Monomania Marina Van Zuylen, 2018-05-31 This book is about the obsessive strategies people use to keep the arbitrary out of their lives it is about the fanaticism and intolerance linked to their ideas of perfection and permanence Those readers who have brushed against the dangers of the id e fixe who have come close to surrendering to something or someone diabolically seductive or coercive will recognize in these characters their own encounter with a dangerously systematized world From the introduction Monomania explores the cultural prominence of the id e fixe in Western Europe during the nineteenth and twentieth centuries Marina van Zuylen revives the term monomania to explore the therapeutic attributes of obsession She introduces us to artists and collectors voyeurs and scholars hypochondriacs and melancholics whose lives are run by debilitating compulsions that may become powerful weapons against the tyranny of everyday life In van Zuylen s view there is a productive tension between disabling fixations and their curative powers she argues that the id e fixe has acted as a corrective for the multiple disorders of modernity The authors she studies Charles Baudelaire Sophie Calle Elias Canetti George Eliot Gustave Flaubert and Thomas Mann among them embody or set in motion different manifestations of this monomaniacal imperative Their protagonists or alter egos live more intensely more meaningfully because of the compulsive pressures they set up for themselves Monomania shows that transforming life into art or at least into the artful drives out the anxiety of the void and puts in its place something so orderly and meaningful that it can take on the aura of a religion

Print Culture in Eighteenth-Century Britain Temma Berg, Sonia Kane, 2013-10-03 This edited collection a tribute to the late noted eighteenth century scholar Betty Rizzo testifies to her influence as a researcher writer teacher and mentor The essays written by a range of established and younger eighteenth century specialists expand on the themes important to Rizzo the importance of the archive the contributions of women writers to the canon of eighteenth century literature and to an emerging print culture the sometimes fraught relations within the eighteenth century family the relationship between life and literature and finally the role of female companionship in women's lives Divided into three sections Living in the Eighteenth Century Novel Living in the Eighteenth Century World and Afterlives the fourteen essays that form the body of the collection treat such topics as epistolarity fraternal relations in novels and in families women and travel in Jane Austen's novels the pleasures and challenges of searching through archives to understand the complex entanglements of eighteenth century families the changing reception of Alexander Pope's poetry and intersections among race class gender and sexuality in a famous early nineteenth century Scottish libel case The final essay of the fourteen connects the archetypal eighteenth century figure of the seduced and abandoned woman to Sophie Calle's 2007 Venice Biennale exhibition entitled Take Care of Yourself which the author reads as a direct descendant of the eighteenth century letter novel The book is framed by an introduction that situates the book as part of the ongoing redefinition of the archive of eighteenth century literature and an afterword that gives a personal account of Rizzo's career and her indelible legacy as friend mentor and professional model The contributors use a variety of methods in their scholarship but a common strand is archival research and close reading inflected by feminist analysis The book will appeal to students and scholars of eighteenth century British literature and culture and to those interested in women's writing and women's relationships in the eighteenth century and today and in feminist literary history The contributors to the volume practice the kind of scholarship Rizzo was known for painstaking archival research and attention to the nuances of relationships among eighteenth century women and men and in so doing shed new light on a number of familiar and not so familiar eighteenth century texts Cajun and Creole Folktales Barry Jean Ancelet, 2015-06-19 This teeming compendium of tales assembles and classifies the abundant lore and storytelling prevalent in the French culture of southern Louisiana This is the largest most diverse and best annotated collection of French language tales ever published in the United States Side by side are dual language retellings the Cajun French and its English translation along with insightful commentaries This volume reveals the long and lively heritage of the Louisiana folktale among French Creoles and Cajuns and shows how tale telling in Louisiana through the years has remained vigorous and constantly changing Some of the best storytellers of the present day are highlighted in biographical sketches and are identified by some of their best tales Their repertory includes animal stories magic stories jokes tall tales Pascal improvised stories and legendary tales all of them colorful examples of Louisiana narrative at its best Though greatly transformed since the French arrived on southern soil the French oral tradition is alive and flourishing today It is even more complex and varied than has been shown in previous studies for revealed here are African influences as well as others that have been filtered from America's multicultural mainstream An Ultimate Therapy to Save Their Children Isaac Mampuya Samba, 2016-06-25 And so their heels Julio Fernandez and even think to take it would actually now proves to be a real disaster A True Love Sorrow This grief rush Maryvonne KEVILER in a real nervous breakdown depression which would slowly and very surely trashing the only child Parents of the later with a significant portion of their wealth would do little reluctant to use such blunt unorthodox methods contrary to Law and morality methods briefly Machiavellian methods to bring JULIO into the arms of their only daughter to save her life and at the same time to ensure consequently the legacy of their wealth in peace after death Why MARYVONNE's parents were adamant that guarantee This is simply because in their minds If she that is to say their only daughter MARYVONNE had e.g. coincidentally to die of a nervous breakdown in this case her son LUCILIAN too could possibly fall into any nervous breakdown thinking naturally to his mother and he could well eventually pass away also In this case their efforts would be for example one way or another simply wasted after death That was why they that is to say the wealthy parents of Miss Maryvonne KEVILER held to guarantee absolutely the succession in peace Therefore according to their own way of doing things Use methods even if the methods in question are just Machiavellian to save their single offspring while evil or very evil someone else the way would really be there the ultimate confidential therapy for this indirect emotional suffering for this indirect afflictive suffering if you could call it like this Suffering which would affect now at Real Maryvonne KEVILER's parents The Comedy of Entropy Patrick O'Neill, 1990-12-15 Entropic comedy is the phrase coined by Patrick O'Neill in this study to identify a particular mode of twentieth century narrative that is not generally recognized He describes it as the narrative expression of forms of decentred humour or what might more loosely be called black humour O'Neill begins his investigation by examining the rise of an essentially new form of humour over the last three hundred years or so in the context of a rapid decay of confidence in traditional authoritative value systems O'Neill analyses the resulting reorganization of the spectrum of humour and examines the implications of this for the ways in which we read texts and the world we live in He then turns from intellectual history to narratology and considers the relationship in theoretical terms of humour play and narrative as systems of discourse and the role of the reader as a textualizing agent Finally he considers some dozen twentieth century narratives in French German and English with occasional reference to other literatures in the context of those historical and theoretical concerns Authors of the texts analysed include Camus Sartre and Robbe-Grillet in French Heller Beckett Pynchon Nabokov and Joyce in English Grass Kafka and Handke in German The analyses proceed along lines suggested by structuralist semiotic and post-structuralist narrative and literary theory From his analyses of these works O'Neill concludes they illustrate in narrative terms a mode of modern writing definable as entropic comedy and he develops a taxonomy of the mode
