The Vietnamese City in Transition Patrick Gubry, Frank Castiglioni, Jean-Michel Cusset, Nguyen Thi Thieng, Pham Thuy Huong, 2010 Since the Doi Moi policy of economic renovation was introduced in 1986 Vietnam has undergone deep transformations as a result of the transition to a socialist oriented market economy Social and urban transition has taken place in parallel as urban dynamics were spurred on by Vietnamese public and private stakeholders and by external agents such as international organizations and international solidarity organizations experts consultants and bilateral aid organizations Here are the results of research carried out by French Canadian and Vietnamese teams from the north and south of the country on the overarching theme of Vietnamese cities in transition Some of this research deals with urban dynamics some with the issues at stake within such dynamics or with the strategies of the most significant stakeholders in urban transition civil society donors within the framework of official aid for development consultants and international consultancy firms These projects were carried out between 2001 and 2004 as part of the Urban Research Programme for Development PRUD and mainly focus on Hanoi and Ho Chi Minh City or both in the case of comparative studies Is there such a thing as a Vietnamese model of an Asian city It seems that urban transition in Vietnam is not taking place in as radical and abrupt a manner as in China The country s capacity for absorbing external models the quest for a third way between state intervention and economic liberalism and the fact that the country s architectural heritage is taken into account in urban planning are just some of the reasons for its particularity The issues addressed in each chapter as well as the proposals for further research suggested by the contributors should act as a catalyst for urban research in Vietnam Historical

Dommen, 2002-02-20 Dommen s book promises to be the definitive political history of Indochina during the Franco American era William M Leary E Merton Coulter Professor of History University of Georgia This magisterial study by Arthur J Dommen sets the Indochina wars French and American in perspective as no book that has come before He summarizes the history of the peninsula from the Vietnamese War of Independence from China in 930 39 through the first French military actions in 1858 when the struggle of the peoples of Indochina with Western powers began Dommen details the crucial episodes in the colonization of Indochina by the French and the indigenous reaction to it The struggle for national sovereignty reached an acute state at the end of World War II when independent governments rapidly assumed power in Vietnam and Cambodia When the French returned the struggle became one of open warfare with Nationalists and Communists gripped in a contest for ascendancy in Vietnam while the rulers of Cambodia and Laos sought to obtain independence by negotiation The withdrawal of the French after their defeat at Dien Bien Phu brought the Indochinese face to face whether as friends or as enemies with the Americans In spite of an armistice in 1954 the war between Hanoi and Saigon resumed as each enlisted the help of foreign allies which led to the renewed loss of sovereignty as a result of alliances and an increasingly heavy loss of lives Meticulous and detailed Dommen's telling of this complicated story is always judicious Nevertheless many people will find his analysis of the Diem coup a disturbing account of American plotting and murder This is an essential book for anyone who wants to understand Vietnam and the people who fought against the United States and won Vietnamese Colonial Republican Peter Zinoman,2013-11-16 This volume is a comprehensive study of Vietnam's greatest and most controversial 20th century writer who died tragically in 1939 at the age of 28 Vu Trong Phung is known for a remarkable collection of politically provocative novels and sensational works of non fiction reportage that were banned by the communist state from 1960 to 1986 Leading Vietnam scholar Zinoman resurrects the life and work of an important intellectual and author in order to reveal a neglected political project that is excluded from conventional accounts of modern Vietnamese political history He sees Vu Trong Phung as a leading proponent of a localized republican tradition that opposed colonialism communism and unfettered capitalism and that led both to the banning of his work and to the durability of his popular appeal in Vietnam today One Thousand Years - The Stories of Giao Châu, the Kingdoms of Linyi, Funan and Zhenla Tan Pham,2022-10-28 During the Vietnam War the country was divided at the 17th parallel About 140 kilometres north of this dividing line is a mountain pass called Ngang pass The land south of this pass about 60 per cent of present day Vietnam was occupied for centuries by the kingdoms of Linyi Funan and Zhenla But most people either have not heard of them or have only vague ideas about them This book is about these kingdoms North of Ngang pass Giao Ch u was ruled by northern dynasties for over a thousand years from the 2nd century BCE to the 10th century CE barring a few intervals of independence This volume also tells how the people of Giao Ch u came out of this long period to become an independent nation and why they did not want to become part of dynastic China This is Volume II of the book series A Traveller's Story of Vietnam's Past it continues where Volume I The Bronze Drums and The Earrings ends The book contains 73 figures and illustrations It tells the stories of familiar Vietnamese heroes like the Tr ng sisters Lady Tri u the Black Emperor and Ng Quy n It also discusses the beginning of Buddhism in Vietnam and the stories of Shi Xie's clan The stories of Linyi's kings and how the bloodthirsty Fan Wen and his successors prevented the Northern Dynasties from going beyond the Ngang pass are also explained The expansion of the Funan territory from southern Vietnam to the Malay Peninsula by Fan Shiman is included The little known Nanzhao An Nam War is also told with some details The battle of the B ch ng river in 938 when Giao Ch u Vietnam gained independence is recounted Like Volume I many places associated with historical events are also described in the book including the sanctuary of M S n and its donation by King Bhavavarman Chapter 1 A summary of this book Chapter 2 Under the Han Giao Ch u I Chapter 3 Shi Xie and the beginning of Buddhism in Vietnam Lady Tri u rebellion Giao Ch u II Chapter 4 A forest town the kingdom of Linyi and the Fans A Generation of Raiders Linyi I Chapter 5 One hundred years of

