Hills and Valleys Charlotte J Rains,2019-05-20 Life for me has been a series of ups and downs highs and lows carrying me over and through many hills and valleys thus bringing about this collection of inspired poems Hills and Valleys Each poem is inspired by an event place or time in my life where I felt the need to either call upon the Lord for help simply to praise Him for all He has done in my life or put into words some fond childhood memories of home But most of all I hope these poems will share the deep abiding love I feel for my Savior and inspire and encourage each reader in their own personal walk with God

Containing more than three hundred poems including nearly a hundred previously unpublished works this unique collection showcases the intellectual range of Claude McKay 1889 1948 the Jamaican born poet and novelist whose life and work were marked by restless travel and steadfast social protest McKay s first poems were composed in rural Jamaican creole and launched his lifelong commitment to representing everyday black culture from the bottom up Migrating to New York he reinvigorated the English sonnet and helped spark the Harlem Renaissance with poems such as If We Must Die After coming under scrutiny for his communism he traveled throughout Europe and North Africa for twelve years and returned to Harlem in 1934 having denounced Stalin s Soviet Union By then McKay s pristine violent sonnets were giving way to confessional lyrics informed by his newfound Catholicism McKay s verse eludes easy definition yet this complete anthology vividly introduced and carefully annotated by William J Maxwell acquaints readers with the full transnational evolution of a major voice in twentieth century poetry
