Wes Craven John Kenneth Muir, 1998-01-01 Filmmaker Wes Craven has consistently and imaginatively scared movie audiences since the early 1970s His films encompass a variety of styles elements and themes from the nihilistic existentialism of The Last House on the Left to the successful A Nightmare on Elm Street which sent horror in a bold new direction to the hallucinatory dreamscapes of The Serpent and the Rainbow And in the nineties Craven returned with the Scream films which were simultaneously funny clever and scary films that overturned the horror cliches of the eighties The present work provides a history of Craven's film career since 1972 examining all the themes and techniques the filmmaker explored For each film a synopsis cast and credits historical context and critical commentary are provided Also covered in detail are Craven's forays into television including movies such as Stranger in the House and work on such series as The New Twilight The Gorehound's Guide to Splatter Films of the 1980s Scott Aaron Stine, 2015-09-18 Reviews of The Gorehound's Zone Guide to Splatter Films of the 1960s and 1970s recommended Booklist exhaustive useful ARBA a solid reference work Video Watchdog bursting with information opinion and trivia impeccably researched Film Review interesting and informative Rue Morque detailed credits entertaining Classic Images Author Scott Aaron Stine is back again this time with an exhaustive study of splatter films of the 1980s Following a brief overview of the genre the main part of the book is a filmography Each entry includes extensive technical information cast and production credits release date running time alternate and foreign release titles comments on the availability of the film on videocassette and DVD a plot synopsis commentary from the author 100 American Horror Films Barry Keith and reviews Extensive cross referencing is also included Heavily illustrated Grant, 2022-03-24 A well plotted survey Total Film In 100 American Horror Films Barry Keith Grant presents entries on 100 films from one of American cinema's longest standing most diverse and most popular genres representing its rich history from the silent era D W Griffith's The Avenging Conscience of 1915 to contemporary productions Jordan Peele's 2017 Get Out In his introduction Grant provides an overview of the genre's history a context for the films addressed in the individual entries and discusses the specific relations between American culture and horror All of the entries are informed by the question of what makes the specific film being discussed a horror film the importance of its place within the history of the genre and where relevant the film is also contextualized within specifically American culture and history Each entry also considers the film's most salient textual features provides important insight into its production and offers both established and original critical insight and interpretation The 100 films selected for inclusion represent the broadest historical range and are drawn from every decade of American film making movies from major and minor studios examples of the different types or subgenres of horror such as psychological thriller monster terror gothic horror home invasion torture porn and parody as well as the different types of horror monsters including werewolves vampires zombies mummies mutants ghosts and serial killers The Horror Show Guide Mike Mayo, 2013-04-01 This cinefile s quidebook covers the horror genre

Williams s pioneering work on horror cinema film scholars have long conceptualized this once disreputable category of cultural production as a body genre However despite the growing recognition that horror serves important biological and social functions in our lives scholars have only scratched the surface of this genre with regard to its affective corporeal and sensorial appeals Diffrient anatomizes horror films in much the same way that a mad scientist might handle the body separating and recombining constitutive parts into a new analytical whole Further he challenges the tendency of scholars to privilege human over nonhuman beings and calls into question ableist assumptions about the centrality to horror films of sight and sound to the near exclusion of other forms of sense experience In addition to examining the role that animals living or dead real or fake play in human centered fictions this volume asks what it means for audiences to consume motion pictures in which actors stunt performers and other creative personnel have put their own bodies and lives at risk for our amusement Historically grounded and theoretically expansive Body Genre Anatomy of the Horror Film moves the study of cinematic horror into previously unchartered waters and breathes life into a subject that not coincidentally is intimately connected to breathing as our most cherished dividing line between life and death Tales from the Cult Film Trenches Louis Paul, 2014-11-29 From movie villains to scream queens here are interviews with 36 actors and actresses familiar to fans of sixties and seventies cult cinema Interviewees include the well known David Carradine Christopher Lee the relatively obscure Marrie Lee sex symbols Valerie Leon surfers who became movie stars Don Stroud and action heroes Fred Williamson among many others Each interview is accompanied by a biography and filmography Motion Picture Series and Sequels Bernard A.
