Hiroshima Mon Amour Une Aussi Longue A:

Hiroshima Mon Amour, Une Aussi Longue Absence by Marguerite Duras, 1966 The Nouveau Roman and Writing in Britain After Modernism Adam Guy, 2019 This volume explores the influence of the avant garde French novel form known as Nouveau Roman on experimental prose fiction and post war literary culture in Britain Hiroshima Mon Amour Marguerite Duras, 1966 The Crimes of Marguerite Duras Anne Brancky, 2020-07-09 This book studies Marguerite Duras's use of mass media and criminal faits divers as critical components of her literary project The French New Wave Peter Graham, Ginette Vincendeau, 2022-09-08 The French New Wave is an essential anthology of writings by and about the critics and filmmakers of this revolutionary cinematic movement which has had a radical impact on film practice and the way we think and write about film The volume includes foundational writings such as Francois Truffaut's A Certain Tendency in French Cinema and Andre Bazin's La Politique des auteurs as well writings by Jean Luc Godard Claude Chabrol and Alexandre Astruc This new edition now represents writings by and about women critics and film makers including important articles by the critics Evelyne Sullerot Michele Firk and Fran oise Aude addressing issues of gender and representation as well as considering New Wave films in the context of contemporary political events notably France's colonialist war on the Algerian independence movement To accompany the case study of Godard's bout de souffle the new edition includes a case study of the critical reception of two films by Agn s Varda La Pointe Courte and Cl o de 5 7 The articles have been specially translated for the volume by Peter Graham and some are published for the first time in English These classic writings are accompanied by contextualising introductions by Ginette Vincendeau updated for this new edition to form a unique resource on this key cinematic movement and its practitioners Marguerite Duras Laure Adler, 2000-12-15 Now available in English the bestseller of France traces the life of one of that country's most prolific yet controversial figures The life of the author of The Lover and The War A Memoir is explored through events central to Duras's career by means of letters unpublished manuscripts and interviews Photos The Multilingual Screen Tijana Mamula, Lisa Patti, 2016-06-30 The Multilingual Screen is the first edited volume to offer a wide ranging exploration of the place of multilingualism in cinema investigating the ways in which linguistic difference and exchange have shaped and continue to shape the medium's history Moving across a vast array of geographical historical and theoretical contexts from Japanese colonial filmmaking to the French New Wave to contemporary artists moving image the essays collected here address the aesthetic political and industrial significance of multilingualism in film production and reception In grouping these works together The Multilingual Screen discerns and emphasizes the areas of study most crucial to forging a renewed understanding of the relationship between cinema and language diversity In particular it reassesses the methodologies and frameworks that have influenced the study of filmic multilingualism to propose that its force is also and perhaps counterintuitively a silent one While most studies of the subject have explored linguistic difference as a largely audible phenomenon manifested through polyglot dialogues or through the translation of monolingual dialogues for international audiences The Multilingual Screen traces some of its unheard histories contributing to a new field of inquiry based on an attentiveness to multilingualism's work beyond the soundtrack The Lives of Others Annie Ring, 2022-10-06 This study offers a fresh approach to the remarkable German film The Lives of Others 2006 known for its compelling representation of a Stasi surveillance officer and the moral and ethical turmoil that results when he begins spying on a playwright and his actress lover Annie Ring analyses the film's cinematography mise en scene and editing tracing connections with Hollywood movies such as Casablanca and Hitchcock's Torn Curtain in the film's portrayal of an individual rebelling against a brutal dehumanising regime Drawing on archival sources including primary research from the Stasi files themselves as well as Enlightenment philosophies of art and Brecht's theories on theatre dating from his GDR years she explores the film's strong but much disputed claims to historical authenticity She examines the way the film tracks the world changing political shift that took place at the end of the Cold War away from the collective dreams of socialism and towards the dreams of the private individual arguing that this is what makes it at once widely appealing and fascinatingly problematic In doing so she highlights why The Lives of Others is a crucial film for thinking at the horizon between film and recent world history
