School and Society ,1954-07      Selected Offprints William Hardy Alexander,1945      School & Society James McKeen Cattell,Will Carson Ryan,Raymond Walters,1954      Magic and Ritual in the Ancient World Paul Mirecki,Marvin Meyer,2002-01-01 This volume contains a series of provocative essays that explore expressions of magic and ritual power in the ancient world The essays are authored by leading scholars in the fields of Egyptology ancient Near Eastern studies the Hebrew Bible Judaica classical Greek and Roman studies early Christianity and patristics and Coptic and Islamic Egypt The strength of the present volume lies in the breadth of scholarly approaches represented The book begins with several papyrological studies presenting important new texts in Greek and Coptic continuing with essays focusing on taxonomy and definition The concluding essays apply contemporary theories to analyses of specific test cases in a broad variety of ancient Mediterranean cultures      Strategies of Polemics in Greek and Roman Philosophy ,2016-07-18 Strategies of Polemics in Greek and Roman Philosophy brings together papers written by specialists in the field of ancient philosophy on the topic of polemics Despite the central role played by polemics in ancient philosophy the forms and mechanisms of philosophical polemics are not usually the subject of systematic scholarly attention The present volume seeks to shed new light on familiar texts by approaching them from this neglected angle The contributions address questions such as What is the role of polemic in a philosophical discourse What were the polemical strategies developed by ancient philosophers To what extent did

polemics contribute to the shaping of important philosophical doctrines or standpoint Contributors are Mauro Bonazzi Andr Laks Robert Lamberton Carlos L vy Daniel Markovi Jozef M ller Charlotte Murgier Christopher Shields Naly Thaler Voula Tsouna and Sharon Weisser A History of the Cutlery Industry in the Connecticut Valley Cyrus Herzl Gordon,Frances Cornwall Hutner,J. Jean Hecht,Louis Cohn-Haft,Martha Van Hoesen Taber,Pieter Geyl,1951 Smith College Studies in History ,1956 Studies in History Smith College,1955 Exploring Second Corinthians B. J. Oropeza,2016-04-15 A multifaceted commentary that breathes fresh insight into Paul s letter In Second Corinthians Paul responds to reports of the Corinthian congregation questioning his competency as a divinely sent messenger Through apologetic demegoria and the use of graphic imagery related to triumphal processions siege warfare and emissary travels and negotiation Paul defends his constancy persona and speaking abilities as he extends the offer of clemency and reconciliation to his auditors Oropeza combines rhetorical pictures rhetography with interpretative layers literary features intertextuality socio cultural ideological and sacred textures to arrive at the rhetorical impact of Paul s message for ancient Mediterranean discourse Features A visual sensory and imaginative interpretation of the scripture A comprehensive commentary An avant garde approach to biblical interpretation Flavius Josephus: Translation and Commentary, Volume 1B: Judean War 2 Steve Mason,2008-10-16 Volume 1b in Brill s Josephus Project contains Book 2 of Josephus Judean War translation and commentary This book deals with a period of enormous consequence from King Herod s death 4 BCE to the first phase of the war against Rome 66 CE It covers the succession struggle the governments of Herod s sons Judea s incorporation as a Roman province some notable governors including Pilate Kings Agrippa I and II the Judean philosophical schools featuring the Essenes various rebel movements and the Sicarii tensions between Judeans and their neighbors events leading up to the revolt the failed intervention of the Syrian legate Cestius Gallus and preparations for war in Judea and Galilee The commentary aims at a balance between historical and literary issues Rethinking 'Authority' in Late Antiquity A.J. Berkovitz,Mark Letteney,2018-06-14 The historian s task involves unmasking the systems of power that underlie our sources A historian must not only analyze the content and context of ancient sources but also the structures of power authority and political contingency that account for their transmission preservation and survival But as a tool for interpreting antiquity authority has a history of its own As authority gained pride of place in the historiographical order of knowledge other types of contingency have faded into the background This book s introduction traces the genesis and growth of the category describing the lacuna that scholars seek to fill by framing texts through its lens The subsequent chapters comprise case studies from late ancient Christian and Jewish sources asking what lies beyond authority as a primary tool of analysis Each uncovers facets of textual and social history that have been obscured by overreliance on authority as historical explanation While chapters focus on late ancient topics the methodological intervention speaks to the discipline of history as a whole Scholars of classical antiquity and the early medieval world will find immediately analogous cases and applications

