Himalayan Quest Ed Viesturs On The 8000 Meter Giants:

Himalayan Quest Ed Viesturs, Peter Potterfield, 2003 I am a Climber and an Incidental Photographer writes Ed Viesturs at the start of this stunning expedition to the highest peaks on Earth but as the pages that follow prove again and again his photographs offer a vivid and unique record of a world where few people and fewer cameras ever go There are fourteen summits on the planet higher than 8 000 meters and Ed Viesturs has stood on twelve of them on some more than once What's more he's conquered each one without supplemental oxygen a feat that would have been dismissed as impossible mere decades ago Three times he has mastered two 8 000 meter peaks in less than two weeks Everest and Lhotse in 1994 Gasherbrum I and II in 1995 then in 1999 Manaslu and Dhaulagiri He was on Everest in the fatal season of 1996 where he lost two close friends and assisted in the rescue of some of the shocked survivors and then completed his own mission as lead climber of the IMAX Filming Expedition And yet Ed Viesturs is no daredevil he has turned back within a few hundred feet of summits that he feels harbor unsafe conditions

Isserman, Stewart Angus Weaver, Dee Molenaar, 2010-01-01 In the first comprehensive history of Himalayan mountaineering in 50 years the authors offer detailed original accounts of the most significant climbs since the 1890s and they compellingly evoke the social and cultural worlds that gave rise to those expeditions A Hiker's Guide to Scrambling Safely Tom Morin, 2005 Unroped scrambling over so called easy terrain is one of the most potentially dangerous recreational activities Every year scramblers are injured or killed in preventable accidents A Hiker's Guide to Scrambling Safely educates new scramblers in the inherent risks required climbing skills and mountain knowledge required for safety in the mountains

No Shortcuts to the Top Ed Viesturs, David Roberts, 2006-10-17 NATIONAL BESTSELLER This gripping and triumphant memoir from the author of The Mountain follows a living legend of extreme mountaineering as he makes his assault on history one 8 000 meter summit at a time From the drama of the peaks to the struggle of making a living as a professional climber to the basic how to's of life at 26 000 feet No Shortcuts to the Top is fascinating reading Aron Ralston author of Between a Rock and a Hard Place and subject of the film 127 Hours For eighteen years Ed Viesturs pursued climbing's holy grail to stand atop the world's fourteen 8 000 meter peaks without the aid of bottled oxygen But No Shortcuts to the Top is as much about the man who would become the first American to achieve that goal as it is about his stunning quest As Viesturs recounts the stories of his most harrowing climbs he reveals a man torn between the flat safe world he and his loved ones share and the majestic and deadly places where only he can go A preternaturally cautious climber who once turned back 300 feet from the top of Everest but who would not shrink from a peak Annapurna known to claim the life of one climber for every two who reached its summit Viesturs lives by an unyielding motto Reaching the summit is optional Getting down is mandatory It is with this philosophy that he vividly describes fatal errors in judgment made by his fellow climbers as well as a few of his own close calls and gallant rescues And for the first time he details his own pivotal and heroic role in the 1996 Everest disaster made famous in Jon Krakauer's Into Thin Air In addition to the raw excitement of Viesturs's odyssey No Shortcuts to the Top is leavened with many funny moments revealing the camaraderie between climbers It is more than the first full account of one of the staggering accomplishments of our time it is a portrait of a brave and devoted family man and his beliefs that shaped this most perilous and magnificent pursuit American Book Publishing Record, 2003 The Common Review, 2004 The Publishers Weekly, 2003 The Will to Climb Ed Viesturs, David Roberts, 2012-10-23 The bestselling author of The Mountain and No Shortcuts to the Top chronicles his three attempts to climb the world's tenth highest and statistically deadliest peak while exploring the dramatic and tragic history of others who have made or attempted the ascent Viesturs and Roberts have written an exhaustively researched and wonderfully compelling history of the most fascinating and dangerous of the Himalayan giants David Breashers veteran mountaineer and documentary filmmaker director of IMAX film Everest As a high school student Ed Viesturs read and was captivated by the French climber Maurice Herzog's famous and grisly account of the first ascent of Annapurna in 1950 When he began his own campaign to climb the world's fourteen highest peaks in the late 1980s Viesturs looked forward with trepidation to undertaking Annapurna himself Two failures to summit in 2000 and 2002 made Annapurna his nemesis His successful 2005 ascent was the triumphant capstone of his climbing quest In The Will to Climb Viesturs and co author David Roberts bring the extraordinary challenges of Annapurna to vivid life through edge of your seat accounts of the greatest climbs in the mountain's history and of his own failed attempts and eventual success In the process Viesturs ponders what Annapurna reveals about some of our most fundamental moral and spiritual questions questions he believes that we need to answer to lead our lives well Books In Print 2004-2005 Ed Bowker Staff, Staff Bowker, Ed, 2004 Backpacker, 2004-03 Backpacker brings the outdoors straight to the reader's doorstep inspiring and enabling them to go more places and enjoy nature more often The authority on active adventure Backpacker is the world's first GPS enabled magazine and the only magazine whose editors personally test the hiking trails camping gear and survival tips they publish Backpacker's Editors Choice Awards an industry honor recognizing design feature and product innovation has become the gold standard against which all other outdoor industry awards are measured My Quest for the Yeti Reinhold Messner, 2001-04-20 Climbing solo in Eastern Tibet in 1986 Reinhold Messner confronted something Since that moment he has been obsessed with what the Western media has called the abominable snowman Widely considered the greatest living mountain climber Messner had found his greatest challenge to solve the age old mystery of the yeti Photos Everest Roberto Mantovani, Kurt Diemberger, 1997 Recounts human defiance of this Himalayan colossus Everest Roberto Mantovani, 2001 Everest, History Of The Himalayan Giant R.Mantovani & K.Diemberger,
