Hildegard Of Bingen Healing And The Nature Of The Cosmos:

Hildegard of Bingen Heinrich Schipperges, 1997 The contemporaries of Hildegard of Bingen called her prophetissa teutonica honouring her philosophical writings and interpretation of the cosmos Mediaevalists still consider her one of the leading mystics and point to her active spiritual and artistic life in the 12th century as the finest example of what a woman can achieve The abbess Hildegard of Bingen was the first composer to sign her musical works As a playwright and author she witnessed and shaped the time of the Crusades the literary minnesang and political and theological debate The author of this text draws a complex picture of her life and work as he translates Hildegard s ideas and her mysterious world of symbols from mediaeval Latin into contemporary concepts Heinrich Schipperges delineates this remarkable thinker s view of the human being as a microcosm of the universe intricately bound by the senses to the life of the soul nature and God The Cambridge Companion to Hildegard of Bingen Jennifer Bain, 2021-11-04 This specially commissioned collection of thirteen essays explores the life and works of Hildegard of Bingen 1098-1179 monastic founder leader of a community of nuns composer active correspondent and writer of religious visions theological treatises sermons and scientific and medical texts Aimed at advanced university students and new Hildegard researchers the essays provide a broad context for Hildegard s life and monastic setting and offer comprehensive discussions on each of the main areas of her output Engagingly written by experts in medieval history theology German literature musicology and the history of medicine the essays are grounded in Hildegard s twelfth century context and investigate her output within its monastic and liturgical environments her reputation during and after her life and the materiality of the transmission of her works considering aspects of manuscript layout illumination and scribal practices at her Rupertsberg monastery Hildegard of Bingen, Gospel Interpreter Beverly Mayne Kienzle, 2020-11-24 In Hildegard of Bingen Gospel Interpreter Beverly Mayne Kienzle presents and acquaints readers with Hildegard s fifty eight Homilies on the Gospels a dazzling summa of her theology and the culmination of her visionary insight and scriptural knowledge Part one probes how a twelfth century woman became the only known female Gospel interpreter of the Middle Ages It includes an examination of Hildegard s epistemology how she received her basic theological education and how she extended her knowledge through divine revelations and intellectual exchange with her monastic network Part two expounds on several of Hildegard s homilies elucidating the theological brilliance that emanates from the creative exegesis she shapes to develop profound interweaving themes Hildegard eschewed the linear repetitive explanations of her predecessors and created an organically coherent body of thought rich with interconnected spiritual symbols Part three deals with the wide ranging reception of Hildegard s works and her inspiring legacy extending from theology to medicine Her prophetic voice resounds in the morally urgent areas of creation theology and the corruption of church and political leadership Hildegard decries human disregard for the earth and its lust for power Instead she advocates the unifying capacity of nature viridity that fosters the interconnectedness of all creation Mind, Soul and the Cosmos in the High

Middle Ages Jack P. Cunningham, Adam Foxon, Rosamund M. Gammie, 2025-01-24 This is a unique volume in which a critical introduction and multiple chapters offer a wide ranging discussion of medieval conceptions of the nature of humankind its relationship with the universe and the processes of thinking by which both are conceptualized Concentrating on the centuries spanning the High Middle Ages chapters include in depth analyses of such ideas as the habit as the ultimate dwelling place of the soul the Soul of the Universe and its relation to humanity and the Agent Intellect s part in the functions of the mind regarding abstraction and intuition This book explores how metaphysical Intelligences interact with our movements how the desires of our minds affect the acquisition of knowledge as well as asking how and why analysis of the makeup of animal souls took place The High Middle Ages was a crucially important epoch in the history of intellectual endeavor This volume appeals to students and researchers it discusses and evaluates the contributions on the subjects of mind soul and the cosmos of some of the finest Christian Jewish and Moslem intellects in the twelfth and thirteenth centuries Theologians philosophers and cosmologists include Aquinas Grosseteste Avicenna Gersonides Buridan the School of Chartres as well as many others The overarching theme of this collection of essays is that vitally new conceptions of what it meant to be a rational Human the purpose of thought in relation to the journey of the soul and the metaphysical character of our universe contributed enormously to the paradigm shifting nature of this age

