

Our Family Way 1

Concerning AUTHORITIES in our family

Ask A Question

Read The Bible

Day 1

As king, would you share your throne with another king? Why, or why not?

If someone could observe your life for a day, how would they know what is really important to you? What would they see?

Matthew 22:34-40

The religious leaders in Jerusalem wanted to trick Jesus into saying something wrong so they could accuse him of teaching against them. But Jesus knew what to say.

Day 2

Which is easier for you to do: to love your parents, or to obey them? Why?

If you had a "pocket parent" card that played a short digital message every 30 minutes, what would you want to hear? Not hear?

John 14:15-21

Jesus has told his disciples that he is going where they cannot follow. They are confused so he comforts and encourages them, and tells them what to expect when he is gone.

Day 3

What one gift would you want to give to Jesus right now if he were here?

If you were a poor, peasant child and the king made you a prince or princess, would you be a different person, or act differently? Why?

Romans 12:1-2

Because of all that God has done for us in Jesus, Paul teaches that we should stop being worldly, but instead let him change our hearts and minds so we will want to do his will.

Day 4

If you were chosen to select the next president, what qualities or qualifications would you look for in that person?

If your son is to become king after you, what advice would you want to give to him?

1 Chronicles 28:8-10

David has called together all the leaders of Israel to pass the torch of leadership to his son, Solomon. He admonishes him to seek and serve the Lord wholeheartedly.

Day 5

You're lost, it's getting dark, but you have directions to get home. Would you take a shortcut home? Why, or why not?

Do you like to follow directions, or do things your own way? Which is better?

Deuteronomy 5:28-33

As Israel prepares to enter the Promised Land, Moses recalls what God said at Mt. Sinai 40 years before, and admonishes the people to fear God, and serve and obey him.

commitments seem to resist the effects of reasoning and critical reflection Drawing on real life examples empirical psychology and philosophical reflection Paul Katsafanas argues that these commitments involve an ethical stance called devotion which plays a pervasive but often hidden role in human life Devotion typically involves sacralizing certain values goals or relationships To sacralize a value is to treat it as inviolable trade offs with ordinary values are forbidden incontestable even contemplating such trade offs is prohibited and dialectically invulnerable no rational considerations can disrupt the agent's commitment to the value Philosophy of Devotion offers a detailed philosophical account and defense of these features Devotion and the sacralization of values can be reasonable indeed a life involving meaningful sustained commitment depends on these stances Without devotion we risk an existential condition that Katsafanas describes as normative dissipation in which all of our commitments become etiolated Yet devotion can easily go wrong deforming into the individual and group fanaticism that have become pervasive features of modern social life Katsafanas provides an alternative to fanaticism investigating the way in which we can express non pathological forms of devotion We can be devoted through affirmation and through what Katsafanas calls the deepening move which treats the agent's central commitments as systematically inchoate Each of these stances enables a wholehearted form of devotion that nevertheless preserves flexibility and openness avoiding the dangers of fanaticism on the one hand and normative dissipation on the other But this is inevitably a fragile and precarious achievement affirmation can slide into a focus on rejecting what isn't affirmed and the deepening move can ossify into rigidity Only the perpetual quest to maintain a form of existential flexibility which may require oscillation between affirmation and deepening can stave off these dangers

Deadly Devotion Alysia Sofios, Caitlin Rother, 2011-07-26 Even the most avid true crime fans will be shocked by the story of Marcus Wesson of Fresno California the worst mass murderer in the city's history But the horrors he inflicted upon his family are nothing compared to the strength of the survivors and one brave reporter who risked everything to help them Originally published as Where Hope Begins For decades the family of Marcus Wesson his wife Elizabeth and seventeen children lived sequestered in a social and emotional prison enduring his tyrannical reign of physical sexual and mental abuse Then came the terrible day when a family confrontation erupted into a harrowing standoff with police and SWAT teams descending on a small blue house in central Fresno Marcus Wesson murdered nine of his children Television reporter Alysia

Sofios got the first tip about Wesson's arrest and was witness to every twist and turn of the horrific case through to Wesson's trial. Risking her job and her life to offer friendship and support to the traumatized family members scarred by memories and guilt reviled for having the Wesson name, Sofios chronicles the case that shocked the nation and gives voice to their astounding stories of survival. This is a stunning account of healing from one man's unimaginable acts and how each in time learned to break free from a deadly devotion.

Family Devotion. A sermon [on Josh. xxiv. 15]. Thomas James ROWSELL, 1839      Private and Domestic Devotion in Early Modern Britain Alec Ryrie, 2016-04-15

Scholars increasingly recognise that understanding the history of religion means understanding worship and devotion as well as doctrines and polemics. Early modern Christianity consisted of its lived experience. This collection and its companion volume Worship and the Parish Church in Early Modern Britain ed. Natalie Mears and Alec Ryrie bring together an interdisciplinary range of scholars to discuss what that lived experience comprised and what it meant. Private and domestic devotion: how early modern men and women practised their religion when they were not in church is a vital and largely hidden subject. Here historical literary and theological scholars examine piety of conformist, non-conformist and Catholic early modern Christians in a range of private and domestic settings in both England and Scotland. The subjects under analysis include Bible reading, the composition of prayers, the use of the psalms, the use of physical props for prayers, the pious interpretation of dreams and the troubling question of what counted as religious solitude. The collection as a whole broadens and deepens our understanding of the patterns of early modern devotion and of their meanings for early modern culture as a whole.
