Hispanic American Historical Review Volume 46:

The Hispanic American Historical Review James Alexander Robertson, 1922 Includes Bibliographical section Guide to the Hispanic American Historical Review, 1956-1975 Wilber A. Chaffee, Beecher C. Ellison, 1980 Columbus Laurence Bergreen, 2012-09-25 He knew nothing of celestial navigation or of the existence of the Pacific Ocean He was a self promoting and ambitious entrepreneur His maps were a hybrid of fantasy and delusion When he did make land he enslaved the populace he found encouraged genocide and polluted relations between peoples He ended his career in near lunacy But Columbus had one asset that made all the difference an inborn sense of the sea of wind and weather and of selecting the optimal course to get from A to B Laurence Bergreen's energetic and bracing book gives the whole Columbus and most importantly the whole of his career not just the highlight of 1492 Columbus undertook three more voyages between 1494 and 1504 each designed to demonstrate that he could sail to China within a matter of weeks and convert those he found there to Christianity By their conclusion Columbus was broken in body and spirit a hero undone by the tragic flaw of pride If the first voyage illustrates the rewards of exploration this book shows how the subsequent voyages illustrate the costs political moral and economic Credit And Socioeconomic Change In Colonial Mexico Linda Greenow, 2019-03-08 This book based on a study of the credit market in Nueva Galicia during 1720 1820 reveals a number of the social characteristics of colonial Mexico including social status the role of women the church ethnicity and the complexity of the family network in economic affairs Negro Slavery in Latin America Rolando Mellafe, 2023-11-15 This title is part of UC Press's Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press's mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1975

Pigmentocracies Edward Eric Telles, Project on Ethnicity and Race in Latin America, 2014 Pigmentocracies Ethnicity Race and Color in Latin America Annual Report of the American Bible Society American Bible Society, 1923 Together with a list of auxiliary and cooperating societies their officers and other data Conflict After the Cold War Richard K. Betts, 2015-09-16 Edited by one of the most renowned scholars in the field Richard Betts Conflict After the Cold War assembles classic and contemporary readings on enduring problems of international security Offering broad historical and philosophical breadth the carefully chosen and excerpted selections in this popular reader help students engage key debates over the future of war and the new forms that violent conflict will take Conflict After the Cold War encourages closer scrutiny of the political economic social and military factors that drive war and peace Raimo Väyrynen: A Pioneer in International Relations, Scholarship and Policy-Making Raimo Väyrynen, 2023-01-03 This book provides a broad overview of Professor Raimo Väyrynen's academic work his role in international research organizations and his contributions to policy debates It offers an interesting review of important political issues during the time span of half a century from disarmament in Europe to the changing relationship between state sovereignty and transnational forces V yrynen has dealt with the changing agenda of peace and international relations security and the arms race and the world economy This book provides comprehensive analyses of the regional and systemic structure of international relations with the emphasis on conflicts and warfare between nations It argues that while states even smaller ones still matter transnational issues are increasingly important Taking a historical perspective the articles suggest that large scale violence and arms races have been recurrent and cyclical phenomena in international relations These events reflect the deep seated inequalities in the political and economic systems which moreover vary considerably between regions The publication is important reading for any researcher as well as students policy makers and the science oriented public at large Traces the changing agenda of international relations from disarmament and the world economy to the changing relationship between state sovereignty and transnational forces Provides analyses of the regional and systemic structure in international relations with the emphasis on conflicts and warfare Argues that large scale violence and the arms race have been recurrent and cyclical phenomena in international relations Reviews important political issues from peace and conflict in Europe to the changing power relationship in the world

Devout Laywomen in the Early Modern World Alison Weber, 2016-03-10 Devout laywomen raise a number of provocative questions about gender and religion in the early modern world How did some groups or individuals evade the Tridentine legislation that required third order women to take solemn vows and observe active and passive enclosure How did their attempts to exercise a female apostolate albeit with varying degrees of success and assertiveness destabilize hierarchies of class and gender To the extent that their beliefs and practices diverged from approved doctrine and rituals what insights can they provide into the tensions between official religion and lay religiosity Addressing these and many other questions Devout Laywomen in the Early Modern World reflects new directions in gender history offering a more nuanced approach to the paradigm of woman as the prototypical disciplined subject of church state power

Handbook for translators of Spanish historical documents Juan Villasana Haggard, 1969 Conflict After the Cold War Richard Betts, 2021-12-30 Edited by one of the most renowned scholars in the field Richard K Betts's Conflict After the Cold War assembles classic and contemporary readings on enduring problems of international security Offering broad historical and philosophical breadth the carefully chosen and excerpted selections in this popular reader help students engage in key debates over the future of war and the new forms that violent conflict will take Conflict After the Cold War encourages closer scrutiny of the political economic social and military factors that drive war and peace New to the Sixth Edition Eight new readings covering issues that have grown in salience since the previous edition or that present new interpretations of answers to old problems including pieces by Robert Kagan Edward O Wilson Scott D Sagan Robert Jervis and Jason Healey Jacqueline L Hazelton Oystein Tunsjo and Michael Beckley Updated volume and chapter introductions and a new reading by Richard K Betts
