Hispanic American Historical Review Volume 59:

The Hispanic American Historical Review, 1926 Latin American Peasants Tom Brass, 2004-08-02 The essays in this collection examine agrarian transformation in Latin America and the role in this of peasants with particular reference to Bolivia Peru Chile Brazil and Central America Among the issues covered are the impact of globalization and neo liberal economic policies Credit And Socioeconomic Change In Colonial Mexico Linda Greenow, 2019-03-08 This book based on a study of the credit market in Nueva Galicia during 1720 1820 reveals a number of the social characteristics of colonial Mexico including social status the role of women the church ethnicity and the complexity of the family network in economic affairs Sharing the Desert Winston P. Erickson, 2021-10-12 This book marks the culmination of fifteen years of collaboration between the University of Utah s American West Center and the Tohono O odham Nation s Education Department to collect documents and create curricular materials for use in their tribal school system Erickson has done an admirable job compiling this narrative Pacific Historical Review Habsburg Peru Peter T. Bradley, David Cahill, 1999-11-01 The reception of the discovery conquest and colonisation of Spanish America spawned a rich imaginative literature The case studies presented in this book represent two distinct types of imagining by two diametrically different groups literate and in some cases erudite Europeans and a vanquished native nobility The former endeavoured to make sense of Spain s and Portugal s marvellous possessions in the New World with the limited conceptual tools at their disposal the latter to construct a colonial identity based on their shared ancestral memory while incorporating elements from the even more wondrous Hispanic culture that had overwhelmed them The Political Economy of Indigo in India, 1580-1930 Ghulam A. Nadri, 2016-07-11 In The Political Economy of Indigo in India 1580 1930 A Global Perspective Ghulam A Nadri explores the dynamics of the indigo industry and trade from a long term perspective and examines the local and global forces that affected the potentialities of production in India and elsewhere and caused periods of boom and slump in the industry Using the commodity chains conceptual framework he examines the stages in the trajectory of indigo from production to consumption Nadri shows convincingly that the growth or decline in indigo production and trade in India was a part of the global processes of production trade and consumption and that indigo as a global commodity was embedded in the politics of empire and colonial expansion Studies In Spanish American Population History David J Robinson, 2019-06-04 Six of the ten essays in this collection Lombardi Villamarin Chance Greenow Robinson and Cook were originally presented at a Special Session during the 43rd International Congress of Americanists held in Vancouver during August 1979 Jointly organized by David J Robinson and Juan Villamarin the session was designed to bring together a group of individuals who had been working on the changing population of colonial Spanish America from various disciplinary perspectives to facilitate an exchange of information and ideas and to promote the further investigation of significant research questions The paper of Brian Evans was presented at the same Congress in another session but given its purpose and content it was thought to provide an ideal complement to several papers in the present collection Banking on Baghdad Edwin Black,2021-04-10 In Banking on Baghdad New York Times and international bestselling author Edwin Black chronicles the dramatic and tragic history of a land long the center of world commerce and conflict Tracing the involvement of Western governments and militaries as well as oil banking and other corporate interests Black pinpoints why today just as throughout modern history the world needs Iraq's resources and remains determined to acquire and protect them Banking on Baghdad almost painfully documents the many ways Iraq's recent history mirrors its tumultuous past Migrants In The Mexican North Michael M Swann,2021-11-28 Originally published in 1989 this study looks at the emigration and migration of people including to and between urban centres in 18th century Spanish American history The Caudillo of the Andes Natalia Sobrevilla Perea,2011-01-31 Born in La Paz in 1792 Andrés de Santa Cruz lived through the turbulent times that led to independence across Latin America He fought to shape the newly established republics and between 1836 and 1839 he created the Peru Bolivia Confederation The epitome of an Andean caudillo with armed forces at the center of his ideas of governance he was a state builder whose ambition ensured a strong and well administered country But the ultimate failure of the Confederation had long reaching consequences that still have an impact today The story of his life introduces students to broader questions of nationality and identity during this turbulent transition from Spanish colonial rule to the founding of Peru and Bolivia