Furthermore the critique of the place of authority as used by historians will find wider resonance across the academic study of history

Aëtiana Jaap Mansfeld, Douwe (David) Runia, 2009-10-23 Ancient doxography particularly as distilled in the work on problems of physics by Aëtius is a vital source for our knowledge of early Greek philosophy up to the first century BCE But its purpose and method and also its wider intellectual context are by no means easy to understand The present volume contains 19 essays written between 1989 and 2009 in which the authors grapple with various aspects of the doxographical tradition and its main representatives The essays examine the origins of the doxographical method in the work of Aristotle and Theophrastus and also provide valuable insights into the works of other authors such as Epicurus Chrysippus Lucretius Cicero Philo of Alexandria and Seneca The collection can be read as a companion collection to the two earlier volumes of Aëtiana published by the two authors in this series 1997 2009 The History of Glaucoma C.T. Leffler, 2020-04-17 The History of Glaucoma the latest in the Hirschberg series of the history of ophthalmology covers the twists turns and paradigm shifts in the glaucoma concept over the past two millennia Previously scholars were not able to agree on how the term glaucoma which related in antiquity to the color of a diseased eye ended up describing an excavated optic neuropathy which has nothing to do with color The volume begins in the ancient world and proceeds all the way to the modern era of optical coherence tomography minimally invasive surgery and anti VEGF agents Ophthalmic historians and glaucoma specialists from the United States Europe Asia and Latin America have contributed their scholarship and recollections to this volume which includes photographs from private collections information from unpublished documents and new translations from Latin Arabic French German and Spanish The work of masters such as Julius Hirschberg and Max Meyerhof is supplemented by the latest scholarship which has benefited from the explosion in digitally accessible historical documents This new scholarship has upended many deeply rooted beliefs about ophthalmology history Most important the volume relates the personal stories of eye surgeons and patients to bring the past to life The History of Glaucoma is a must have for anyone interested in medical history Dictionary Catalog of the Research Libraries of the New York Public Library, 1911-1971 New York Public Library. Research Libraries, 1979 Flavius Josephus Flavius Josèphe, 2008 Volume 1b in Brill's Josephus Project contains Book 2 of Josephus Judean War translation and commentary This book deals with a period of enormous consequence from King Herod's death 4 BCE to the first phase of the war against Rome 66 CE It covers the succession struggle the governments of Herod's sons Judea's incorporation as a Roman province some notable governors including Pilate Kings Agrippa I and II the Judean philosophical schools featuring the Essenes various rebel movements and the Sicarii tensions between Judeans and their neighbors events leading up to the revolt the failed intervention of the Syrian legate Cestius Gallus and preparations for war in Judea and Galilee The commentary aims at a balance between historical and literary issues Paul and the Image of God Chris Kugler, 2020-01-09 In this book Chris Kugler situates Paul's imago Dei theology within the complex and contested context of second temple Judaism and early Christianity in the Greco Roman world He argues that Paul adapted the Jewish wisdom and Middle Platonic traditions regarding divine intermediaries so as to present the preexistent Jesus as the cosmogonical image of God according to which Adam himself was made and toward which the whole of humanity was destined In this way Paul includes Jesus within the most exclusive theological category of second temple Jewish monotheism cosmogonical activity Paul s imago Dei christology therefore is a clear instance of christological monotheism Moreover Kugler demonstrates that this interpretation of Paul s imago Dei theology allows for a fresh reading of some of the most contested texts in Paul s letters 2 Corinthians 3 4 Romans 7 8 and Colossians 1 15 20 3 10 He demonstrates that at the rhetorical level Paul presents himself and his sympathizers as true philosophers who attain to the Middle Platonic telos of true philosophy the image of God while he presents his opponents as advocates of an empty and deceitful philosophy