The Great Conversation Belden C. Lane, 2019-05-01 We are surrounded by a world that talks but we don t listen We are part of a community engaged in a vast conversation but we deny our role in it In the face of climate change species loss and vast environmental destruction the ability to stand in the flow of the great conversation of all creatures and the earth can feel utterly lost to the human race But Belden C Lane suggests that it can and must be recovered not only for the sake of endangered species and the well being of at risk communities but for the survival of the world itself The Great Conversation is Lane s multi faceted treatise on a spiritually centered environmentalism At the core is a belief in the power of the natural world to act as teacher In a series of personal anecdotes Lane pairs his own experiences in the wild with the writings of saints and sages from a wide range of religious traditions A night in a Missourian cave brings to mind the Spiritual Exercises of Ignatius of Loyola the canyons of southern Utah elicit a response from the Chinese philosopher Laozi 500 000 migrating sandhill cranes rest in Nebraska and evoke the Sufi poet Farid ud Din Attar With each chapter the humility of spiritual masters through the ages melds with the author s encounters with natural teachers to offer guidance for entering once more into a conversation with the world

The Inner Life of the Earth Paul V. O'Leary, Christopher Bamford, Robert A. Powell, Marko Pogačnik, Rachel C. Ross, 2008-08 We need changes in our attitudes our understanding of illness our acceptance of non allopathic practitioners the economics of how we pay for health care and our entire professional medical legal system in which medical boards often act within the law to protect and defend the guild of conventional medicine under the guise of scientific proof I present a template that combines economics psychology medicine physiology and mythology It can serve as support and guidance for making the changes necessary for a new model of medicine in the twenty first century Dr Robert J Zieve Dr Zieve presents a new paradigm for health care that shows us how to go beyond the limitations and severe deficiencies of our current sickness care system It embraces and synthesizes the emerging models of integrative medicine energy medicine and energy psychology into an effective and affordable approach to healing for everyone This guide is for both those wish to provide a more complete form of health care for their patients and also for those individuals who are prepared to make the necessary changes in daily life in order to initiate or maintain a movement toward healing This includes understanding the daily disciplines of a healing process the deeper psychological processes of illness and the creative arts in their therapeutic roles Bodily and Spiritual Hygiene in Medieval and Early Modern Literature Albrecht Classen,2017-03-20 While most people today take hygiene and medicine for granted they both have had their own history We can gain deep insights into the pre modern world by studying its health care system its approaches to medicine and concept of hygiene Already the early Middle Ages witnessed great interest in bathing hot and cold swimming and good personal hygiene Medical activities grew over time but even early medieval monks were already great experts in treating the sick The contributions examine literary medical historical texts and images and probe the information we can glean from them The interdisciplinary approach of this volume makes it possible to view this large field in a complex and diversified manner taking into account both early medieval and early modern treatises on medicine water bathing and health Such a cultural historical perspective creates a most valuable bridge connecting literary and scientific documents under the umbrella of the history of mentality and history of everyday life The volume does not aim at idealizing the past but it definitely intends to deconstruct modern myths about the dirty and unhealthy Middle Ages and early modern age Hildegard of Bingen Dr. Sheryl A. Kujawa-Holbrook,2016-03-01 Enter the vibrant world of this medieval mystic and open yourself to the music of creation and the living light of God This unique introduction to one of the most accomplished women in Christian history presents a wide range of Hildegard s rich and varied writings grouped by theme with insightful annotations and historical background Different Visions of Love Brian Griffith,2008 Griffiths narrative moves like a searchlight over each phase of church history illuminating the visions options and choices behind events He traces the rise of a dominator version of Christianity in which the primary concern was a chain of command to be followed with rewards or punishments according to the degree of obedience And beside this he illuminates another face of Christianity concerned with healing all divisions between loved and unloved people The story Griffith presents is often deeply disturbing as in his unstinting accounts concerning the gospel for women or the age of holy wars and witch hunts But ultimately his story offers solid grounds for optimism He shows that all contention between different religious visions can be a process of building partnership As Griffith points out Jesus himself wished to debate his opponents openly not to silence or eliminate them He was not afraid of real encounter or the potential of creative conflict I want to congratulate Brian Griffith on this masterful controversial and highly readable account His book offers hope in a divided world where reaction against globalized godless corporate secularism meets with a war on religious fundamentalism I hope to see other writers do comparable work in highlighting the partnership and dominator visions within their religious traditions around the world

