Histoire Des Religions :

Alfred Loisy and the Making of History of Religions Annelies Lannoy, 2020-08-10 This monograph studies the professionalization of History of religions as an academic discipline in late 19th and early 20th century France and Europe Its common thread is the work of the French Modernist priest and later Professor of History of religions at the Collège de France Alfred Loisy 1857-1940 who participated in many of the most topical debates among French and international historians of religions Unlike his well studied Modernist theology Loisy's writings on comparative religion and his rich interactions with famous scholars like F Cumont M Mauss or J G Frazer remain largely unknown This monograph is the first to paint a comprehensive picture of his career as a historian of religions before and after his excommunication in 1908 Through a contextual analysis of publications by Loisy and contemporaries and a large corpus of private correspondence it illuminates the scientification of the discipline between 1890-1920 and its deep entanglement with religion politics and society Particular attention is also given to the role of national and transnational scholarly networks and the way they controlled the theoretical and institutional frameworks for studying the history of religions À propos d'histoire des religions Alfred Loisy, 1911

Relating Religion Jonathan Z. Smith, 2004-11-10 One of the most influential theorists of religion Jonathan Z Smith is best known for his analyses of religious studies as a discipline and for his advocacy and refinement of comparison as the basis for the history of religions Relating Religion gathers seventeen essays four of them never before published that together provide the first broad overview of Smith's thinking since his seminal 1982 book Imagining Religion Smith first explains how he was drawn to the study of religion outlines his own theoretical commitments and draws the connections between his thinking and his concerns for general education He then engages several figures and traditions that serve to define his interests within the larger setting of the discipline The essays that follow consider the role of taxonomy and classification in the study of religion the construction of difference and the procedures of generalization and redescription that Smith takes to be key to the comparative enterprise The final essays deploy features of Smith's most recent work especially the notion of translation Headly original and provocative Relating Religion is certain to be hailed as a landmark in the academic study and critical theory of religion Religion in the Making Arie L. Molendijk, Peter Pels, 1998 This volume deals with the emergence of a scientific discourse on religion in the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries in Europe and North America This process is examined in a broad academic context among different disciplines in terms of socio-historical developments NVMEN, the Academic Study of Religion, and the IAHR Tim Jensen, Armin Geertz, 2015-11-24 Nvmnen publishes papers representing the most recent scholarship in all areas of the history of religions ranging from antiquity to contemporary history It covers a diversity of geographical regions and religions of the past as well as of the present The approach of the journal to the study of religion is strictly non-confessional While the emphasis lies on empirical source-based research typical contributions also address issues that have a wider historical or comparative significance for the advancement of the discipline Numen also

Contemporary celebrations of interdisciplinary scholarship in the humanities and social sciences often harbor a distrust of traditional disciplines which are seen as at best narrow and unimaginative and at worst complicit in larger forms of power and policing Disciplinarity at the Fin de Siècle questions these assumptions by examining for the first time in so sustained a manner the rise of a select number of academic disciplines in a historical perspective This collection of twelve essays focuses on the late Victorian era in Great Britain but also on Germany France and America in the same formative period The contributors James Buzard Lauren M E Goodlad Liah Greenfeld John Guillory Simon Joyce Henrika Kuklick Christopher Lane Jeff Nunokawa Arkady Plotnitsky Ivan Strenski Athena Vrettos and Gauri Viswanathan examine the genealogy of various fields including English sociology economics psychology and quantum physics Together with the editors cogent introduction they challenge the story of disciplinary formation as solely one of consolidation constraint and ideological justification Addressing a broad range of issues disciplinary formations disciplinarity and professionalism disciplines of the self discipline and the state and current disciplinary debates the book aims to dislodge what the editors call the comfortable pessimism that too readily assimilates disciplines to techniques of management or control It advances considerably the effort to more fully comprehend the complex legacy of the human sciences
