Originally published posthumously in French People State and War under the French Regime in Canada is the culmination of a lifetime of research and unparalleled knowledge of the archival record including official correspondence memoirs military campaign journals taxation records and local parish records Dech ne reconstructs the variegated composition and conditions of military forces in New France which included militia colonial volunteers and regular troops as well as Indigenous allies The study offers an informed and ambitious comparison between France and other French colonies and shows that the mobilization of an unpaid compulsory militia in New France greatly exceeded requirements in other parts of the French domain With empathy sensitivity to the social dimensions of life and a piercing insight into the operations of power Dech ne portrays the colonial condition with its rightful dose of danger and ambiguity Her work underlines the severe toll that warfare takes on the individual and on society and the persistent deprivation disorder fear and death that come with conflict
