Hilaire Bellocs Prefaces Written For Fellow Authors:

Hilaire Belloc's Prefaces Hilaire Belloc, 1971 G.K. Chesterton, London and Modernity Matthew Beaumont, Matthew Ingleby, 2013-12-05 G K Chesterton London and Modernity is the first book to explore the persistent theme of the city in Chesterton's writing. Situating him in relation to both Victorian and Modernist literary paradigms, the book explores a range of theoretical and methodological approaches to address the way his imaginative investments and political interventions conceive urban modernity and the central figure of London. While Chesterton's work has often been valued for its wit and whimsy, this book argues that he is also a distinctive urban commentator whose sophistication has been underappreciated in comparison to more canonical contemporaries. With chapters written by leading scholars in the field of 20th century literature, the book also provides fresh readings and suggests new contexts for central texts such as The Man Who Was Thursday, The Napoleon of Notting Hill and the Father Brown stories. It also discusses lesser known works such as Manalive and The Club of Queer Trades, drawing out their significance for scholars interested in urban representation and practice in the first three decades of the 20th century. Hilaire Belloc Michael H. Markel, 1982 Studie over leven en werk van de Engelse auteur van Franse origine 1870-1953 The Reader's Companion to Twentieth-century Writers Peter Parker, Frank Kermode, 1995 Rational Emotive Behaviour Therapy in a Nutshell provides a concise overview of a popular therapeutic approach starting with the ABCDE Model of Emotional Disturbance and Change. Written by leading REBT specialists Michael Neenan and Windy Dryden, the book goes on to explain the core of the therapeutic process: Assessment, Disputing, Homework, Working through, Promoting self change. As an introduction to the basics of the approach, this updated and revised edition of Rational Emotive Behaviour Therapy in a Nutshell is the ideal first text and a springboard to further study.
