Ultimate Justice J.D. Wells,2005-12-01 Grant Franklin is a divorced father of two girls living in Sacramento California As a sales manager for a major sporting goods manufacturer he travels the eleven western states to make a living While on a trip across northern Nevada he is informed via a phone call from the Sacramento Police Department that his ex wife and eldest daughter have been murdered in their beds by apparent burglars His youngest daughter clings to life in a Sacramento hospital The police catch the two directly responsible for the deaths but due to an overzealous cop the two are released because of an illegal search The next morning the two killers are found executed in a burned out car The police seem to be unable to move on the case any further so Grant with the help of his old Navy buddy and current Navy SEAL Ron Mize decide to take a shot at finding those responsible for the deaths of his ex wife and daughter When his youngest daughter recognizes a face on the front page of a newspaper during her recovery from her injuries the search is on It takes them from the artsy crowd of San Francisco to the state capital in Sacramento where deals are brokered for millions of dollars From the big business in California to a respected state senator they rush headlong toward the answers culminating in a confrontation in the sky over the Nevada desert      Attack on Government David P. Levine,2004 Distrust of government and a sense that government has failed are central features of public life in America Attack on Government is a psychological study of these and related features of the way we experience government in the United States The book considers such topics as the moral standing of government the free market ideal and the abuse of power      Forthcoming Books Rose Arny,1997

Canadian Periodical Index ,1997      Psychiatry in Law / Law in Psychiatry, Second Edition Ralph Slovenko,2009-03-03 Psychiatry in Law Law in Psychiatry 2nd Edition is a sweeping up to date examination of the infiltration of psychiatry into law and the growing intervention of law into psychiatry Unmatched in breadth and coverage and thoroughly updated from the first edition this comprehensive text and reference is an essential resource for psychiatry residents law students and practitioners alike      Don't Kill in Our Names Rachel King,2003 Rachel King offers us the stories of families who understand the powerful reality that taking another life in the name of justice only perpetuates the tragedy I encourage others to read these stories to better understand their journey from despair and anger to some level of peace and even forgiveness Sister Helen Prejean CSJ author of Dead Man Walking Could you forgive the murderer of your husband

Your mother Your son Families of murder victims are often ardent and very public supporters of the death penalty But the people whose stories appear in this book have chosen instead to forgive their loved ones murderers and many have developed personal relationships with the killers and have even worked to save their lives They have formed a nationwide group Murder Victims Families for Reconciliation MVFR to oppose the death penalty MVFR members are often treated as either saints or lunatics but the truth is that they are neither They are ordinary people who have responded to an extraordinary and devastating tragedy with courage and faith choosing reconciliation over retribution healing over hatred Believing that the death penalty is a form of social violence that only repeats and perpetuates the violence that claimed their loved ones lives they hold out the hope of redemption even for those who have committed the most hideous crimes Weaving third person narrative with wrenching first hand accounts King presents the stories of ten MVFR members Each is a heartrending tale of grief soul searching and of the challenge to choose forgiveness instead of revenge These stories which King sets in the context of the national discussion over the death penalty debate and restorative versus retributive justice will appeal not only to those who oppose the death penalty but also to those who strive to understand how people can forgive the seemingly unforgivable Rachel King is a legislative counsel for the American Civil Liberties Union s Washington national office where she lobbies on crime policy She is currently working on a book about the families of death row inmates The New York Times Index ,1997 Police Misconduct United States.