Riane Eisler author of The Chalice the Blade Sacred Pleasure Tomorrows Children The Power of Partnership The Real Wealth of Nations I find it gives me an incredibly clarifying perspective on Christianity way beyond my previous understanding It should be read by everyone with an interest in Western Civilization It is a marvelous companion to The Great Turning David Korten author of The Great Turning From Empire to Earth Community The Medieval Natural World Richard Jones, 2013-11-14 How did medieval people make sense of their surroundings and how did this change over the years as understanding and knowledge expanded This new Seminar Study is designed to familiarise students of medieval history with the ways in which medieval people interpreted the world around them how they rationalised their observations and why they developed the models for understanding that they did Most importantly it shows how ideas changed over the medieval period and why With extensive primary source material this book builds up a picture using medieval encyclopedias prose literature and poetry records of estate management agricultural treatises scientific works annals and chronicles as well as the evidence from art architecture archaeology and the landscape itself An excellent introduction for undergraduate students of Medieval history or for anyone with an interest in the medieval natural world Knighthoods of Christ Norman Housley, 2017-05-15 During the Central Middle Ages Catholics had the opportunity to take part in Holy War in the Latin East in two different but related ways by taking the Cross and by entering the Order of the Temple Both crusaders and Knights Templar were dubbed by contemporary panegyrists milites Christi knights engaged in combat for the cause of Christ On numerous battlefields in the Middle East crusaders and Templars fought side by side By the late thirteenth century both modes of Holy War faced critical situations Crusading failed to save the mainland states of Palestine and Syria from Muslim conquest in 1291 while the Knights Templar entered a period of internal demoralisation and external attack that culminated in the suppression of their Order in 1312 This collection of essays by distinguished historians of the Crusades and the Order of the Temple covers the whole span of their historical evolution and offers numerous insights into the ideologies practicalities and ramifications of Christian Holy War in the Middle Ages Shopping Malls and Other Sacred Spaces Jon Pahl, 2008-12-29 Christian historian Sidney Mead has observed In America space has played the part that time has played in older cultures of the world In Shopping Malls and Other Sacred Spaces Jon Pahl examines this provocative statement in conversation with what he calls the spatial character of American theology He argues that places are always imaginatively constructed by the human beings who inhabit them Sometimes this spatial theology works to our benefit other times it poses spiritual risks What happens when our banal clothing of the sacred violates our genuine need for comfort and intimacy Or when we remember that the fleeting pleasures of a shopping trip or a Disneyland escape are designed to fill someone else's pocket rather than the spiritual emptiness in our own hearts Pahl develops several ways to clothe the divine from within the Christian tradition He introduces a theology of place that reveals aspects of God's character through biblical metaphors drawn from physical spaces such as the true vine the rock and the living water Accessible and thought provoking this enlightening book provides a better grasp of our particularly American way of lending religious significance to spaces of all kinds T&T Clark Handbook of Christian Theology and the Modern Sciences John P. Slattery, 2020-10-01 This handbook surveys the many relationships between scientific studies of the world around us and Christian concepts of the Divine from the ancient Greeks to modern ecotheology From Augustine to Hildegard of Bingen Genesis to Frederick Douglass and physics to sociology this volume opens the intersections of Christian theology and science to new concepts voices and futures The central goal of the handbook is to bring new perspectives to the foreground of Christian theological engagement with science and to highlight the many engagements today that are not often identified as science theology discussions The handbook thus includes several aspects not found in previous handbooks on the same topic significant representation from the three major branches of Christianity Orthodox Roman Catholic and Protestant multiple essays on areas of modern science not traditionally part of the theology and science dialogue such as discussions of race medicine and sociology a collection of essays on historical theologians approaches to nature and science T Catholic Protestant and Orthodox surveys of theology science scholarship in the 20th and 21st centuries and ten explorations in Christian theology today from Einsteinian physics to decolonial sociology The 24 chapters than span the volume offer the reader whether scholar student or layperson an essential resource for any future conversations around science and Christian theology Dante, Eschatology, and the Christian Tradition Lydia Yaitsky Kertz, Richard K. Emmerson, 2024-01-29 Dante Eschatology and the Christian Tradition honors Ronald B Herzman SUNY Geneseo Distinguished Teaching Professor of English Over more than fifty years Professor Herzman has been a major force in the promotion of medieval studies within academe and public humanities This volume of essays by his colleagues students and friends celebrates Professor Herzman's outstanding career and reflects the wide range of his scholarly and pedagogical influence from biblical and early Christian topics to Dante Langland and Shakespeare Rage in the Belly Luzia Sutter Rehmann, 2021-02-03 How is rage related to hunger Hunger is a liminal experience connected to powerlessness shame and violence Hunger does not issue into speech It cannot therefore be easily found in the biblical texts written by and about people who knew hunger It hides behind the words in these texts Rage conversely finds expression and in the texts it can alert readers to hidden experiences of hunger But rage is not just a response to the lack