Description et histoire d'Hanoï André Masson (archiviste-paléographe), 1928 Vietnam 1946 Stein Tonnesson, 2010 Vietnam 1946 is a masterful narrative of the immediate origins of the first Vietnam War It is by turns vivid and shocking it is always immensely revealing T nnesson brings forensic clarity to crucial events about which even now some sixty years later fundamental misapprehensions exist An outstanding work of scholarship of major international importance Martin Thomas author of Empires of Intelligence T nnesson captures brilliantly the 1946 confrontation between two republics France determined to redeem itself from Axis humiliation by regaining Indochina Vietnam equally determined to retake independence after eighty years of colonial servitude T nnesson also demonstrates however that some leaders on each side really wanted a peaceful mutually beneficial outcome Descent into full scale war was not inevitable This is a carefully researched clearly written analysis of a vital moment in the 20th century history of both countries It is also a meditation on the elusive boundary between free will and determinism in human affairs David Marr author of Vietnamese Tradition on Trial 1920-1945 Stein T nnesson's Vietnam 1946 answers the fundamental question about the first of Vietnam's 20th century wars the one fought against the French how did it happen He has written a meticulously researched account which restores their contingency to the events The first Indochina war like those that succeeded it was not inevitable and T nnesson explains why and how it happened anyway Marilyn Young author of The Vietnam Wars 1945-1990 Le Việt Nam socialiste Châu Lê, 1966-01-01T00:00:00+01:00 Cet ouvrage est une r dition num rique d un livre paru au XXe si cle d sormais indisponible dans son format d origine Vietnam David G. Marr, 2013-04-15 Marr's previous book Vietnam 1945 ends on 2 September when big crowds gathered in Hanoi and Saigon to celebrate Vietnamese independence This book focuses on the next sixteen months when Vietnam's future course was determined It recreates in vivid detail what it was like to be there in these dramatic postcolonial moments as the Japanese British and Americans faded from view the DRV began to function and establish an army the French maneuvered to restore colonialism but the beginnings of the Cold War swept Vietnam into its orbit with the Chinese Red Army victories and Chinese arms on the border As with his other books Marr pioneers the history of war from the Vietnamese perspective Provided by publisher The Vietnam Nationalist Party (1927-1954) Van Khanh Nguyen, 2015-11-26 This book presents research focusing on the Vietnam Nationalist Party Vi t Nam Qu c d n ng from 1927 to 1954 It elaborates on the party's establishment political ideology and organizational structure the Yen Bai Uprising the party's downfall and its role in the Vietnamese Revolution Findings are presented systematically and comprehensively relying on official and unofficial as well as domestic and foreign sources including texts from localities and hometowns of vital figures in the organization The author compares contrasts and evaluates this complex collection of documents based on the theoretical perspectives of conflict theory social system theory social structuralism and functionalism dialectic materialism and Marxist theory It is essential reading for Vietnamese and international researchers interested in Vietnam's political context in the early twentieth century and for undergraduate and postgraduate programs in Vietnam's history and politics Imperial Contagions Robert Peckham, David M. Pomfret, 2013-01-01 Imperial Contagions argues that there was no straightforward shift from older enclavist models of colonial medicine to a newer emphasis on prevention and treatment of disease among indigenous populations as well as European residents It shows that colonial medicine was not at all homogeneous on the ground but was riven with tensions and contradictions Indigenous elites contested and appropriated Western medical knowledge and practices for their own purposes Colonial policies contained contradictory and cross cutting impulses This book challenges assumptions that colonial regimes were uniformly able to regulate indigenous bodies and that colonial medicine served as a tool of empire

