benefits to individual church members the Parable of the Prodigal Son portrays God as a loving and understanding daddy figure The focus is not on the challenges that the church could pose to the secular sphere of life Instead individuals are encouraged to make the right choices among the secular world's various offerings or as in many Southern Baptist messages to accept God's offer of rescue from the lostness of secular confusions Situating the sermon at the heart of Protestant worship All Is Forgiven shows how complex rhetorical strategies continue to transform Christian faith and help it survive in a secular world Augustine and Modern Law Richard O. Brooks, 2017-07-05 St Augustine and Roman law are the two bridges from Athens and Jerusalem to the world of modern law Augustine's almost eerily modern political realism was based upon his deep appreciation of human evil arising from his insights into the human personality the product of his reflections on his own life and the history of his times These insights have traveled well through the ages and are mirrored in the pages of Aquinas Luther and Calvin Reinhold Niebuhr and Hannah Arendt The articles in this volume describe the life and world of Augustine and the ways in which he conceived both justice and law They also discuss the little recognized Augustinian contributions to the field of modern hermeneutics the discipline which informs the art of legal interpretation Finally they include Augustine's valuable discussion of church state relations the law of just wars and proper role and limits of coercion and the procreative dimensions of marriage The volume also includes an extremely useful definitive bibliography of Augustine and the law and will leave readers with an increased appreciation of the contributions which Augustine has made to the history of jurisprudence No one can read Augustine and these articles on his view of the law without taking away a new view of the law itself The Values Connection James Reichley, 2001-02-28 Values are missing from American politics But should religion and government mix A James Reichley makes the provocative case that without a strong moral basis American democracy is in trouble The author's deep background in political theory and American Constitutional history allows him to propose practical steps for a constitutionally valid relationship between religion and public life He surveys the seven major value systems currently competing for America's heart and soul and convincingly demonstrates that only one what Reichley calls transcendent idealism is the way to secure America's future He then goes an extra step by pointing out examples of successful morally based public policies addressing critical social problems ranging from drug abuse to single parenthood to school choice What s God got to do with good government In The Values Connection the answer is everything      Religious and Theological Abstracts ,1966      The Autism of Gxd Ruth M. Dunster,2022-12-02 The Autism of Gxd An Atheological Love Story is truly a love story the story of Ruth Dunster s autistic search for an authentic personal and theological Gxd In this it resembles Augustine s Confessions as a theological autobiography It becomes atheological however as Dunster reckons with what Denys Turner terms The Darkness of God This awareness leads her through the poetry of Medieval mystics to the mythic death of God theology of Thomas J J Altizer The search for faith is nonetheless very real in this strange territory Dunster hears her autistic Gxd speaking in art poetry novels and music and this further leads her into the territory of Literature Theology and the Arts where in Blanchot s words the answer is the poem s absence Indeed Dunster calls the book a strange poem or even a hymn Weaving an autistic mythology out of a rigorous survey of clinical autism this book abounds in challenge and paradox It offers a fascinating view into how an autistic poet becomes a theologian and what more mainstream theologies might learn from this disabled Gxd