of food It is also a transformative force reaching towards a justice that is not yet real The experience of hunger and the fear of famine often go hand in hand with anger a rage that can bring whole populations to their feet Luzia Sutter Rehmann develops a biblical hermeneutic that centers on the fire in the belly of the hungry their rage that leads to protests and uprisings Her reading shows the poor or the many as those with whom Jesus cooperates and as subjects acting on their own initiative The book also highlights key socio historical information on the food situation of ancient Rome and Palestine on poverty political dependence and unrest droughts and famines Women in Western Intellectual Culture, 600–1500 P. Ranft,2003-01-03 Western intellectual tradition has long been viewed as an exclusive male bastion but Women in Western Intellectual Culture 600 1500 proves that this thesis is no longer tenable By identifying and analyzing the intellectual writings and activities of women throughout the centuries this study the first of two volumes documents a level of participation in intellectual matters that will surprise many readers The quality and quantity of these contributions show that women s voices deserve more attention in intellectual history Medieval Theology of Work P. Ranft,2016-04-30 This study addresses the need to learn what medieval thinkers had to say about the concept of work by examining the thought of Peter Damian and numerous other religious leaders and groups of the High Middle Ages for evidence of their contributions deepening our understanding of this concept Re-enchanting the Text Cheryl Bridges Johns,2023-05-16 In an age when the Bible has been stripped of its sacredness and functional biblical illiteracy reigns this book makes the case that we must work to re enchant the text in order to return the Bible to its rightful place in the lives of Christians Cheryl Bridges Johns explains how the Enlightenment s turn to the rational human subject made it possible to objectify the Bible and has distorted our interpretations of Scripture This move generated a belief that studying the Bible was primarily a means of supporting facts and providing evidence of competing visions of reality This modern version of the Bible does not trouble our nights with apocalyptic images It has been stripped of its power She also shows that both liberal and fundamentalist interpretation are failed forms of disenchanted readings Johns argues that we must rediscover the Bible as a sacred dangerous mysterious and presence filled wonderland to counteract biblical illiteracy in an increasingly post Christian landscape Attunement Clifford Chalmers Cain,2019-12-20 We live in a century in which we must either change our way of regarding and acting toward nature or else imperil our survival as a species and jeopardize as well the fate of the planet itself This book by a theologian and environmental scientist examines four religious figures from European and Asian contexts who could aid us in developing a more sustainable and caring orientation which would allow us to live more in tune with creation twelfth century German nun Hildegard of Bingen thirteenth century Italian monk and patron saint of ecology Francis of Assisi nineteenth century Japanese Zen monk and poet Taigu Ry kan and the first pontiff from Latin America twenty first century Pope Francis By emphasizing our intimate and unavoidable organic connection with the network of all life and our charge to care for and protect it they point us in the direction of a new paradigm a healthier perspective a metanoia a change of heart mind attitude and action that would partner what we know about nature an environmental consciousness with what we do an ecological conscience Our children our grandchildren and our great grandchildren deserve at least this much Voice of the Living Light Barbara Newman,2023-09-01 Hildegard of Bingen 1098 1179 would have been an extraordinary person in any age But for a woman of the twelfth century her achievements were so exceptional that posterity has found it hard to take her measure Barbara Newman a premier Hildegard authority brings major scholars together to present an accurate portrait of the Benedictine nun and her many contributions to twelfth century religious cultural and intellectual life Written by specialists in fields ranging from medieval theology to medicine to music these essays offer an understanding of how one woman could transform so many of the traditions of the world in which she lived Hildegard of Bingen was the only woman of her age accepted as an authoritative voice on Christian doctrine as well as the first woman permitted by the pope to write theological books She was the author of the first known morality play an artist of unusual talents the most prolific chant composer of her era and the first woman to write extensively on natural science and medicine including sexuality as seen from a female perspective She was the only woman of her time to preach openly to mixed audiences of clergy and laity and the first saint whose biography includes a first person memoir Adding to the significance of this volume is the fact that Hildegard s oeuvre reflects the entire sweep of twelfth century culture and society Scholars and lay readers alike will find this collection a rich introduction to a remarkable figure and to her tumultuous world With the commemoration of the 900th anniversary of Hildegard s birth in September 1998 the publication of Voice of the Living Light is especially welcome Hildegard of Bingen 1098 1179 would have been an extraordinary person in any age But for a woman of the twelfth century her achievements were so exceptional that posterity has found it hard to take her measure Barbara Newman a premier Hildegard autho