Hanoi's Road to the Vietnam War, 1954-1965 Pierre Asselin, 2015-08-18 Using new and largely inaccessible Vietnamese sources as well as French British Canadian and American archives Pierre Asselin sheds valuable light on Hanoi s path to war Step by step the narrative makes Hanoi s revolutionary strategy from the end of the French Indochina War to the start of the Anti American Resistance Struggle for Reunification and National Salvation the Vietnam War transparent The book reveals how North Vietnamese leaders moved from a cautious policy emphasizing nonviolent political and diplomatic struggle to a far riskier pursuit of military victory

Decolonizing Our Names in the 21st Century Lauren Beck, Grace A. Gomashie, 2025-09-10 This book combines different decolonial approaches from around the world to offer a roadmap for updating names and naming practices restoring and protecting precolonial ones and reimagining or recontextualizing the relationship between place identity and names In a postcolonial context naming often serves as a bitter reminder of past harms through commemorative naming practices whether through a system of baptismal names or a former colony s approach to dealing with the names that the colonizer left behind This volume assembles authors who hail from formerly colonized regions of the Americas Europe Africa and Asia to engage with this problem of decolonizing names in the twenty first century from a global perspective The book also points to what strategies have had more success than others while envisioning the tools needed for progress in the future Offering a useful framework with approaches that can easily be used across other geographical contexts this volume is suitable for scholars and students interested in decolonization identity and naming practices

Black Market Business Christina Elizabeth Firpo, 2020-12-15 Black Market Business is a grassroots social history of the clandestine market for sex in colonial Tonkin Lively and well told it explores the ways in which sex workers managers and clients evaded the colonial regulation system in the turbulent economy of the interwar years Christina Elizabeth Firpo argues that the confluence of economic demographic and cultural changes sweeping late colonial Tonkin created spaces of tension in which the interwar black market sex industry thrived The clandestine sex industry flourished in sites of legal inconsistency cultural changes economic disparity rural urban division and demographic shifts As a nexus of the many tensions besetting late colonial Tonkin the black market sex industry serves as a useful lens through which to examine these tensions and the ways they affected marginalized populations More specifically an investigation of this black market shows how a particular population of impoverished women a group regrettably understudied by historians experienced the tensions Drawing on an astonishingly diverse and multilingual source base Black Market Business includes detailed cases of juvenile prostitution human trafficking and debt bondage arrangements in sex work as well as cases in Tonkin s bars hotels singing houses and dance clubs Using GIS technology and big data sets to track individual actors in history it serves as a model for teaching new methodological approaches to conducting social histories of women and marginalized people

Communist Indochina R. B. Smith, 2013-04-24 Written by the late Ralph Smith a highly respected historian of Asia this book examines the history of communist Indochina from the foundation of the Indochinese Communist Party in 1929 30 to the end of the 1970s
