Textual Promiscuities Antoinette Marie Sol, 2002 Drawing on correspondence novels literary criticism and other documents by Riccoboni Laclos and Burney Antoinette Sol demonstrates how these novelists traditionally separated by nationality gender and genre are in fact concerned with similar issues of individual authority and social criticism She shows how arbitrary literary categorization of these writers as sentimental or libertine has kept their work from a reading which reveals their commonalities BOOK JACKET Histoire D'Ernestine Marie Jeanne de Heurles Laboras de Mezières

Riccoboni, Marie Riccoboni, 1998 Set in prerevolutionary France Histoire d'Ernestine tells of the love between an innocent young woman and an aristocrat Ernestine German born and orphaned is an apprentice painter putting the finishing touches on a portrait when the marquis de Cl mengis elegant and handsome enters the studio Recognizing him as the subject of the portrait she gestures for him to be seated and goes on working looking back and forth between him and his likeness The world weary aristocrat is smitten In graceful understated prose Marie Riccoboni shows how her heroine learns to negotiate questions of honor and appearances and to find a precarious balance between economic security and the potentially compromising nature of male generosity The story raises questions about sexual enlightenment and social prejudice and reexamines the links of money reputation and marriageability that preoccupied eighteenth century writers Histoire
