Hilltops Of The Hong Kong Moon:

Hilltops of the Hong Kong Moon John Hurrell Crook, 1997      Illuminating Silence Master Sheng-Yen, 2018-07-17 An insider's guide to the principles of Chan or Chinese Zen this book gives unfiltered access to the kind of illuminating experience with a Zen Master that is usually only available to a few fortunate practitioners Having originated in China in the 6th century Chan Buddhism is now growing rapidly in popularity much of which can be attributed to its open accepting attitude and its focus on a choice of meditative practices to best suit each individual With the bulk of the text made up of edited transcripts of the teachings at two major retreats led in Wales in 1989 and 1995 by the then head of the movement Master Sheng Yen this jewel of a book offers a rare glimpse inside both the ancient teachings and the contemporary practice of Chan Words like enlightenment rarely pass the lips of Master Sheng Yen Instead he makes it clear that his retreats are for the development of practice to realize one is not in control of one's own mind to discover how to train one's mind in awareness to calm the mind and to replace ignorance with insight Commentary by Sheng Yen's much respected Western disciple John Crook gives full context to the teachings and provides a fascinating account of the practical aspects of a retreat of this nature including the meditative practices of watching the breath counting the breath and of Silent Illumination that lies at the heart of Chinese Zen In so doing the atmosphere of such a retreat is powerfully evoked especially when Crook recounts the experiences and impacts of his own years of practice      The Psychology of Awakening Gay Watson, Stephen Batchelor, Guy Claxton, 2000-02-01 Gay Watson Stephen Batchelor and Guy Claxton have compiled a wide ranging and penetrating selection of articles on the relevance and application of Buddhist philosophy and practice in the modern Western world Divided into four parts the book explores the philosophical issues in Buddhism and the contemporary mind the scientific perspective of Buddhist concepts of the development of body mind and spirit Buddhism and psychotherapy and practical applications of Buddhism in contemporary life      National Service Richard Vinen, 2014-08-28 SUNDAY TIMES BOOKS OF THE YEAR and FINANCIAL TIMES BOOKS OF THE YEAR 2014 WINNER OF THE TEMPLER MEDAL AND THE WOLFSON HISTORY PRIZE Sunday Times Top 10 Bestseller Richard Vinen's new book is a serious if often very entertaining attempt to get to grips with the reality of National Service an extraordinary institution which now seems as remote as the British Empire itself With great sympathy and curiosity Vinen unpicks the myths of the two gap years which all British men who came of age between 1945 and the early 1960s had to fill with National Service Millions of teenagers were thrown together and under often brutal conditions taught to obey orders and to fight The luck of the draw might result in two years of boredom in some dilapidated British barracks but it could also mean being thrown into a dangerous combat mission in a remote part of the world By any measure National Service had a huge impact on the nature of British society and yet it has been remarkably little written about As the military's needs wound down and Britain ceased to be a great power National Service came to be seen as just an embarrassment and its culture of rank and discipline something which many British people were by the 1960s running away from But without a proper understanding of National Service the story of post war Britain barely makes sense Richard Vinen provides that missing book It will be fascinating to those who endured or even enjoyed their time in uniform but also to anyone wishing to understand the unique nature of post war Britain Spindrift Peter Reason,2016-11-21 This is the story of a sailing odyssey but also of an inward journey into deep truths about who we are and how we belong in the universal scheme A meditation on sailing and life it is a hugely enjoyable and thought provoking book for landlubbers sailors philosophers and naturalists alike Mostly sailing alone Peter Reason invites us to share in the minute by minute challenges of seamanship and navigation on his journey in his yacht Coral from Plymouth across the Celtic Sea and back again Exploring far more than the seaways the author successfully manages to tell the story of a journey with another dimension that of investigating and reflecting on our human place in the ecology of the planet Above all this book shows us that Nature is not just a place to visit but our home Hong Kong House Marie Conyers

McKay,2011-09-22 Many different people lived in the three storey building at 167 169 Boundary Street Built in 1938 when an airport was opened on the beach near the walled city it was first used as a Police Station with housing for British officers upstairs The Japanese used it as a headquarters during their occupation It was leased several groups then finally to a Mission group It was torn down in 1999 and replaced by a 10 storey one when a new airport was opened and the height restriction was canceled Four novellas tell about the people who lived in the apartments their hopes dreams fears and lessons learned
